

The King's Highway.

An Advocate of Scriptural Holiness.

And an Highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The Way of Holiness—Isa. 35-8.

VOL. XXXIII.

MONCTON, N. B., JUNE 30, 1921.

NO. 24

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING

1903 EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING 1921
AUGUST TWELFTH TO TWENTY FIRST

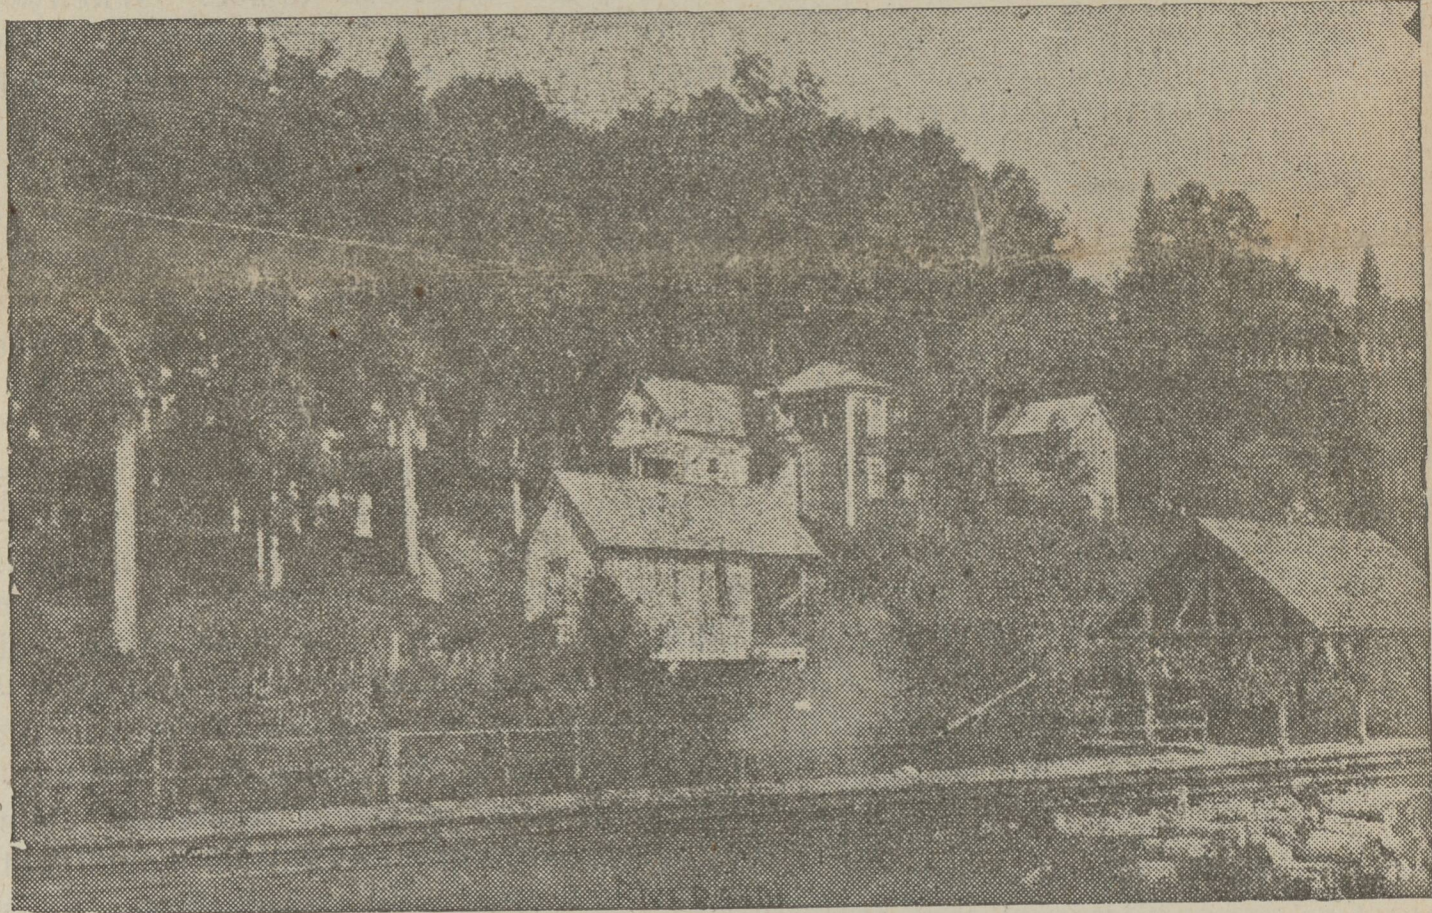

Riverside Camp Meeting is an annual event which is looked forward to by thousands of people, who gather from Aroostook County, and Washington County in Maine, and Victoria, Carleton and York Counties, with people from St. John, Kings, Sunbury and Westmorland Counties, in New Brunswick, with frequent visitors from the New England States.

So the field is wide.

Riverside Camp Ground is centrally located within easy distance of Presque Isle, Fort Fairfield, Caribou, Mars Hill, Blaine, Bridgewater, Robinson, Monticello, Littleton in Maine, and beautiful farming districts in every direction. And Baird's Mills, Tracy's Mills, Centreville, Lakeville, Florenceville, Hartland, Bath, Bristol, Victoria, Woodstock, and many other places in New Brunswick, with its beautiful farming districts covering a magnificent stretch of country along the St. John River from Fredericton to Grand Falls.

People come from these sections in their automobiles.

The St. John Valley R. R. is a direct line from St. John to Centreville (within 8 miles of the Riverside Camp Ground). The C. P. R. connects at Houlton and Fort Fairfield with the Bangor and Aroostook R. R. which passes Riverside Camp Ground.

Don't forget the date. This year is August 12-21. Board 6.00 per week. 1.25 per day. Dinner 60 cents. Breakfast and supper 40 cents.

Rooms in Dormitory 50 cents per day.
Rooms in Hotel 75c per day.

Free admission to grounds.

A large number of ministers and workers will take part in the services.

Mr. J. F. Bullock, of St. John, N. B., organist, Rev. P. J. Trafton and E. W. Lester in charge of singing. Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen, special singers.

The praying bands and lay workers will assist in the services.

Riverside never fails to be a great meeting. We ask all to pray that this season's meeting will only be an exception because of it being a greater meeting than usual in Spiritual power and victory.

Come expecting a great meeting.

For further information write Rev. S. A. Baker, Brown's Flats, Kings Co., N. B. in charge of singing.

"There is only one fight that God wants us to win. That is the fight of faith."

