

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. P. J. Trafton has been confined to his bed by illness since returning home from Moncton.

Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins have found plenty to keep them busy during their stay at Fredericton. The older men seem to stand the work equally with the younger. Brother Wiggins has been on the firing line for over 40 years, and is still active.

Rev. T. W. Moses, of West Pembroke, Maine, visited Norton, N. B., on the 21st.

Rev. R. C. Potter says that he is still engaged in special services on his field at Norton, N. B.

Rev. T. W. Moses says: Our meetings are good and seasons of refreshing, but our numbers are few. For this we are not surprised as Brother Moses' Church is located a considerable distance from the village. A church should be as conveniently situated as a store.

Rev. S. H. Clark has enjoyed a good winter in his work, having good congregations, and a good attendance at the Sunday School.

Rev. H. C. Archer has found the long drives on his circuit heavy work for him this winter, as his health has not been as good as usual. But Brother Archer has always shown a good degree of working energy and he is not easily held back in his work.

Rev. P. J. Trafton says: Rooms are being engaged for Beulah Camp Meeting already. It looks as though rooms will be in demand again this summer.

Rev. A. L. Whitcomb, of University Park, Iowa, is engaged as the Evangelist for Beulah Camp Meeting, July 1-10, 1922. We have met Brother Whitcomb and believe our people will be blessed by his ministry.

Rev. P. W. Briggs has been assisting Brother Sabine in special services at Port Maitland, N. S.

We heard indirectly that Rev. W. W. Howe went to Seal Cove, Grand Manan, on the 25th inst. We presume he will remain until after the quarterly meeting to be held there March 2-5.

Rev. G. B. Trafton has been kept at home most of the winter so far by poor health.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard and three members of his family have passed a hard time with influenza and pneumonia. Brother Hilyard is beginning to take up his work again.

Rev. P. J. Trafton in latest report expected to take up his work again on the 25th.

"The quickest way for the world to get on its feet after the war is to get on its knees.—Ora et Labora, Pray and Work."

"If the home does not train the child to know God and to serve Him, the chances are all against the child's ever knowing Him or serving Him."

"The way to get religion into politics is get religion into politicians."

The reason more bed-time stories are not told to children these days is that the children come in after the mother has gone to bed.—Cape Argus.

PERSONALS.

Sister A. G. Good and daughter, Miss Grace Good, of Moncton, visited St. John last week.

Brother Fred Clark, of St. John, met with a very serious accident recently, by which the bone of his leg was split from the knee to the hip, requiring three silver bands to be placed around the bone.

Sister Clowes Patterson, of Fredericton, is in the Victoria Hospital, having undergone a serious operation.

Brother Robert Barr, of Fredericton, still lingers. His is a remarkable case of cancer. Sister Barr has also been ill with a severe cold.

We are sorry to hear that Sister W. F. Cogswell, while visiting Mrs. W. P. MacMullen at Hartland, in some manner fell down the cellar, injuring herself considerably.

About all our personal notes seem to be of sickness. Among them we regret to note that Brother L. S. Kinney has gone to a sanatorium for treatment.

Sister Claire Wilcox, Calgary, says. "God is very precious to me these days. I would not know how to get along without his help."

Brother Barr, of Fredericton, continues with very little apparent change. God's wonderful sustaining grace is manifested in him.

We are glad to welcome among the supporters of Native Workers in South Africa, Brother Joseph W. Sabine, a brother of Rev. L. T. Sabine. Brother Sabine is surely a cheerful giver (hilarious). He says, "Praise the Lord for salvation. The blood of Jesus cleanseth from all sin."

We are glad to hear from our people in California and B. C. We had letters last week from Sister Mrs. Simon McLeod and Sister Alma Hartley.

Sister Sarah Davis, of Yarmouthville, says: I am enclosing my renewal for the Highway. I love to read it, and to learn how its dear readers are getting along. I praise God for such a clean paper.

Rev. W. E. Smith says: Closed a good meeting Danielson, Conn., Sunday night (12th); glad to report family well. The fire burns on my soul, and I never had a better time than now preaching second blessing holiness that kills out inbred sin.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

The monthly meeting of the Woodstock Missionary Society was held Friday evening, Feb. 9th, the President, Mrs. C. O. Mutch, in the chair.

After singing and a number of prayers, the President read the 96th Psalm, then dues taken amounting to $7.31.

Mrs. C. A. Sunder returned missionary from India, then gave us a most excellent talk relating some very interesting experiences in her long term of missionary work. All were delighted with Mrs. Sunder's helpful sketches and a vote of thanks was given her at the close of the meeting. During the evening the C. G. I. T. gave a finely rendered chorus, "We've a story to tell to the nations."

Meeting closed with prayer and benediction by the pastor, Rev. L. J. Alley.

Yours in the Work,

MRS. ORISIN R. ESTEY.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

Again a few words from us may not be amiss, remembering the goodness of the Lord to us all. We rejoice with others in the good work done in the various churches and wish to acknowledge the presence of the Master with us in the meetings recently held here.

As is often true there was not much visible results but truly the hearts of the saints were refreshed and encouraged to take hold of the work even more vigorously than before.

Brother Briggs, who assisted us, preached well under the Spirit's blessing and has won a place in the hearts of the people.

We noticed with interest the suggestion by some one in your last issue, that the editor and wife visit the mission station in South Africa. Why not?

We honestly feel that, after so many years of untiring effort in connection with the foreign mission work. It is but a fitting tribute to the service rendered; and judging from the results of personal touch in the past, such a visit would not only be one of great pleasure and profit to Brother and Sister Baker, but much profit to the Society as well.

To go immediately after Beulah Camp Meeting would permit them to return before winter.

Twenty-five persons giving $25 each would make such possible.

We can be counted as one of that number. We are at least $25 glad; how much are you?, Now is the time (D. V.) to plan for it.

Wishing all the readers much spiritual prosperity, we are,

Yours for souls,

L. T. AND MRS. SABINE.

Note.—Anything which will stir up missionary interest among the people is beneficial. We appreciate the kindly and generous feelings of Brother and Sister Sabine. It would be a great trip to visit Africa. It would involve five or six weeks each way, on the water, and the cost would be at the present time for two persons there and return not less than $2500. Mrs. Baker does not take kindly to the water. It is all right to talk of these things, and also to know of the kindly feelings of the people, and to see the interest taken in our missionary work, but don't put up any money for this purpose just at present. We may be able later on to send a delegate to visit our dear missionaries.
