

The King's Highway

An Advocate of Scriptural Holiness.

And an Highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The Way of Holiness—Isa. 35-8.

VOL. XXXIV.

MONCTON, N. B., NOV. 15, 1921.

NO. 9

Rejoice in the Lord Always!

Let Your Moderation Be Known to All Men—The Lord is at Hand! Be Careful For Nothing.

And the Peace of God Which Passeth all Understanding, Shall Keep Your Hearts and Minds Through Christ Jesus.

Are these things possible?
Are these things desirable?
Are these things profitable?
Are these things practicable?
Are these things harmonious with Scriptural teachings?

Are these things for earth or heaven?
Are these things possible for people in all situations, and at all times in life?

Brother, sister, do you believe this cluster of beautiful spiritual pearls are for you?

If these things were within the reach of the Phillipians, why not for Canadians and Americans?

If these things were possible for the Christians of A. D. 64, why not for A. D. 1921?

If these things were desirable and obtainable for the Christian Church, then why not now?

These things are all connected with the Lord.

It suggests a continuous happy state of life.

A life of moderation, storms all over, and desirable everybody should know it.

The Lord is at hand where these things exist.

A life of freedom from care, and a life which has audience with God.

A life where the peace of God, which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Then follows a beautiful list of heaven born things to think about. My dear Christian people, the burden of whose prayers are continually for pardon, did you ever breathe the heavenly atmosphere of the Phillipian Church?

Do you pray the supplicatory, and thanksgiving prayers, of the continuously joyful, care-free, peace kept and filled hearts and minds?

Is your mind occupied with things which are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report, virtue and praise?

If so, you can sing:

I've reached the land of corn and wine,
And all its riches freely mine,
Here shines undimmed one blissful day,
For all my night has passed away.
Oh, beulah land, sweet beulah land,
As on the highest mount I stand,
I'll look away across the sea
Where mansions are prepared for me,
And view the shining glory shore
My heaven, my home forever more.
The Saviour comes and walks with me,
And sweet communion here have we,
He gently leads me with his hand,
For this is heaven's border-land.

Earth's greatest and best blessings fall far short of these blessings, which are within the reach of all who appropriate the great provisions of the gospel of Christ.

A model young man, yet lost, because he refused to be disengaged from the world, and a complete renunciation of it, and its concerns.—Mark 10-17-22.

"If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him."—I. John 2-15.

"Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father."—Matt. 13-43.

"Do all things without murmurings and disputings: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world."—Phil. 2-15.
