CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Baker:

Enclosed you will find renewal of the Highway. I should miss the Highway very much if it did not visit my home. I was telling mother, who is visiting me just now, that the most denmoinational papers are grand to have a nap over, but its no use to lie down with the Highway as a companion, thinking of dropping asleep, as its so full of the living gospel of Christ that one finds themselves getting awakened up.

I removed to this pastorate nearly a year ago, have charge of the Congregational and U. Baptist Church (affiliated). During March we had eight day revival meetings. I was assisted by Rev. Robert Laite, of Bangor, Cong., and Rev. Gilbert Laite, of Everett, Mass. Brother Gilbert preached on the full salvation lines, and Sunday afternoon a number were at the altar seeking the blessing of sanctification. Some testified to the receiving of the blessing. These meetings have been a great help to our church. Others sought and found pardon.

In these days of modern methods and new Theology it does one good to meet with men who have a real experience with God as these brethren.

Kenduskeag is a dear little village only twelve miles from Bangor, the people are very kind, and best of all there are a few who are really members of the "Inner Circle." We have one saintly sister, Madam Foster, past eighty-three years of age, and her shout of joy does one good, as she testifies to the sanctifying power of Jesus blood. And yet with all these blessings from God, one's heart is made sad over the indifference of people who are satisfied with their moral lives and depend on their good works alone for salvation. However, since coming here God has given me some souls for His Kingdom.

Last fall a man sixty-nine years of age became convinced of his need of something more than a moral life, and accepted Christ as his Saviour; earlier in the year a man of middle age and one beautiful young woman made the great decision, and are active in the Master's service.

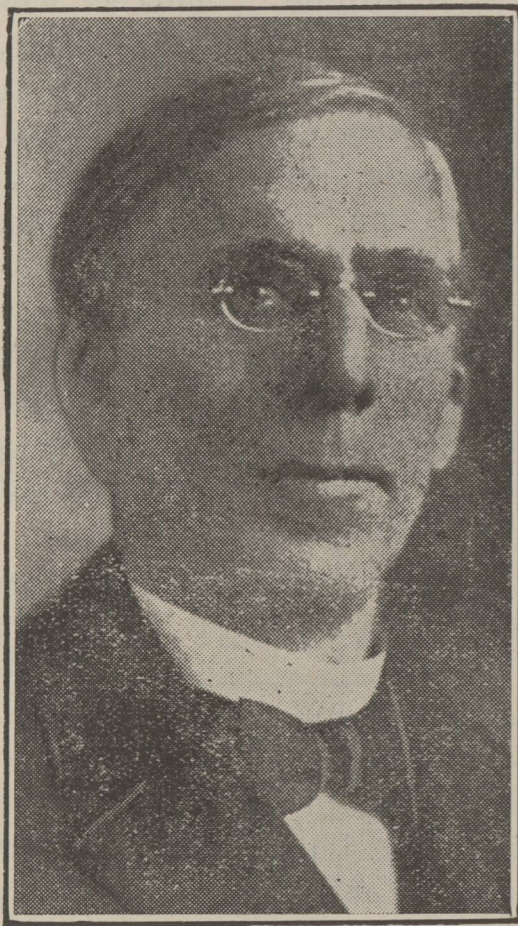

I need the prayers of the Highway family that I may ever be true to the teachings of the Gospel of Christ, and always be found preaching it in its fulness.

Yours in Jesus,

Kenduskeag, Me. VIOLET J. G. BAGLEY.

Dear Readers of the Highway:

I am glad I can say that the Lord is helping me with my studies. I am leaning on the strong arm of Christ. I preached last Sunday afternoon in a little mission, which we have started over in the next town. The Lord was with us and we had a good time in him. I enjoy the privilege of working in my weak way for the One who has never lost a battle. I am saved and sanctified through the blood. "Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord.

Dear Brother Baker:

I am sending you a belated renewal for the Highway—neglect on my part, but we cannot afford to be without it; it is always full of good things for the soul. We are still holding on, trying to hold up the banner every day.

Brother Dow preaches faithfully. The enemy is strongly entrenched in this town.

We miss our afflicted Brother Kinney; he was a good man full of faith. Why these things come only He knows.—Brother and Sister F. T. Kimball.

Dear Brother Baker:

We have invited the quarterly meeting to convene with our church at Wood Island for about June 1st, and we propose to dedicate our church at that time (D.V.) We have had some refreshing from the Lord here and at Seal Cove. The quarterly meeting recently held there good—a real success.

We were over several times to Seal Cove during the special meetings. There were some good results, for which we thank God. Some of our boats were up to North Head during the special meetings. Several were reclaimed, some of long standing, others were converted. We have only local preaching, but God has brought some of the young people back to the fold, one or two older ones, for which we feel grateful and others seem to be under much conviction. They had been attending the meetings at Seal Cove, but made no move in them. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen! Eugene Wilcox.

OBITUARY.

Frank Pelkie

On Thursday, March 30, the writer was called to Gordonsville to attend the funeral of Brother Frank Pelkie, whom so many of our people knew. He has sat in an invalid's chairs for ten long years, only being moved out of it by the help of someone else. He was rendered helpless by a stroke of paralysis, and another slight stroke ended his life. Nobody but he and his wife and family know what he suffered through the weary years. He was a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church and always had an interest in the church and the work of the Lord.

His remains were laid to rest on March 30th, in the churchyard at Gordonsville.

H. C. MULLEN.

Arritus Cummings

The death of Mr. Arritus Cummings, of Hartland, took place on Friday, March 24, at the age of 52.

He had been in poor health for several years, suffering from some form of lung trouble, and for the last six months was confined to his bed. The final end came very suddenly. When a young man he had professed religion but had lapsed in his experience years ago, but since his confinement to bed he returned to the Lord and found peace, and died trusting in Jesus. He leaves behind a sorrowing wife, who also has been confined to her bed almost continuously for over a year, and a family of seven. Besides these he leaves four brothers and three sisters. The funeral was held from the house on Sunday p. m., and interment made in the Hartland cemetery, the writer officiating.
