Miss Ida Dickinson, now with Sister F. H. Hale at Vancouver, B. C., who has spent several weeks in a hospital, is now at Sister Hale's, who is giving her much personal care. We are glad to know that Sister Dickinson is on the way to recovery.

All friends will be glad to hear that Sister F. H. Hale is in her usual good health and is as active as ever in her christian work and stands true for spiritual religion.

Sister Mrs. H. E. Higgins, of Fort Fairfield, says: I am enclosing my renewal for the Highway. I like to read it very much. We arrived home from Beulah last night after spending a pleasant time there.

Mr. H. E. Storey, of Norwalk, Calif., writes: I am sending you a check to pay Highway up to December, 1922. We are all well, and would enjoy being at Beulah this year.

Rev. H. A. Goodwin and family and Rev. H. E. Thomas and family are at Beulah Camp Ground.

Brother and Sister Barr are in charge of Beulah Camp Ground again this season.

Mrs. C. E. Freeze, of Moncton, is spending a few weeks at Beulah Camp Ground.

Mrs. Samuel Minue and Miss Mary Minue left for their home on the 25th after spending two weeks at Beulah after the close of the Camp Meeting.

Mr. Ross Page, of Caribou, Maine, spent a day at Beulah with his aunt, Mrs. S. A. Baker, having come from Caribou in his automobile.

BROWN'S FLATS VS BEULAH CAMP GROUND.

"Brown's Flats" is the name of the Post Office. Grandview is the name of the R. R. Station, where you write your letters, and where you get off the train to reach Beulah Camp Ground, but please remember that "Brown's Flats" is not "Beulah Camp Ground." Beulah Camp Ground is on the bank of the beautiful St. John. Brown's Flats is situated on the top of a big hill over a half mile away.

People love the beauty and the conveniences of Beulah, but many, for reasons of their own, rarely if ever speak of it other than Brown's Flats. This is about as near as some folks want to come to the great blessing which Beulah Camp Ground stands for. A half mile away over a hard hill to climb, it is really much easier to get to the camp ground than to Brown's Flats, but spiritually, the Bible Beulah has the big hill for souls, they must leave their loads at the bottom of the hill.

Oh, yes, you are going to Brown's Flats!

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY OF THE GENERAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

FORT FAIRFIELD.

This society was re-organized Aug. 1st, 1919. Number of members twenty-four. Monthly meetings are held which are very helpful, as at these meetings a carefully prepared program is carried out. The last one was especially interesting, being a study of our mission field in South Africa, the country, the people, our missionaries and their work. Our president, Mrs. Dew, is a great help in the work of the society. Although our offering is not as large as last year owing to the financial strain, we feel that we have done well and in the coming year we intend by God's help to be earnest and diligent in this branch of the work.

ALMA SLIPP, Secy.

HARTLAND.

The Hartland Missionary Society has held monthly meetings regularly during the year. A good interest was manifested in helping to raise the amount necessary to pay the salaries of our new missionaries. Fifteen in the Sunday School volunteered to pay five dollars during the year. At the first of the year mite boxes were introduced and over forty dollars have been raised in this way for the hospital fund. One native worker has been supported and we feel the interest among the children has been good. The visit of the Misses Sterritt was much enjoyed and we believe was also profitable to all. A table offering of sixty-nine dollars was taken and later a quilt made for their outfit besides several personal gifts.

We feel that the interest in and responsibility for the work is increasing. Amount raised during the year $366.

EDNA SHAW, Secy.

VICTORIA CORNER.

This society was organized in April, 1916. Number of members twelve. Monthly meetings are held. Our work has been hindered by sickness, but we have made an effort to sustain this branch of the work. We enjoyed the privilege of having the Sterritt Sisters with us at one of our meetings which was an inspiration to us. Amount raised $24.50.

CORA E. TILLEY, Secy.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. S. A. BAKER,
