

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Licenciate Hartley E. Mullen writes from North Head, Grand Manan: The Lord is richly blessing me, and I am looking ahead for a real blessing upon the church. I do long to see souls saved, and I am praying God will move on the hearts of the people here in conviction. I love the work God has called me to.

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen were greatly benefited by their visit to Nova Scotia, and have returned to their work full of zeal and energy. They report that Brother Hagerman, who supplied their churches in their absence, did good work and there is a good interest in the services.

Rev. P. J. Trafton led the prayer meeting at Moncton on the evening of the 6th inst.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard has accepted the unanimous call of the St. John church to become their pastor and will enter his pastoral duties at an early date.

Rev. L. J. Alley has accepted a call from the Woodstock Church and is expected to take up his residence at Woodstock and enter on his pastoral duties in a short time.

Sister M. Ella Slipp reports work going fairly well at Jonesport. She says: I am endeavoring to keep close to God in prayer and careful study of his word, and declaring the whole counsel of God.

Rev. H. C. Archer says: The election (on Referendum) went all right, that was fine. We worked hard here (Millville), only 9 voted in favor of rum.

Woodstock Church is talking of holding an anniversary service on Nov. 3rd. The 33rd of the organization, and they will invite all the surrounding churches and pastors to an all day's meeting—good.

The Moncton Missionary Society held their monthly meeting on the evening of the 11th. Mrs. S. N. Grass presided. Miss Lucy Blakney organist, Mrs. Manford Hicks secretary. A good program was rendered by the young people and children.

TOO LATE.

Just as we are going to press we received a very stirring letter from Dr. Saunders.

HIGHWAY FUND.

Mrs. Osten Beal .....$1.00

MEDUCTIC CHURCH FUND.

Mr. Samuel Greenlaw .....$2.00

Dear Highway Readers:

Some time ago, about a year, I believe, when the debt on this church was $600, I asked for $1.00 each from that many people. A few responded from outside of Meductic, but very few. I'm sure we thank those that did. Meductic Church people did fine. They are ready to do more I'm sure, but how many more will send in a dollar or more to help finish up this debt of $466?

Yours truly,
H. S. MULLEN, Treasurer.
Meductic, York Co., N. B.

PERSONALS.

Ms. L. M. Stephenson says: I am sending my renewal for the Highway. I like it very much, and look forward to its coming, and would not like to do without it.

Brother and Sister C. P. Phillips accompanied by Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton made an automobile trip from Fredericton to Moncton on the 6th inst., continuing their trip on the 7th via Newcastle to Fredericton.

Brother Wm. R. Rideout, of Hartland, N. B., says: Enclosed please find renewal for the Highway. I certainly enjoy reading it. I am still on the victory side.

Sister Mrs. Eva M. Taylor, Apohaqui, says: Enclosed you will find postal note for renewal of the Highway for another year. Greatly enjoy reading its pages these days.

Brother Dolph E. Nixon has bought a farm at Upper Maugerville, York Co., N. B., and has moved his family there. His post office address is Fredericton, N. B., R. F. D. No. 2.

NEW BRUNSWICK BONE DRY.

It will be very welcome news to our readers who are scattered abroad to know that New Brunswick spoke decisively with a majority of about twenty-five thousand on Oct. 10th, that the importation of intoxicating liquors into this province must be stopped.

The report is that those engaged in the traffic are to be let down gently, with about two months in which to get accustomed to the fact that the hopes of their gains through flooding this country with their death dealing traffic, is all done, as a legalized business.

Henceforth the liquor business for beverage purposes is an outlaw.

Large credit for the good work accomplished is due to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and the churches. If the men had put the energy into the work, in proportion as the women did, John Barleycorn would hardly had life enough left to ship the poison to curse some other country.

A minister who does not pray much, studies in vain.—Clarke.

MARRIED.

“Be not beguiled into supposing that an easy flow of words is eloquence. It is no more so than the supposition that silence from utter poverty of thought is evidence of wisdom. A fool can either look wise and say nothing or deliver a harangue of words and say nothing. We forbear to analyze the relative density of the ignorance of the two.”
