

MARRIED.

Thompson-Atkinson.

A quiet wedding took place on March 23rd, 1924, at 229 City Road, St. John, in the presence of a few immediate friends, when Fred Roy Thompson, of Mercer Settlement, Kings Co., and Beatrice Atkinson, of Norton, Kings Co., were married by Rev. G. B. Trafton. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will reside at Mercer Settlement.

Dudley- Jollotta.

A very simple but pretty wedding occurred at 6 o'clock Monday afternoon April 4th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dudley, when their second daughter, Frances Marion, became the bride of Harry Jolotta of Eastport, Me. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jolotta have many friends here and elsewhere who unite in wishing them much happiness. Rev. T. W. Moses, grandfather of the bride, officiated.

PILLOWS FOR BEULAH.

Sister James McNeill, of Moncton, recently gave an excellent feather bed to be made into pillows for the mission station, and for Beulah Camp Ground. Several sisters of the Moncton Church met and made it up into a considerable number of nice pillows. Some are on the way to Africa. The remainder goes to Beulah.

EASTER CONCERT

On Easter Monday evening the young people of Calais Sunday School held an Easter Concert, about 40 taking part in the programme.

The Church had been beautifully decorated with green and Easter lilies forming an arch over the platform in which were placed small electric lights and gave the scene a beautiful effect. During the evening a freewill offering was taken for the purpose of purchasing song books for the use of the church, and the amount of $48.00 was raised. The Sunday School has increased its membership from about 30 to over 70 in number.

The members of Brighten the Valley Class and the Class in the Corner of the Sunday School in Calais Church taught by Brother and Sister Clark of which Brother and Sister Walter P. McMillan are members sprang a surprise on them at their new home recently purchased on Main street, Calais, on Tuesday evening, Mch 29th, and after a pleasant evening together their pastor in a few well chosen words in behalf of each class presented to them a beautiful silver butter dish and knife. Brother and Sister McMillan were taken by surprise but thanked the givers as best new beginners in housekeeping could be expected. After singing Blest be the tie that binds and prayer by the pastor. Everybody departed saying I never spent a more pleasant evening.

COTTAGES WANTED AT BEULAH.

We are having enquiries for cottages for rent at Beulah Camp Ground. Are there any who wish to rent their cottages. If so, will you please inform the editor, who will direct enquirers to you.

DON'T FAIL US.

We have never had any occasion to complain of our subscribers, in the many years we have served them as editor and business manager of the Highway; but just now, on account of the increase in the cost of publishing of the Highway, we need promptness in sending your renewals. Send Postal Notes, Post Office Orders, Express Money Orders or Registered Letters.

I verily believe that if strong drink could be wiped out of the earth tonight, humanity would wake in the morning with more than half its sins and sorrows gone.—Hall Caine.

OBITUARY.

Rev. Aura Smith.

The Christian Witness announces the death of Rev. Aura Smith. He will be remembered by many of our people who met him and Mrs. Smith at Riverside Camp Meeting.

Rev. R. J. Colpitts.

Rev. R. J. Colpitts, editor of the Maritime Baptist, passed away after a week's illness at his residence at Hampton, N. B. Mr. Colpitts was a young man and his death came as a shock to many.

John Henry Beal.

John Henry Beal, infant son of John and Katie Beal, of Jonesport, Me., died of pneumonia, March 24th, 1924; aged 2 months and 19 days. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing parents, but we know that their loss is his gain.

M. ELLA SLIPP.

Mrs. Mary Ann Graham.

The death of Mrs. Mary Ann Graham occurred at the home of her grandson, William Blaney, at Maple Ridge, on Wednesday, April 6th, at the advanced age of 94 years. She was twice married. Her first husband was Daniel F. Clark, who died some 50 years ago, her second husband being William Graham, who died some twenty years ago. Since then she has made her home with her grandson. She had only one daughter, Mrs. Robert Blaney, who died in October, 1907. Mrs. Graham was born in Ireland and came to this country with her parents when she was only 16 years old. She was a woman of much ability and was one of the old time saints, having become a follower of Christ while young and united with the Methodist Church at Gaspereaux, N. B.

She is survived by eleven grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren, who mourn their loss, besides the people of the place in which she lived as she was one beloved and respected by all.

The funeral service was held on Friday at the home and also at the Church at Millville, where the burial took place, and was conducted by Rev. H. C. Archer.

Dear Brother Baker:

I enclose herewith my renewal to the Highway. I am always glad when the Highway comes.

Jesus is my strength from day to day; without Him I would fall. Praise Him tonight.

Yours for the advancement of His Kingdom,
HAROLD INGERSOLL.

Dear Brother Baker:

It gives me pleasure to invest $5.25 for one share in the work to be carried on by our precious "Sterritt girls" in the mission field. Helen is interested in them and will give her offering weekly with others in the S. S. I think yours a good proposition to raise the amount. This is no sacrifice to me but a privilege, not only for the work's sake, but our sisters are very dear to me.

Yours sincerely
MRS. H. C. MULLEN.
