

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We are glad to note the following from the Calais, Maine, Advertiser.

The special meetings in the Reformed Baptist Church are of a highly interesting nature and upwards of fifty persons have professed conversion. Mr. Foster has been met with a fine house and many times standing room has been in demand. The cornetist has come in for a good amount of praise and the special help in singing of Mr. Beaugeard, of St. Stephen, and Mr. Wheeler of Milltown, and Master Munson has been appreciated. The pastor and Mrs. Clark, as well as the church members, wish to express their thanks for all kindness shown during the services. Mr. Foster goes to Oxford, N. S., for Sunday, Feb. 27.

Sister M. Ella Slipp reports revival interest and baptism at Jonesport, Maine.—See her letter.

Rev. H. S. Mullen reports good meetings on the Meductic Circuit. Brother Mullen hints that he has drawing toward re-entering the evangelistic work.

The Springtime is upon us again, and with us the question of changing pastors and camp meetings and the meeting of the Alliance.

Brethren, it is a bad habit to send in your items to reach us the day that the Highway is due to be mailed. The only thing possible to us is to hold your items of news over to the next issue.

Rev. W. W. Howe is holding special services at St. John, assisted by Rev. W. E. Smith.

The First District Quarterly meeting convenes with the Fort Fairfield Church, March 3-6.

Rev. P. J. Trafton is assisting Pastor C. S. Hilyard in special services at Wood Island, Grand Manan. Brother and Sister Trafton expects to attend the farewell service at St. John on March 4th.

Pastor and Mrs. S. A. Baker expect to be in St. John the 3rd and 4th of March.

The Hartland Church and Sunday School are reported as enjoying a good interest. Quite a number have been blessed and helped.

The Moncton Church feels justly grateful for financial blessing, whereby they have been enabled to meet their payment promptly of one thousand dollars and interest on their church debt. It might be helpful to other churches for us to say: That this was done by systematic unity in action by the church and Sunday School. Even the little beginners' class were given an interest with their little gifts. The Young Ladies' Class showed special zeal and supervising liberality. It is wonderful what a few people can do—When they pull together. This was done so quietly that scarcely any person knew that anything was being done—But it was done and we thank our Heavenly Father.

Brother P. J. Trafton with us. The Lord is giving some victory on Wood Island, four at the altar last night; we baptized two more at eSal Cove last Sunday, the 20th; expect to have baptism again next Sunday. Pray for us.

Yours in him,

C. S. HILYARD.

Sister D. H. Nixon expects to go to Boston a little later for further treatment. Her eyes were benefited by the former treatment.

The Sterritt Sisters sail on the "Corsican" for England, March 5th.

Our aged sister, Mrs. John Shea, of Grafton, N. B., is now confined to her bed, and her sight has failed, but she is still interested in the missionary work and sends her contribution.

Brother C. P. Phillips, of Woodstock, is on a business trip in the Northern part of the Province.

A considerable number of our people expect to attend the farewell meeting for our outgoing missionaries, from Moncton and Kings County. There would be many more but the 1st district quarterly meeting will be in session on the same date.

Sister Mrs. David Scoville, Cedar Lake, N. S., gives as her testimony: "I will bless the Lord at all times. His praise shall be continually in my mouth."

The article, "How I raised money for missions," is a true statement without fiction. Some of us know the sister who wrote it.

Adj. M. Burry, of the Salvation Army, formerly stationed at Fredericton and St. John, has been appointed chaplain to the Ontario Reformatory at Guelph, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Allingham, of Woodstock, N. B., are visiting their son at St. John.

Rev. W. E. Smith says: We had a good meeting with Rev. L. T. Sabine at Port Maitland, N. S. Some were converted, reclaimed and sanctified.

We seem to be spending a lot of time and energy in correcting some other folks, that we will have no time left to do our own work. Say nothing of the twist we give our spirit while we are at it, especially when the other fellow don't think it worth while to reply to our attacks. Pretty near time to quit.

THEY SAW JESUS.

"Stephen said: Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God."

Paul said: "And He was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of about five hundred brethren at once. After that he was seen of James; then of the Apostles.

And last of all he was seen of me also, as one born out of due time."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer wish to acknowledge the kindness of the people of the Church and Congregation of Millville, who on the evening of February 22nd gathered at the parsonage and presented them with a purse of money amounting to $80.00.

An enjoyable evening was spent in music and games and after a bountiful luncheon had been served by the ladies, Deacon Abner Sharpe, on behalf of the assembled company made the presentation.

We feel very grateful for this, as well as many other expressions of kindness from the people of this community.

FROM A LITTLE GIRL.

I am a little girl, eight years and seven months old. My name is Faith Alvena Ramsey. My mother has read to me about Faith Sanders. Papa has given me five dollars to send to her for her work for Jesus.

FAITH A. RAMSEY.

DRESS PLAINER.

We heard of a girl who delayed joining one class until she could afford to dress as well as the others. She is still staying out. Seriously, girls, is too much regard for pretty clothes the reason why so many girls have fought shy of your invitations to come in with the class? If so, dress plainer.

KEEP ON ROWING.

By Willis Boyd Allen.

"Pray to God, but keep on rowing!"
So the ancient proverb ran,
Murmured, 'mid the fierce winds blowing,
By the toil-worn fisherman.

"Pray to God!" Without His sharing
Work were useless, day by day;
Burdens hardly worth the bearing,
Hope but quickened, to betray.

"Keep on rowing!" He will guide us
O'er the billows topped with foam;
And our boat, whate'er betide us,
Soon shall bear us safely home.
Boston, Mass.
