THE HIGHWAY.

The Highway has reached the 2nd number of its 34th volume. It has been printed regularly for over 33 years. It has always been kept free from debt, and closed to advertisements. It has maintained its standard of the "Two works of grace," as definite and distinct Christian experiences. The business management and editorial work have been done practically gratuitously. It is the only definite holiness publication printed in the Maritime Provinces. It has stood unwaveringly for scriptural holiness and free from all side issues and non-essential doctrines.

We have survived the war period, and so far the high prices of material and cost of labour and still has a small balance of money in its favor.

But the time has come when the Highway's friends must stand by it—financially. It was decided by the Alliance to ask each of the churches to take the Highway into consideration, each church remembering that the Highway belongs to the Alliance, which is composed of the pastors and delegates of the churches, hence it is the property and general minister of the churches, and is sent out by them on the grand mission of advocating and propagating holiness as a definite second work of grace over this continent.

So it is the duty of every loyal pastor and church to stand by it, in meeting its needs, so as to support it and provide ample means for its publication.

This need is now imperative and needs immediate and practical attention. Brethren, please act upon this matter at once.

S. A. BAKER.

AFTER THE CLOSE OF BEULAH CAMP MEETING.

Beulah Camp Meeting closed Sunday night, July 10th, with a good altar service led by Rev. P. J. Trafton. There was at least one conversion that may mean a life devoted to the service of God in a special way.

The people began leaving at an early hour on Monday, the 11th, and by Tuesday the larger part of the camp meeting people had gone, only a comparative few remaining, but others came, and a new phase of the work at Beulah began. A good prayer meeting was held on Wednesday evening in the Tabernacle led by Rev. P. J. Trafton. The attendance was good, many taking part. On Sunday, the 17th, services were held, and a Sunday School was started with an attendance of 74, Brother J. F. Bullock in charge, and the interest was excellent. The writer preached twice on the 17th and Rev. G. B. Trafton preached morning and evening on the 24th. The writer led the prayer and testimony service on Wednesday evening of the 20th.

All the cottages are occupied except Mrs. J. D. Patton's. More cottages have been applied for. The rooms in Riverview Dormitory are pretty well filled. Among those who have been at Beulah since the close of the camp meeting was a class of "Canadian Girls in Training" from the Fredericton Methodist Church. In dress during the week days they were "Canadian Girls in Bloomers." There was another class of the Canadian Girls in Training stopping outside of the camp grounds, from Wesley Memorial Church, Moncton, who frequently came to the services, and Sunday School. Brother Bullock formed the two classes into a large choir, and they did good work. They were a fine company of young ladies and seemed to enjoy themselves much. There was also a considerable number of young men, and a large number of children about the grounds. There is a very excellent company of people now stopping in and about Beulah. There has been considerable promiscuous bathing at Beulah Beach this season. Some of the bathing suits were in keeping with some of the dresses now worn, and were conspicuous for the economy in goods, and the close resemblance to stationary hysie vceaoqu BywEE lance to statuary in an up-to-date museum.

This with some other matters will need to be taken into consideration by the Alliance. Members of the Alliance executive protested against this abuse of the privileges of those who are in and about Beulah after the close of the Camp Meeting. Beulah has been exceedingly beautiful this season, with perfect weather throughout, and the people generally have seemed to appreciate the privileges and conveniences Beulah affords.

St. John River Salmon have been somewhat scarce and high in price, but of the most excellent quality, strawberries and raspberries have also been high in price, but the splendid quality made the people very willing to pay the price.

When we first began renting our dormitory rooms after the camp meeting closed, it was to our own people and we think many more of our own people should plan for a few weeks rest at this very beautiful place, but now other people are enjoying that for which our people have paid and getting a large part absolutely free from cost, true they pay for the use of the cottages and a trifle for the use of the rooms in the dormitory, but nothing for the upkeeping of the grounds. These people are not to blame for this, but what we are trying to say is that our people should, so far as possible, plan to enjoy and to derive as much spiritual and physical benefit from this ideal place as possible.

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING.

Many people from many sections of Aroostook, Carleton, Victoria and York Counties look forward to Riverside Camp Meeting as the greatest religious event of the whole year. This season the date of the meeting is a week later than usual, being August 12-21. This will free us of conflicting with several other attractions which usually take place at the same time that the Camp Meeting is on. So we look forward to a larger attendance than ever before. Riverside and Beulah Camp Meetings have been a grand success from the beginning, never a single failure, either spiritually or financially is recorded of these camp meetings, although we have encountered many things which were difficult to overcome, and looked to be great, but we have a great God who can easily dispel the threatening clouds and make ways through. And this season is no exception, as it has a heavy financial depression, which has fallen upon the whole country, but we do not fear it, as we have no heavy financial obligations to meet, only the incidental expenses of the meeting, which doubtless will be easily met, and yet the general work in the propagation of the holiness work requires money, viz., The Missionary Work, Home and Foreign. The preparation, educationally, of a company of young men for the ministry. The supplementary fund for The King's Highway. The Aged and Disabled Ministers' Fund. The Hospital at the Mission Station in Africa. A rest home for our Missionaries at Durban. Funds to assist churches which are building new churches. So there are many needs of general interest to us as a people. We could use many thousands of dollars to excellent effect in these vital objects, so that our people need not look for places to use their spare money in, just note this list and make your choice.

A letter from Dr. Sanders, dated June 3rd, states that the Sterritt Sisters' furniture and freight arrived at Durban all right, and had been forwarded to Paulpietersburg.

New questions are arising with our missionaries in Africa as to their care, namely, a small convenient rest home for them by the sea-shore near Durban, Natal. The cost need not be heavy. We will take this up later. There are reports and other matters of interest and importance which we will also consider in another issue.

Sanctification is an inheritance. "Ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of Promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance." "Inheritance of the saints in light." "Among the sanctified."—Bible.

We have several worthy young men who need help in obtaining their education. Can we help them? If so how? There should be immediate action. It must be practical. Write Rev. W. B. Wiggins, Rev. I. F. Keirstead, or the Editor.
