

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The ministers present at Riverside are Revs. H. S. Dow, the president, who has charge of all the services and is performing his duties well; S. A. Baker, E. W. Lester, P. J. Trafton, Leon Alley, Perley Briggs, F. T. Wright, H. S. Mullen, I. F. Kierstead, W. B. Wiggins, C. S. Hilyard and J. H. Coy, and Licentiate Ray Hagerman and Hartley Mullen and Mrs. H. S. Mullen.

There were also present from other denominations Rev. Mark Turner, Rev. H. H. Cosman, Rev. Aaron Kinney, Rev. S. O. Kinney, Rev. P. C. Clark, Rev. B. Bubar and Rev. Isaac Hanson, of Haverhill, Mass.

The church at Woodstock is enjoying spiritual services well sustained during the summer months. The parsonage here is well under way and will probably be finished this autumn.

Licentiate Ray Hagerman is supplying for the Millville Circuit, as also Licentiate Leslie Sears for the Meductic Circuit.

Licentiate George Rogers is still supplying at Calais for Rev. S. H. Clark, who is remaining at Beulah Camp Ground until September.

Rev. E. W. Lester is established in the parsonage at Hartland and finds the work agreeable on the circuit. Rev. F. T. Wright is supplying at Fort Fairfield.

Brother Hartley E. Mullen and bride are nicely situated in the parsonage at North Head, Grand Manan, where he has faithfully served the church there during the past year. The church gave our brother and his bride a grand reception and we pray God's blessing on them and the church there.

NOTICE.

The next quarterly meeting of District No. 3 will convene at Jonesport, Me., on August 24th to 28th. Will all the churches on this District please send in their reports before the 24th to Miss M. Ella Slipp, the pastor, at Jonesport? Don't forget, beloved.

H. E. MULLEN, President.

MARRIED.

Goodblood-Forbes.

At 133 Albert street, Aug. 5th, Katherine Forbes, of Woodland, Me., U. S. A., to Frederick Goodblood, of Ashland, Me., U. S. A., by L. J. Alley.

McMullin-Tompkins.

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage on Wednesday evening, Aug. 2, Milo McMullin and Miss Inez Tompkins were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Lester.

Shaw-Cummings.

The home of Mrs. Jacob Cummings, Dow Settlement, N. B., was the scene of a pretty wedding, July 12th, 1922, when her daughter, Lucy A., became the bride of Harry Shaw, of Carlisle, N. B.

The wedding took place on the lawn, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. S. Dow, of Marysville, Maine. The bride and groom were attended by a brother and sister of the bride, Mr. Willard and Miss Belle Cummings. The single ring service was used. After a dainty supper was served the bride and groom motored to their future home in Carlisle, N. B.

Como-Shiboult.

At the residence of the officiating minister Rev. J. H. Coy, 117 Albert street, Woodstock, July 29th, Mr. John G. Como, of Lakeport, New Hampshire, U. S. A., and Miss Gladys Shiboult, of Monticello, Maine.

Mullen-Green.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Green at New Tusket, N. S., at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, when their step-daughter, Stella Lee Lane, was united in marriage to Licentiate Hartley Earl Mullen, of New Tusket, N. S., by Rev. Perley Briggs, assisted by Rev. H. S. Mullen in the presence of a number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by Miss Christian Hudson, while the groom was supported by Stillman Mullen. After the ceremony the guests were served with ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Mullen left on the early morning train for their home at North Head, Grand Manan, where Mr. Mullen is pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church in that place.

P. W. BRIGGS.

NOTES BY S. A. B.

Don't forget that the people chose Barabas and condemned Christ, and the crowd consented to it, doubtless feeling because of their non-partizanship that they were innocent, but were they?

When a man stands for some cause which brings upon him the censure of the crowd, and he looks about for some one to stand with him and bear a part, but none appear, he gets at least an intimation of the aloneness felt by our Lord. "A friend in time of need is a friend indeed!"

Not a refreshing, but "refreshings" from the presence of the Lord."

OBITUARY.

Pearl M. Graham.

At Ashland July 14th, of peritonitis, Pearl M., youngest daughter of Frank and Hannah Graham, aged 18 years and 6 days. She leaves two brothers and five sisters, father and mother and a large number of friends and relatives to mourn their loss that is her gain. Funeral service by Rev. E. A. Trites, who spoke from the text, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Arthur Harris.

Suddenly at Victoria, N. B., on Aug. 1st, 1922, Arthur, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, aged 14 days. The funeral was held the following day attended by the writer, and interment was made at Victoria. We extend to the sorrowing friends our sincere sympathy.

E. W. LESTER.

William Cogswell.

As we write we learn of the sudden departure from this life near Juniper, Carleton Co., of Brother Wm. Cogswell, of Fort Fairfield, Me. The full particulars will be given later. The body was brought to Fort Fairfield, where the funeral will take place on Friday afternoon Aug. 11, Brother H. S. Dow officiating.

THE HOTEL.

The Riverside Hotel management is in charge of the committee composed of Brother E. W. Lester, P. J. Trafton and John Manter, assisted by Brother H. S. Mullen, who are giving good satisfaction.

The kitchen is in charge of Mrs. George Nixon, who has been the cook for several years and who has given most excellent service. This year she is assisted by her daughter Clara.

In the serving room there are three bright young men, namely, Hastings Golding, Carl Parlee and James Lester.

The waitresses consist of the following beautiful young women, namely, Misses Helen Lester, Emma Trafton, Marie Dow, Marion Trafton, Christian Hudson, Zella Wright, Agnes Belyea, Helen Emery, Myra Cogswell, Rhena Brown and Leah Farnham.

The management, the kitchen workers, the serving room helpers and the waitresses work together in harmony and everything goes on very pleasantly, and their duties are rendered cheerfully by frequent songs of salvation.

NOTICE.

The editor's present address is 745 George Street, Fredericton, N. B. If the Highway is kept at Moncton where it is printed now he will probably move there. A further statement will be made in the next issue.

But until then all communications should be sent to him at Fredericton.
