

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. P. J. Trafton reports good interest in the services at Fredericton. Four new members united with the church on the evening of Dec. 17th.

Rev. H. C. Archer preached at Lower Hainesville, Upper Hainesville and Millville on Sunday, Dec. 17th. Brother Archer also made a pleasant call on Brother D. F. Knight at Macnaquac, whom he found fairly well despite the infirmities of age.

The services in the Moncton Church on Sunday, Dec. 24th, were helpful. The pastor, Rev. S. A. Baker, preached earnest and appropriate sermons, telling of the Christ who came to earth to save from all sin. Revs. H. C. Archer and W. B. Wiggins were present and assisted at both services. 61 were present at the Sunday School. The annual Sunday School entertainment will be held on Friday evening, Dec. 29th. The first service of the Week of Prayer will be held in this church on Tuesday evening, Jan. 2nd.

Glad to know that the Woodstock parsonage is now being occupied by the pastor, Rev. L. J. Alley and family.

Owing to the increasing interest in the special services at Hartland, Evangelist A. P. Gouthey remained over Dec. 24th.

Don't forget the 2nd District Quarterly Meeting which convenes with the Moncton Church January 11-14. Ministers and delegates who expect to be present please notify the pastor, Rev. S. A. Baker as soon as possible so that arrangements for entertainment can be provided for.—S. A. B.

PERSONALS.

Miss Lois C. Goodspeed has the honor of being the first lady appointed to a position in the Customs-Excise service in Fredericton. On Friday she was sworn in before Collector Macnutt as clerk-stenographer at this Port, and enters on her duties on Tuesday next. Miss Goodspeed, who is the daughter of Mr. Clarence Goodspeed, of this city, received her appointment from the Civil Service Commission, Ottawa, after passing the required examination last month.—Gleaner.

Sisters Mrs. S. Hayden Shaw, of Hartland, N. B., and Mrs. J. W. Mooers, of Cambridge, Mass., left for that city and West Somerville, Mass., Mrs. Mooers to her home on the 22nd inst., and Mrs. Shaw to visit her sister, Mrs. A. A. Tracy, and her niece, Mrs. Rev. W. E. Smith and family. Our dear Sister Shaw is a woman of notable courage for her age. She loves religious meetings and her Sunday School class, and it is a stormy day when she misses these services, and a short trip of 500 miles in the winter does not daunt her.—S. A. B.

The Editor and Mrs. Wiggins, as has been formerly noted, have removed from Fredericton to Moncton, and are endeavoring to get settled in their new home on Bonaccord street. They have very much appreciated the kindness of the pastor, Brother S. A. Baker and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bates, and other friends of the Moncton Church, who have so kindly ministered to their comfort while they have been busy unpacking and putting things together.

Rev. H. C. Archer and Mrs. Archer spent Christmas with Brother and Sister A. G. Good and family at Moncton.

We are pleased to be able to say that Sister A. G. Good is improving in health, and we are hoping and praying for her complete recovery.

Mr. Harold W. Freeze, who is attending Acadia University, Wolfville, is spending the Christmas holiday season at his home in Moncton.

The Highway readers will please excuse any omissions or mistakes on the part of the Editor, at the present, as his removal from Fredericton to Moncton involves a good deal of care, besides consuming a good deal of time. His address is Moncton, N. B., Box 272.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS AND REMEMBRANCES.

Rev. S. A. and Mrs. Baker wish to express their thanks to friends far and near, who kindly remembered them with gifts and greetings. We may not be able to answer all by letter, but we highly appreciate all of these kindnesses. We wish all a Happy and Prosperous New Year, spiritually and temporally.

THANKS.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins and Mrs. Wiggins wish to heartily thank the many friends who have so kindly remembered them at the Christmas season, with gifts and other tokens of remembrance, and pray that, to them, the New Year may be filled with rich and heavenly blessings.

A CHRISTMAS CONCERT.

The Royalton Sunday School and Mission Band gave a delightful concert to a full house Thursday night, 28th. The opening song, "All hail the power of Jesus' Name," was sung by all. Then the pastor read the scripture, St. Luke's description of the Babe of Bethlehem's manger, and prayed for His blessing. The recitations, readings, exercises and dialogues, the solos, duets and chorus by choir and children were uplifting and inspiring.

The appreciative audience seemed to give them new inspiration, for they surely were at their best from start to finish. A beautiful tree well laden with gifts for young and old, was a great surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus distributed the gifts, much to the delight of the children. The gifts coming from loving hearts are most precious. Much credit is due Miss Agnes Belyea and Miss Faye Buchanan for their untiring efforts in making the concert a success.

An offering of $10.75 was taken for missions.

Reading, "Three calls in one night"—Mrs. A. B. McLaughlin.

Hymn, "Go tell the sweet story." Reading, "What shall it profit."—Mrs. Stewart Benson.

Recitation, "Jesus paid the fare"—Mrs. Lorin Green.

Recitation, "Giving all for Jesus"—Helene Benson.

Reading, "A letter from China"—Hattie Russell.

Recitation, "Tell the story"—Violet Green.

Recitation, "Helping each other"—Thelma Harvey.

Closing hymn, "We'll work till Jesus comes."

Benediction by pastor, Lic. Hagerman. Collection of dues—$20.07.

CLYTIE COOK, Secy.

DONATION.

On Nov. 30th about fifteen ladies came to a knitting at the parsonage. In the evening about thirty more came. After spending a very pleasant time in songs, recitations and readings, a dainty lunch was served. Then Brother Weade in behalf of those present presented us with goods and cash to the amount of $53.00, which we appreciated greatly, and can only ask the blessing of the Lord to rest upon you.

I. F. AND I. M. KEIRSTEAD.

We unite with the Royalton Church in wishing the Editor and Readers a Happy New Year. May it prove the best in rich spiritual blessings to all.
