

Mr. Paul Sanders

Mrs. Paul Sanders

Brother and Sister Sanders were married at Durban, South Africa, July 21st. Mrs. Sanders has lived most of her life in South Africa, receiving her education in schools in the towns and cities. Her mother was a native of St. John, N. B. Her name was Howard. Her father, Mr. Keys, is from Kings Co., N. B. We had the pleasure of meeting Brother Keys during his last tour of the Maritime Provinces in the interest of the "South African General Missionary Society," which is an interdenomination association.

The Sterritt Sister speak very highly of these young people and are very much in love with the bride, who will be a valuable addition to our excellent missionary band of workers in South Africa as she is a very competent teacher.

MARRIED.

Jacoby-Armstrong.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Armstrong, at Fort Fairfield, Maine, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday evening, August 24th, 1921, when their only daughter, Leila Angelina, was united in marriage to Mr. Warren Henry Jacoby, of Haddonfield, N. J., by Rev. H. Smith Dow in the presence of a large number of guests. The presents were numerous and costly. The refreshments which were served after the ceremony were very excellent indeed. The young couple will return to Haddonfield, N. J., where they will make their home after a few weeks, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

Lorrimer-Guptill.

At the home of the bride's father, Wood Island, Aug. 13th, 1921, Mr. Lyman W. Lorimer and Miss Bertie W. Guptill, were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Hilyard.

Rideout-Webb.

A very pretty church wedding took place in Hartland on the afternoon of Sept. 7th. The principals in this happy event were Wm. R. Rideout, of Somerville, N. B., and Celia L. Webb, of Lower Hainesville, N. B. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding March played by Mary McMullin, of Hartland. The best man was Earl Rideout, brother of the groom, and the bridesmaid was Miss Grace Rideout, a cousin of the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Mullen, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church in Hartland. A large company witnessed the wedding and many were the expressions to the effect that this was a very beautiful and impressive event.

The happy couple immediately left for a brief wedding trip to Fredericton and other parts. These are two most worthy and popular young people and have the good wishes of a large circle of friends.

Griffin-Urquhart.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of the officiating minister, 229 City Road, St. John, Sept. 9th, when Arnold Griffin and Fay Urquhart, both of Grand Manan, were united in marriage by the Rev. G. B. Trafton.

McDonald-Moore.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore, of Marysville, N.B., on Sept. 6th, 1921, Mr. Cecil A. McDonald and Miss Gladys C. Moore, both of Marysville, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. W. Lester, of Marsyville, N. B., in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

THE FAMILY MEETING

We are all here,
Father, mother,
Sister, brother,

All who hold each other dear.
Each chair is filled; we're all at home!
Tonight let no cold stranger come.
It is not often thus around
Our old familiar hearth we're found.
Bless, then, the meeting and the spot;
For once be every care forgot;
Let gentle Peace assert her power,
And kind Affection rule the hour.

We're all—all here.

We are all here,
Father, mother,
Sister, brother,

You that I love with love so dear.
This may not long of us be said;
Soon must we join the gathered dead,
And by the hearth we now sit round
Some other circle will be found.
Oh, then, that wisdom may we know,
Which yields a life of peace below!
So, in the world to follow this,
May each repeat in words of bliss,
We're all—all here.

—Charles Sprague.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Baker:

I enclose my renewal for the Highway. I surely love its clean pages and look forward to its coming as I would an old friend. It is the only religious paper we have in our home and feel we can not do without it. My testimony is, I love Jesus and long to be more like him as the days go by. He truly is a friend that never changes; earthly friends change, but He is the same yesterday, today and forever. He is my Saviour, Sanctifier and Coming King. Praise his name forever.

Be like Jesus; this my song,
In the home and in the throng;
Be like Jesus all day long,
I would be like Jesus.

MRS. DOUGLAS L. MULLEN,
Hassetts, N. S.

Dear Brother and Sister Baker:

Enclosed please find money order for five dollars. Please advance my subscription for two years for the good old Highway, and use the remainder as you need. By the time you receive this you will have returned from a season of refreshing and blessing through the Camp Meetings, from him who is the giver of all good things. We would liked to have been at Riverside, but you had our prayers. We are anxious to hear of the meetings through the next Highway. We are confident it was a time of blessing.

This leaves us well and happy in the Saviour's love.

MRS. VERNON BECKWITH.
