OBITUARY.

Edmund L. Kilcollins.

Edmund Lovel Kilcollins died at Community Hospital on Friday afternoon, June 24th, at the age of 52 years. He had been ill nearly six weeks with pneumonia and had to be operated on for abscess of the lungs, but was not strong enough to recover.

Mr. Kilcollins was the son of Thomas Kilcollins and Nancy Gee of the parish of Wicklow, Carleton Co., N. B. He lived in Fort Fairfield about 29 years. He married Mrs. Mary Perry, of Fort Fairfield, some years ago and they had one child.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 at the Reformed Baptist Church, Rev. H. Smith Dow officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright sang three selections. There were beautiful flowers around the casket. The pall-bearers were Howard P. Cogswell, Clinton White, William Andrews and John Manter. The body was buried in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Eliza Barr.

The death of Mrs. Eliza Barr occurred at the residence of her son, Mr. Frederick Barr, at Lower Line Queensbury, York Co., N. B., on April 20th in the 95th years of her age. She is survived by four sons, Charles Cliff, of Iowa; Wm. Barr, of Tobique; Robert, of Fredericton, and Frederick, with whom she lived; three daughters, Mrs. Maria Patterson and Mrs. Emeline Tupper, of Fredericton, and Mrs. Annie McConaghy, of Aberdeen, Wash., and a number of grand and great-grandchildren. Interment was made at Mactaquac, Rev. Mr. Jones officiating.

"Fools make a mock of sin," says the Bible. Sin is not a joke; it is a serious matter, dangerous and terrible in its end.

Joining the church does not mean that we think we are very good, but that we want to be good and are trusting Jesus to help us.
