

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins has preached for the last three Sundays at St. John, N. B.

Rev. W. W. Howe has preached on July 28th and Aug. 7th at Woodstock. The church has given him a call, but he has not decided to accept as yet. Brother Howe spent one Sunday in Kings County recently.

Rev. G. B. Trafton preached at Beulah Camp Ground on July 21st and Aug. 7th. The editor preached at the same place on July 14th and 28th.

Rev. R. C. Potter is to be at Riverside Camp Meeting. He has visited many places since leaving N. B., including a camp meeting at Cincinatti.

Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins returned to Beulah Camp after spending Sunday at St. John. They report good meetings and a good number in attendance.

Rev. G. B. Trafton preached very acceptably to good congregations at Beulah Tabernacle morning and evening on the 7th inst. He spoke from Rom. 10-10 in the evening. Subject, Heart religion.

The Seal Cove Church has been refitted with new pews and carpets and the young people's S. S. Class has purchased a new organ. It looks fine and neat in its new fittings. Pastor C. S. Hilyard had not preached since returning from Beulah, as he has been having his throat treated by a specialist.

Pastor and Mrs. Baker, who have spent several weeks at Beulah Camp Ground, are now at Riverside Camp Meeting, and expect to return home on the 26th and take up their pastoral duties on the 28th.

Rev. P. J. Trafton supplied at the United Baptist Church, South Devon, Sunday evening, July 31st and Aug. 7th. This was made possible by the difference in the time. Fredericton is on daylight saving and Devon on Atlantic Standard time, which makes one hour's difference.

CHRISTLESS SERMONS.

The most monstrous sham of all shams in any pulpit is a crossless or Christless sermon. Neither the genius of the scholar, nor the eloquence of a Webster, nor the thunder and logic of a Beecher can ever take the place of an evangelistic and Christic sermon.—The Intelligencer.

PERSONALS.

Sister Mrs. Adelia Tracy, who has been living at San Diego, Calif., has removed to Burns, Ore., to live with her son, Rev. Leighton Tracy.

Sister Sterling Flemming, formerly of Millville, has removed to Skowhegan, Me.

Sister Mrs. J. W. Moores (formerly Mrs. D. H. Nixon) resides now at 115 Otis St., Medford, Mass. While we are sorry to lose her as one of our regular members and workers, as she has been one of our liberal supporters of home and foreign missionary work, she will continue to support a native worker in Africa and assist in the home work as she has opportunity. We join in wishing her much happiness in her new home.

We received a very nice letter from Sister Clare Wilcox, who is teaching school at Ogden, Alberta. We are delighted to know that we have some fine young people teaching school who are not of the pleasure seeking sort. In this case Sister Wilcox has gathered a lot of children and conducts a Sunday School.

Sister Mrs. J. C. Arnold has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Short, of Brown's Flats, since Beulah Camp Meeting.

Mrs. Partlow Watson and daughter, Miss Bessie Watson, attended Beulah Camp Meeting.

A letter from Mrs. M. A. Forbes states that her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Drysdale, is ill with acute rheumatism.

Brother Leslie Sears, of Port Maitland, N. S., is intending entering college in September.

Brother Warren Sollows, of Port Maitland, N. S., had the misfortune to cut off one of his fingers last week.

"MY MASTER IS ALWAYS IN."

"John," said a man, winking slyly to a clerk of his acquaintance in a shop, "you must give me extra measure; your master is not in."

John looked up in the man's face very seriously, and said, "My Master is always in."

John's Master was the all-seeing God.

Let us all, when we are tempted to do wrong, adopt John's motto: "My Master is always in." It will save us from many a sin, and so from much sorrow.—Ex.

"LEADERSHIP" AND PREACHING.

We sympathize with a writer in the Christian Standard who says that the great need of the Church is not "adequate leadership," but "Gospel preaching."

The "adequate leadership," so termed, in recent years, has well-nigh wrecked religious work in general.

There are entirely too many "adequate leaders" who theorize and suggest and fix up programs for the Churches, which simply divert attention from the real work of preaching the Gospel.—Herald and Presbyter.

"Our influence depends, not so much upon what we know, or even upon what we do, as upon what we are."

The reward of a thing well done, is to have done it.—Emerson.

Gen. Wm. Booth expressed a real truth when he said, If we look within all is dark; if we look about all is confusion; if we look unto God all is light and peace.

This I saw, that when a soul loves God with a supreme love, God's interest and his become one.—Bunyan.
