HOW JOSEPH PARKER KEPT HIS CONGREGATION.

Many thousands of preachers in our own and other denominations are interested in the holding of congregations. Years ago Dr. Joseph Parker, in an address at the Baptist anniversaries in London, explained his phenomenal success in the following words:

I have been forty-two years in the Christian pulpit. I have never faltered in my allegiance to the highest vocation among men. I have lived in it, and I hope to die in it. If I left the cross of Christ as I have endeavored roughly to explain it in general outline tonight, I might be able to preach about Christ, but I would no longer be able to preach Christ himself. The people will answer to such preaching, while all other attempts will dwindle away. During these forty-two years I have never preached about shipwrecks, murders, collisions, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions and Sunday demonstrations in support of diverse features and phases of imprudence and nonsense. I have tried to confine myself to the four corners of the Bible, and it has been no confinement. It has been the liberty of the horizon, the liberty of the heavens.—Watchman-Examiner.

PERSONALS.

Brother Noah E. Hicks sent in two new subscribers and his own renewal, and says: I would not like to be without the Highway for I enjoy the good things I get out of it in the testimonies of the brethren, and the news from the churches. When I get it I read it through before I stop, and only wish it was larger. I am glad to say, Jesus is precious to me these days. Praise him for victory through the blood.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Thomas Tilley, of Victoria, is improving from a broken hip which she received from a fall several weeks ago, being a very active member of the church. All will be glad when she attends the services again.—Mrs. Hattie York.

Brother Thomas Moyse, of Bedeque, P. E. I., was in Moncton on the 24th.

Our aged sister, Mrs. Louisa B. Everett, is enjoying herself much in the home of Brother and Sister Handy Nevers at Perth. We trust that many of those who attend the quarterly meeting at Perth will call and see our oldest member. Sister Everett is over 90 years of age, and still loves Jesus with all her heart.

We are publishing an article by Rev. J. J. Colter in which he makes a kindly reference to the Reformed Baptists and their missionary work. Brother and Sister Colter are regular readers of the Highway and say they enjoy it, and consider it an excellent paper.

Brother Hartley Mullen reports an increasing interest in his meetings at North Head. He is planning for special services this winter.

All will be glad to know that Brother Barr of Fredericton is able to be about his home and still enjoy telling those who visit him of the power and love of God to a man after he is done with his work.

Sister Mrs. Albee Perry, of Port Maitland, N. S., is spending the winter with her parents, Rev. A. Perry and Mrs. T. Perry, at their home in Woodstock, N. B.

"Nothing disgusts the outside world with religion more than a professed Christian to be saying and doing little things that are unpleasant to others."

MARRIED.

Brewer-Jewett.

At Upper Hainesville, N. B., on Nov. 9th, Tilley M. Brewer was united in marriage with Miss Edna M. Jewett by Rev. H. C. Archer.

Beal-Upton.

At the home of the bride's father, 650 Union street, Fredericton, N. B., Thursday, Nov. 17th, Mrs. Abbie M. Upton was united in marriage to Nathaniel B. Beal, of North Head, Grand Manan, by Rev. P. J. Trafton.

Sanders-Keyes.

A wedding which will interest Highway readers took place in the "Concord" Missionary Home in Durban, South Africa, on July 21st, 1921, at 2.30 p. m. The contracting parties were Miss Ruth Ann Keyes, only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Norman Keyes, of Msebn Mission Station, Northern Zululand, and Herbert Paul Sanders, eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Sanders, of Balmoral Mission Station, Natal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James MacAllister, Wesleyan Methodist, of Durban, in the presence of about thirty guests, the young couple standing before the large bay window in the dining room which was tastefully decorated with pink and white carnations for the occasion. The bride was given away by her mother as Rev. Keyes was unable to be present. The wedding was attended by her friend, Miss Ruth Hardacre. Howard Stone Keyes, brother of the bride, was best man.

A dainty luncheon was served and the happy couple left on the evening train for the Reformed Baptist Mission Station in Natal. The bride's parents are missionaries of the South African General Mission (Interdenominational) and have been in Africa twenty-six years. Mrs. Keyes was born in St. John, N. B., and Mr. Keyes was formerly of Boston, Mass.

"An essential equipment of the soul-winner is character. It is a false notion that we must meet the world on its own level—drink to win the drinker; smoke to win the smoker, and play the world's games in order to win it to Christ."

"It is not enough for one to be a Christian. He may be sincere in his piety and able to pray and talk on religion, and yet be so disagreeable that every one will avoid his company."

Talk about the questions of time; there is but one question—how to bring the truths of God's work into vital contact with the minds and hearts of all classes of people.—Wm. E. Gladstone.

"With all the anxiety, in so many quarters of the Church, to try new forms of organization and new methods of activity, why not try, once for all and all for once, to use the old form and methods with more consecrated earnestness and efficiency. If results are wanted why not make it the purpose to work for results rather than for changes!"—Herald and Presbyter.
