OBITUARY.

Edmond Brooks.

On Oct. 10th Mr. Edmond Brooks departed this life. The deceased was 73 years of age. He leaves to mourn their loss one brother, John Brooks, of Middle Southampton and one sister, Mrs. David Tompkins, of Greenbush, besides a number of relatives and friends. The service was held at the house interment was made in the Middle Southampton cemetery. We extend our prayers and sympathy to the bereaved.

Mrs. Athelia Bulmer.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Athelia Bulmer took place Thursday afternoon from her late residence, 267 Lutz street, and was largely attended. Rev. S. A. Baker, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church, conducted the services at the house and grave. Members of the choir were present and sang "My Father's Welcome," "We Shall Walk the Realms of Glory," and "When I've Gone the Last Mile of the Way." Interment was made at Lutz Mountain.

Calvin B. Harvey.

Many of our readers will regret to hear of the death of Deacon Colin B. Harvey, a charter member of the church at Seal Cove, Grand Manan, N. B., which took place Friday evening, the 11th inst. In the death of Brother Harvey, one of our staunchest men in the denomination has been removed. He has stood bravely and true from the beginning. While of a quiet disposition Brother Harvey was one of the most influential men of Grand Manan. The home of Brother and Sister Harvey was a place of welcome for the ministers and workers for unlimited periods. We extend our sincerest sympathy to the widow and two sons and daughter, who mourn the loss of husband and father.

RECEPTION AND PRESENTATION.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 3rd, a number of friends gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bradley at Grey's Mills, Kings County, and gave Mr. and Mrs. George MacCallum, who had returned from a two weeks' honeymoon trip, a welcome home reception. During the evening Rev. G. B. Trafton presented Mrs. MacCallum with a beautiful silver bread tray as a gift from the Grey's Mills Sunday School and Mission Circle, of which Mrs. MacCallum was formerly a member.

Your renewal for the Highway should not be neglected. Many renewals are due in November and December.
