

OBITUARY.

Wm. C. Budd.

The death of Mr. William Cooke Budd occurred at his home, 351 High street, Friday morning, Dec. 1st. Deceased was 86 years of age and was born at Dover, N. B., in 1836. He came to Moncton about forty-five years ago, where he has since made his home, having been engaged in a trucking business, from which he retired some years ago. Mr. Budd was well and favorably known, and was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church. His wife predeceased him about twelve years; three sons and two daughters survive; the sons are William, of Montreal; Fred and Edward, of Moncton; and the daughters are Florence, of Montreal, and Lena, who resided with her father.

Mrs. R. H. Adamson.

The death of Mrs. Emma R. Adamson, wife of Robert H. Adamson, 50 Murray street, occurred Nov. 28th at her home following a short illness. She is survived by her husband, two sons, R. Hepburn of Jerusalem, Queens Co., and Donald A., of Gagetown; two daughters, Mrs. Frank G. Jewett of Prince William, and Mrs. Jewett, wife of Dr. Edward Jewett, of California; three brothers, George F. Sweeney, of Winthrop, Mass., and G. D. and J. E. Sweeney, of St. John; one-half brother, Frank W. Whelpley, of Alaska, and one half-sister, Mrs. Frank Tingey, of Haverhill, Mass. Many friends will sympathize with Mr. Adamson in the sad death of his wife.—St. John Telegraph.

We join with the many friends in sympathy for Brother Adamson and the bereaved sons and daughters and relatives, as we were acquainted with Brother and Sister Adamson and children, and especially Mrs. Agnes Jewett, the wife of Dr. J. E. Jewett, formerly of Woodstock, N. B., but living now in California.

W. B. WIGGINS.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

Just a word from this part of the field. We are still in the fight and can report some victories. We recently engaged in fifteen days of special meetings with Rev. A. L. Whitcomb as evangelist. The meetings were fairly well attended and some apparent good was done but on the whole the meetings did not yield what we expected and longed to see. Our brother preached the old time rugged gospel of full salvation, and the meetings were a time of searching and going down to deeper truths. Some that had grown cold in their experiences prayed through to new victory and a few backsliders were reclaimed.

Our regular meetings are all well sustained and there seems to be good reason to expect God's blessing and future victories. The next quarterly meeting will convene with us Jan. 4-7. We look forward to this to be a source of blessing and inspiration.

Pray that God may bless the work here.

H. C. MULLEN,

Beals, Maine, Dec. 4th, 1922.

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

I want to say that I am glad to be able to write to the Highway; such a clean valuable little paper. I love its pages. It is a welcome visitor in our home and I would not be without it. Enclosed you will find my renewal for another year. Well, I must tell you what the Lord has done for us here in Waltham, Mass. We opened special meetings here on Oct. 20th and continued until Nov. 5th in a theatre building. The Lord certainly blest us in our own soul. We did not have large crowds but the Lord was with us. About 6 or 7 went to the altar and all said they got helped. Several raised hands for prayer but would not go any further. It is hard to get people to pay the price these days, especially here in this city, where they fight holiness. Well, we organized a Nazarene Church with seven charter members, and some more to come later. Our laborers were Dist. Supt. S. W. Beers of Malden, Mass., and Prof. F. W. Nease, Prof. E. E. Angell and Rev. Glen W. Sieforth, and L. D. Peavey, of E. W. C. Our music was furnished by E. W. C. Since then we have moved to another hall and Prof. T. W. Nease has supplied for us up till Nov. 26th. On Dec. 3rd we had Brother Leslie Sears, a R. B. student of E. N. C., you all know him. How it stirred our hearts. We were made to feel for him who is from our home town. After meeting we entertained him in our home. We had a tender feeling toward him, being from our old home band of holiness people. May God bless him in his ministry.

I will close wishing all the readers of the Highway a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

MISSIONARY MEETING—MAPLE RIDGE

On Sunday evening, Dec. 3rd, 1922, the Union Sunday School of Maple Ridge held a most successful missionary concert in the Reformed Baptist Church. The following programme was excellently rendered:

Opening hymn—I'll go where you want me to go—School.

Scripture Reading—From the 10th Chapter of St. Luke—Supt. D. F. Reed.
Prayer by Mr. Jack Young.

Singing—We've a story to tell to the nations.

Reading—How the good news travelled in India—Mrs. Wm. Graham.

Recitation—What will you do for the Master—Dow Young.

Singing—When he cometh—By the children.

Recitation—A million a month are dying—Lillian Blaney.

Recitation—A free seat—Ralph Dunlop.

Singing—Where hast thou gleaned today.

Recitation—Come with your sins—Earle Sharp.

Solo and Chorus—There's a hand held out—Effie Love, soloist.

Exercise—What are the children saying—By children.

Reading—The Maister—Mrs. Sandy Blaney.

Singing—Jesus will bless the little ones—By the children.

Reading—The train that came too late—Mrs. D. F. Reed.

Recitation—Your own—Blanche Young.

Singing—Bring them in—By the children.

Recitation—The daughter of the king—

Margaret Graham.

Singing—Rescue the Perishing—By the school.

Recitation—How prayer was answered—Bertie Young.

Collection $6.05.

Doxology.

We have no monthly missionary meeting here but carry on the work for missions through the Sunday School.

We have a real, live, progressive Sunday School composed of members of several denominations and the missionary collections is sent to each mission represented by the school in its turn.

LILLIAN E. BLANEY, Sec of the School.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS AT FREDERICTON, N. B.

The Bible Study Class of the Reformed Baptist Church in choosing its officers for the coming year elected the following: President, Walter L. Morrell; Vice President, Mrs. Walter L. Morrell; Secretary, Helen Goodspeed; Treasurer, Mary Minue; organist, Lois Goodspeed. At a subsequent meeting it was decided to have a social evening at the home of Deacon L. A. and Mrs. Morrell on December 1st. The president appointed committees to look after the arrangement and the members were free to invite their friends. On the evening mentioned the class and friends to the number of forty-five gathered. The usual opening exercises including prayer by Rev. W. B. Wiggins were observed, and then the president, in the absence of the teacher, gave a brief outline of the work already accomplished in the study of the Bible. An interesting programme, consisting of music and reading, was carried out after which Deacon L. A. Morrell was called on to make a speech, which while he was doing two young ladies came in bearing on a tray a little box, which they presented to Mrs. Trafton and which she was asked to open; on doing so she found it to contain in cash and pledges one hundred and forty-three dollars; she tried to reply, but was so surprised it was hard to speak. This was a gift of love and esteem to the pastor and his wife. Then came the refreshments and a time of sociability. Anon.

Note.—You can imagine the surprise of myself when my wife came home and had finished answering my rather rapid questions, she presented me with that little box and said, Brother Morrell says there is something in that good for a cold. I was sick and wanted relief so opened the box, out fell a little piece of paper, on which was written a load of wood on the snow, another five dollars a little later, but when I pried out the little roll in the box, what should meet my gaze but a bill with a one hundred mark on it, then a twenty and so on till the total amount in cash was one hundred and thirty-one dollars. I could only exclaim. It is wonderful, praise the Lord. This had been planned by the president and friends and carried out so carefully that Mrs. Trafton and I had not one least idea of what was being done. We want to praise the Lord for the kindness of these dear people. May God bless them richly. Our new president is a live wire and we are praying for much blessing from the Lord on this branch of the work. Keep on praying.

P. J. TRAFTON.