

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We are planning to have a farewell meeting for our outgoing missionaries, Friday evening, March 4th, in the church at St. John. We trust that all who can will be present.

Sister I. F. Keirstead plans to be at St. John for the farewell meeting, March 4th.

Rev. R. C. Potter went to Boston, Mass., last week, and from there he is going to Toronto, and later further west.

Spring is rushing toward us. Don't forget we will need more bedding for Beulah and Riverside Hotels. Blankets, quilts, comfortables, feather pillows, sheets and pillow case are always needed.

Read Dr. Sanders' good report of the missionary work, also Sister Faith Sanders' letter.

Rev. P. J. Trafton has gone to Wood Island, Grand Manan, to assist Pastor Hilyard in special services.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard's latest report is three more additions to the membership of the Seal Cove Church, making 10 in the recent revival. He also says that Sister Hilyard was healed from a prolonged sickness in answer to prayer.

Rev. H. Smith Dow has returned home from Grand Manan, N. B.

Rev. A. H. Trafton is supplying the pulpit of the Fredericton Church in the absence of Pastor P. J. Trafton to Grand Manan.

Rev. G. B. and Mrs. Trafton recently visited Hartland, N. B., on account of the death of Mr. Henry Tedlie, Mrs. Trafton's brother.

Rev. S. H. Clark is holding special revival services at Calais, Maine, assisted by F. W. Foster, the Farmer Evangelist, and his son, Carvell, who plays a cornet.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard says: Brother Nease was with us three weeks, and Brother Dow one week. Yesterday (Jan. 30th) we baptized 18 happy converts; gave the hand of fellowship to seven in the evening. This place has received a great awakening. We are expecting more to follow. Some others to be baptized later. Brother Nease proved himself to be a true yokefellow.

Dear Brother Baker:

Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. I love it, and admire the way it teaches the two works of grace, which are necessary to save men from all sin. For all must acknowledge that after one has been born into the kingdom and have the assurance of sins all forgiven and received the spirit of adoption, that carnality remains in the soul. Therefore the baptism with the Holy Ghost and fire is necessary to cleanse the heart from all sin. Therefore the experience known as sanctification, the baptism of the Holy Ghost perfect love, is a distinct and separate work from justification or regeneration. We find that all through God's word it is plainly taught as two works of grace. When we tarry before God and hold close communion with him, the spirit witnesses to our spirit that this is the way of eternal life. And where we exhort and encourage men on this divine blessing God blesses our souls; and when we hold up the doctrine of sanctification as a second work of grace we feel the smile of God's approval.

Yours for a lost world,
LELAND WILCOX.

PERSONALS.

Sister Mrs. Annie Wiggins, known to our people who attend Riverside Camp Meetings, is now living with her niece at Lisbon Falls, Maine.

Brother D. F. Knight is stopping with his brother-in-law, Mr. Dudley Currie, at Macnaquac, York Co., N. B. Brother Knight's eyesight is failing him. He is past the fourscore years mark in his age. He says: Pray for me that the dear Lord may keep and guide me safely home.

Brother P. L. Cosman, Kingston, says: I praise God that he is keeping me with a full determination to go through with him.

Brother W. E. Chipman enclosed with his renewal a subscription for the Highway for one who is shut in who would like to have it. Who will send a name to us?

Sister Stephen Thomas, of North Head, Grand Manan, returned to her home last week. She has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Page, for several weeks. Brother Thomas will probably remain at Caribou until spring.

Misses Grace and Nellie Good, of Moncton, have been visiting with their aunt, Mrs. H. C. Archer, of Millville, for about two weeks.

We are glad to report that Sister Mrs. James McNeill, of Moncton, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is now improving.

It is good news that comes to us through the medium of a Halifax paper. This announces that the West End church has extended a call to Rev. G. B. Macdonald, of Mars Hill, Me., who has accepted the call and will begin his work there May 1st. Brother Macdonald has already proved himself in our work here and he will be warmly welcomed back again. He will find ample scope for his energy and pastoral ability in connection with the West End church.—Maritime Baptist.

Sister Alma F. Hartley says in a recent letter: I am proving his grace sufficient, and wonderful peace is mine. "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God; how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out."

Brother C. N. Scott for many years superintendent of the Woodstock Reformed Baptist Sunday School, has been superannuated, and Brother Orrison R. Estey has been elected in his stead, and B. M. Colpitts is the secretary.

God meant to impress men by the contrast of the unworldliness of His people; but, on the whole, the witness of a separate and sanctified life is gone and the witness of the tongue of fire is gone with it. The worldliness of the church is a fact to which we can not with impunity shut our eyes.—Rev. A. T. Pierson.

Address read by President.

Grey's Mills, Feb. 8th, 1921.

We the members of the Church and Missionary Society and Friends at Grey's Mills:

To Sisters Helen and Alice Sterritt:

Remembering as we do the words of our blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who has said: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." And realizing that you, our sisters in His service, have heard your Lord's command, saying: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," and that you have not only heard the call but have also obeyed, and as the time is nearing for you to leave home and friends and native land to go to a far off land beyond the sea, we therefore ask you to accept these Bibles (at this stage Brother Fred Patterson placed into the hand of each of the missionaries a beautiful reference Bible and envelopes containing money—$40.00) and this small amount of money as a token of our esteem and christian love to you.

As you carry the precious word of Truth and Life to a lost and perishing world, may you also find in it a chart and compass to guide you o'er life's temptuous sea. And finally bring you into that Heavenly Home where parting shall be no more.

That you shall shine as the brightness of the firmament and as the stars forever and ever is the prayer of our hearts.

Signed on behalf of the Church and missionary society.

S. H. BRADLEY, Pres.
LUCY BRADLEY, Secy.

To this address the missionaries replied briefly. Closing hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds.

Benediction.

A good offering was taken during the evening.
