ONLY TWO CLASSES.

There were two classes in the day of Noah's flood, those who were inside the ark, and those who were outside; two in the parable of the Gospel-net, the good fish and the bad; two in the parable of the ten virgins, the wise and the foolish; two in the account of the throne, the right and the left; two, only two abodes, when the last sentence is passed, only heaven and hell.—The Traveller's Guide.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Baker:

As my desire was to be at Beulah this year, giving up the idea has been quite a cross to me, not to have carried out my wishes. I have always said it gives one a foretaste of Heaven, to be at Beulah. I will give my testimony in Norton. I hope there will be many souls brought into Christ's Kingdom while here on earth. Hope there will be many seekers at Beulah Camp Ground this year 1922 and will not be seekers in vain. My Heavenly Father is dealing kindly and mercifully with me, mentally and physically. I am enjoying both these blessings. Spiritually I am trusting in the merits of my dear Saviour whose shedding of his precious blood has purchased my redemption.

"A few more rolling years at most
Will land me safe on Canaan's coast,
Where I shall sing the song of grace
Safe in my glorious hiding place."

Collection and dues $50.00.

M. C. THURSTON, Secy.

"An infidel became so angry at the Bible that he tore up his copy and burned it in the fireplace. A part of a leaf blew out of the fire and fell near his feet. He picked it up to throw it back into the fire when these words met his eye: 'Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.' They impressed him so that he became a Christian."
