

PERSONALS.

Sister E. A. Morgan, of Dorchester, Mass., writes that she expects to be at Beulah again this season. She says: "What a grand little paper the King's Highway is; it is nice reading; I enjoy its clean straight truth."

Brother O. F. Crosby, formerly of Yarmouth, N. S., now of Massachusetts, has changed his residence to 67A Cross street, Malden, Mass.

Sister Nellie G. Hartt has changed her address to Woodstock, N. B., R. F. D. 6. Sister Hartt has spent the last few years in Bangor, Maine.

Sister S. Hayden Shaw in a letter written May 1st, says: "I am laid by, but Jesus is very precious, oh so precious, so real, so glorious, and heaven seems not far away." This is true, wealth which our sister has been laying up for many years.

Brother and Sister G. W. Bates made a visit to Brother Bates' old home in Lennius, Me., last week.

We are very sorry to hear of the serious illness of Miss Helen Whelpley, daughter of Brother and Sister A. E. Whelpley, of St. John, N. B.

Brother D. F. Knight, of Fredericton, has been ill, but is now reported as improving.

Sister Hyde, a member of the Fredericton Church, had the misfortune to be hit by an automobile, receiving a badly broken leg. She is in the Victoria Hospital at Fredericton. Sister Eliza Knox, of Upper Hainesville, is also in the same hospital for treatment.

NOTICE.

The blanks for the annual reports have been forwarded to the various churches and will the pastors and clerks please have them properly filled out and returned to me not later than June 20th.

Let's be on time this year.

L. T. SABINE,
Secretary.

TESTIMONY.

Dear Brother Baker:

I want to report victory in my soul. The past is all under the blood. Praise him today for free and full salvation. I am enclosing renewal for the Highway. We enjoy reading its pure pages very much.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. ANNIE B. SEANEY.

Beals, Maine.

ITEMS FROM ROLAYTON.

Brother Frank Weade has become one of the deacons of the Royalton Church.

Brother Eddie Bartley, of Knoxford, is very ill. Please pray for him.

Mrs. Cecil Ireland has moved to her summer cottage at Riverside.

Sister Nellie Hartt is also at Riverside for the summer.

Brother and Sister Keirstead have had an unanimous call to remain at the Royalton Church for the fourth year.

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We are glad to hear of the success enjoyed by Rev. C. S. Hilyard, of St. John. A sister says: Mr. Hilyard gives us the truth in no uncertain way, and souls are being saved and sanctified, and the church built up and refreshed.

Rev. P. W. Briggs has resigned the pastorate of the New Tuskett circuit. This will make a good opening for one of our young men.

Brother Hartley Mullen has accepted a unanimous call to remain pastor of the North Head Church. Brother Mullen is holding services also at Castalia, and Woodward's Cove. All the meetings well attended.

Always glad to hear of the success of the work. Rev. W. B. Wiggins says of the Fredericton services of Sunday, 21st: We had a good day yesterday, which closed with an altar service and six persons forward, and victory. This church is in a better state spiritually than ever before.

Royalton also reports victory; thirteen baptized on May 14th. Brother and Sister Keirstead will remain on this pastorate, and are highly appreciated. They are now living in the new parsonage.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer have recently been well remembered by their people. See letter in this issue.

Rev. T. W. Moses expects to be at the Alliance as usual. While Sister Moses is in poor health, she is not confined to her bed. She is wonderfully sustained by the grace of God in her weak state of health.

Last Sunday was a specially good day at Moncton with good attendance at the services and Sunday School. The attendance at the Sunday School has been very encouraging during the winter and spring months.

Enquiries come to us so we give information so far as we hear by most reliable sources.

Pastors are settled as follows:

Woodstock, N. B.—Rev. L. J. Alley has received and accepted a unanimous call to remain as pastor for the ensuing year.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard will remain at St. John, N. B.

Rev. P. J. Trafton will remain at Fredericton.

Rev. S. A. Baker has accepted the call to continue pastor at Moncton, but will spend several weeks at Beulah.

Rev. H. S. Dow has received two calls when last word came from him; he had not decided, but we have heard indirectly that he would probably accept the call to Marysville.

We have heard that Rev. E. W. Lester had accepted a call to the Hartland circuit.

Rev. H. C. Mullen has accepted a call to the Beals, Maine, Church.

Rev. I. F. and Sister Keirstead has accepted the call and will remain at Royalton, N. B.

Rev. S. H. Clark will remain at Calais, Maine. Licentiate George Rogers will supply while Brother Clark takes a vacation.

North Head Church has laid a nice cement walk across the church lot at the sidewalk, and from the sidewalk to the entrance of the church. Brother G. B. Thomas donating the cement. Mr. Thaddeus Dakin superintended the work. The brethren did the work.

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen have accepted a call to Perth, N. B.

Rev. G. B. Trafton will probably remain with the Grey's Mills Church.

Licentiate Hartley Mullen has accepted a unanimous call to remain pastor of the North Head, N. B., Church.

There are several circuits and churches and several ministers that we have not heard from as yet, but think they will soon make their arrangements. There will likely be other changes as several brethren have resigned their charges.

An indirect report from Meductic says: They (the pastor, H. S. Mullen and wife) who are being assisted by Rev. W. W. Howe, are having good meetings at Meductic and Greenbush.

Rev. A. H. Trafton preached at the Head of Millstream Sunday, 21st inst.

Brother Hartley Mullen says: My testimony is that God is still giving me victory.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead preached at Summerfield, Carleton Co., on the 21st and at Gordonsville on the 28th.

MARRIED.

McGrath-Hartley.

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Royalton, N. B., on Wednesday p. m., May 24th, Mrs. Hattie Hartley, of Tracey Mills, was united in marriage to Mr. Howard McGrath, of Knoxford, by Rev. I. F. Keirstead, assisted by Mrs. Keirstead, Lic. Only the immediate friends were present.

Radcliffe-Burke.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, at Fort Fairfield, Maine, Everett Augustus Radcliffe and Madeline Florence Burke, both of Fort Fairfield, Maine, were united in marriage by Rev. H. S. Dow on April 29th, 1922.

OBITUARY.

Lizzie Cook.

Miss Lizzie Cook, daughter of Mrs. Maude Cook, of Victoria, passed away on the morning of May 18th in the 22nd year of her life, after an illness of about seven weeks. The funeral took place on Saturday p. m. from the residence and was largely attended. The writer conducted the service and was assisted by Rev. C. N. Barton, U. B. The Baptist choir of Victoria had charge of the singing. Interment was made in the cemetery at Upper Wakefield. The deceased was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church at Victoria.
