

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead gave the hand-of-fellowship to four new members uniting with the Royalton church on the 19th of last month.

The new parsonage has been commenced at Royalton. The foundation is completed and considerable lumber is already on the ground, and the people are showing much interest.

Rev. W. W. Howe preached his farewell sermon at St. John on Sunday, June 19th. A large congregation were present.

Rev. R. C. Potter attended the Camp Meeting at Cincinnati, Ohio. He says: I have secured a young man who has just graduated here, who is a singer, to assist me in the West. It seems good to get back to the great prairie province.

Dr. and Mrs. Sanders are (or perhaps we may now say) have enjoyed a month's rest at Durban.

No pastor should be so reserved that people who read the denominational paper need ask, Where is Brother So-and-So preaching? And we have to reply, He is stationed at——. It is a bit amusing, at least to the editor, for some pastors to write him, saying: "What is the reason that Brother So-and-So does not write for the Highway?" If we were near enough we possibly would reply, like you, too lazy!

An excellent prayer and testimony meeting was held at Brother and Sister Robert Barr's cottage at Beulah Camp Ground on Sunday afternoon, July 26th, when a little company who were on the grounds gathered for prayer, led by Rev. A. H. Trafton.

Our older ministers, Revs. A. H. Trafton, B. Colpitts and J. H. Coy, preached at Beulah Camp Meeting; also our youngest ministers, Revs. L. J. Alley and P. W. Briggs.

Rev. S. H. Clark will remain at Calais, Maine, this year.

S. A. Baker will return to his pastoral duties at Moncton, N. B., about Sep. 1st.

Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins will remain at their cottage at Beulah Ground until August 11th. Brother Wiggins resigned the pastorate of Woodstock church and has not engaged as yet for the ensuing year.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard has received a call to the St. John church, but had not decided when we last heard from him.

PERSONALS

Brother Norman Sharp is our cook at Beulah Camp Hotel. The committee were very fortunate in securing his services. Bro. Bruce Mitchell, who has done this work for several years, has accepted a permanent position.

We are receiving very happy and inspiring letters from our new missionaries. We hope none will neglect immediate replies to their letters. Remember they are far off and letters are very valuable to them.

Sisters R. M. Dow, C. E. Freeze and Harold, Mrs. B. E. Robertson, Mrs. Mary Hickson, Mrs. A. E. Whelpley, Mrs. C. K. Short and daughters, Robert and Mrs. Barr and Rev. H. A. Goodwin and family are at Beulah Camp Ground.

Mrs. I. F. Keirstead will spend a week in St. John, N. B., before returning to her home.

Mrs. A. S. Beacom, of Presque Isle, Me., is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. A. Baker, at Beulah Camp Ground.

Brother Russell Brown spent a few days at Beulah Camp Ground after the close of Beulah Camp Meeting. He will teach at Mount Allison this year.

Evangelist Cocherel and wife, of Columbus, Ohio, visited Beulah Camp Meeting a few days.

Messrs. Whitman and Green, of Providence, R. I., spent a few days at Beulah Camp Meeting.

Mr. A. W. C. Lawson, of Fredericton, has been spending a few days at Beulah Camp Ground.

A surprise came to us at the close of the meeting by the coming of Sister J. C. Maxon from Michigan, who expects to spend a few weeks visiting friends in New Brunswick.

For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is our witness.—Bible.
