BEULAH NOTES.

Since Beulah Camp Meeting we have spent two weeks at Riverside Camp Meeting, returning here on the 12th inst. Since which Beulah has had many visitors. We believe that never in the history of the grounds have so many visited it as this season, although not so many took rooms as usual. But the attendance at the services in the Tabernacle Sundays and at the week night services have been large, and the Sunday School conducted by Bro. J. F. Bullock has been well attended.

The preaching has been done principally by Rev. H. C. Archer, who is in charge of the camp this season. Several other ministers have preached and helped in the services, including Rev. W. B. Wiggins, A. H. Trafton, Mrs. I. F. Keirstead, Revs. Goodwin, H. E. Thomas, and S. A. Baker, the congregation being composed principally of members of other denominations who are occupying cottages in and about Beulah Camp.

THE HIGHWAY.

The Highway has been printed at Moncton, N. B., for the past six years by the "Times Printing Company," and they have done such excellent work and have also given a generous offer for the coming year, that the Highway Committee have decided to continue it at the present office.

This will cause the Editor to move to Moncton, but not for the present. Hence all communications and subscriptions should be sent to 745 George St., Fredericton, N. B., until further notice.

The Editor and Mrs. Wiggins after Riverside had a very pleasant visit at Deacon Harry Crawford's at Houlton and met Mrs. Lydia Crawford, as also her sister, Mrs. Noble, widow of the late Joseph Noble, who is an invalid, but both were formerly residents of Upper Woodstock, N. B.

Then then came to Woodstock to pack up their goods preparatory to removing them. Their friends here, where they spent a number of years in religious service, as pastor and wife, were delighted to see them and welcomed them most cordially to their homes. The time was spent very pleasantly.

HIGHWAY FUND.

There was a very good response when the Highway Fund was presented to the people at Riverside Camp; one hundred dollars was quickly subscribed. This makes a total of over four hundred dollars already subscribed. Now, brethren and sisters, we want to work sharp; let there be a continuous response. Send in your name and amount early to Rev. W. B. Wiggins. We will need at least one thousand dollars this year. Let all feel their obligation in this matter. The paper is yours. Keep it free from debt. We believe you will.

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING.

The Camp Meeting was well attended and many were blessed. A good number said it was among the best that they ever attended at Riverside. Others said it was the best ever held here. It was indeed a very successful meeting in the convicting, converting and sanctifying of precious souls through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit. There was not a single dull meeting in the whole series. All the services were good. The brethren who led the social services, as well as those who preached, did excellent service. The Evangelist, Rev. John Norberry, gave grand sermons on the line of full salvation and did his best to make the meeting a success. The early prayer service was the key to the success of each day's blessing. The power of the Holy Spirit was manifested. There was much prayer throughout the day in the cottages, as well as in the Tabernacle, which was the secret of the success that followed. God abundantly blessed. To Him be all the glory! Besides the brethren who were mentioned in the last issue, Revs. Perley Briggs, S. A. Baker and I. F. Keirstead preached during the week. Bros. Hastings Golding, Ray Hagerman, J. H. Coy, Leslie Sears, L. J. Alley, George Rogers and others led the social services. On the last Sunday Rev. P. J. Trafton led the Love Feast and over 125 testimonies were given quickly and cheerfully to God's saving and keeping grace.

At 11 A.M. Rev. W. B. Wiggins preached to a large congregation and several knelt at the altar at the close of the service, seeking a full salvation.

The laymen's service at 1 P.M. in the grove, led by Bro. Lee Good, was a grand one. In the Tabernacle at 2.30 P.M. Evangelist Norberry gave a convincing Bible reading on the Second Blessing to a congregation that completely filled and overflowed the large Tabernacle. Between two to three thousand were present and on the grounds. In the evening Rev. Norberry gave an excellent sermon on the Judgment, Rev. 20:11-15, and a number knelt at the altar for salvation to be prepared for the coming solemn event. This closing service ended in victory, with marching, songs, praise, testimonies and prayer with glad hearts.

The financial part of the Camp Meeting was a complete success, as all the obligations were cheerfully met. The people had a mind to work and pray, as also to give.

"Praise God from Whom all blessings flow." Rev. H. S. Dow, who had charge of the meetings, presided with dignity and grace, and proved to be an excellent leader.

THE STUDENTS FUND.

A resolution was passed by the Alliance this year to ask at least 25 cents from every member of the Reformed Baptist denomination and all others who would help, for a students fund. A fund to give some little help and encouragement to our worthy young men who are struggling to get a little education to fit themselves for our ministry.

As I view it, the greatest need of our denomination is more workers, and workers should have training. It is almost an insult to ask anyone for so small a sum as 25 cents, but even this from every member would make the tidy little sum of $500.00, and every cent invested in this way will come back to us as a church a hundred-fold. We can easily raise this amount and more too, for not many will limit themselves to 25 cents. This small amount was set so as to make it a children's proposition as well as for older folks, for even little children will be glad to come in on this, if the parents mention it to them. Let us make this a self-denial offering if there is no other way.

Just think, it would mean the sacrifice of two ice creams and one sour little orange. My, what a sacrifice! How many are there who spend much less than a dollar of two a week in treats? Let us take hold of this and put it over the top before the end of September. Rev. W. B. Wiggins is the appointed Treasurer of this Fund and his address is Fredericton, N.B. Let's give him a shower of 25's, 50's, $1.00's and $5.00's! Who say go? I head it with five! Come on!
