They have spent a delightful summer camping at Beulah and Riverside camp grounds and feel much benefit from the ideal open air life, surrounded by the beautiful things about them, including the blessed spiritual atmosphere.

Rev. G. B. and Mrs. MacDonald, of Halifax, are spending a few weeks in a cottage near Beulah. Mrs. Margaret Marsten and two grandchildren, of St. John, are visiting Mrs. MacDonald.

The Sandford church has been repaired and painted inside and looks fine.

Note Bro. H. C. Mullen's article on the "Students' Fund." It is a very worthy object to help our young men to receive an education, and God has heard the prayer for more workers, and let us help them as far as we are able. We trust there will be a liberal response.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Robert Barr, of Fredericton, will close her cottage and return home September 1st, accompanied by Mrs. Bertha Dow, for a visit, after which she expects to return to Brewer, Maine.

Sister Joseph Bullock attended most of the services week night and Sundays, sitting in her accustomed place in the big Tabernacle. Mr. J. F. Bullock faithfully filled his place at the organ.

Every point at Beulah Camp is still very beautiful. The shores and beaches, the groves and walks; the trees are green and luxuriant; the cedars and pines and spruces are filled with buds; the cherry bushes loaded with cherries. Around the Tabernacle are eight large hydrangea bushes loaded with beautiful blossoms, also other shrubs, adding much to the beauty of the place. While we are very pleasantly situated in Moncton, we reluctantly turn from our little rough camp on the bank of the magnificent St. John river. —S. A. Baker.

We are sorry to learn of the sudden death of Colonel Geo. V. Mersereau on the 19th inst., at Doaktown, N. B. He leaves a widow and seven children, three sons and four daughters. Mrs. H. F. MacLeod, of Fredericton, is one of them. Mr. Mersereau was a graduate of the University and was one of my college mates.

We learn of the death of another well known friend, of Moncton, John E. Barss. Bro. Barss was an evangelist in his earlier days and did good work in the matter of salvation. He has been ill for a number of years. His widow was a Miss Matheson, of Hartland, N. B. Besides the widow there survive two sons.

Bro. John Briggs, formerly of Gordonsville, has sold his home there and is now living at Florenceville, N. B.

Dr. John Paul, for the past five years vice-president of Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky, has been elected president of Taylor University, Upland, Indiana. Dr. Paul is recognized and esteemed in religious and educational circles. He is an able preacher, an author of several books, and widely known as a successful evangelist. Before his connection with Asbury College he served on the faculty of the Meridian Colleges in Mississippi, and he has been closely related to both the northern and the southern Methodist churches by membership in their committees. His profound interest in the training of ministers and missionaries has resulted in his acceptance of the presidency of Taylor University where hundreds of Christian workers are trained.

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING.

The camp meeting at Riverside was signally blessed of the Lord. It was the best from the spiritual standpoint of any held in recent years. Numbers of seekers were at the altar. The weather was all that could be desired and the attendance good throughout. The preaching by the brethren and evangelist was good and to the point along full salvation lines. The financial obligations were fully met, God once more testifying by the presence of the Holy Spirit His approval of the Bible teaching of entire sanctification as a second definite work of grace. We must continue our work definitely on this line. No better place can be found to broadcast the seed of holiness than at our camp meetings, where the people gather by the hundreds and for the most part listen intently to the word of truth. The meeting at Riverside Camp this year was certainly encouraging. To God be all the glory. —P. J. T.

A DELIGHTFUL PICNIC.

A delightful picnic was given Wednesday afternoon on the grounds of Mrs. F. R. Pickel, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, who are here spending a week before proceeding to Moncton, where they will reside.

About seventy-five people, both old and young, sat down to the large table spread on the lawn, and needless to say there was a bountiful repast served.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins are being warmly welcomed by all their old friends in Woodstock. — "Sentinel," Woodstock, N.B.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins and Mrs. Wiggins were here last week preparing for their removal to Moncton, and on Wednesday afternoon a delightful picnic was given to them on the grounds of F. R. Pickel. About 75 people were present to do honor to the reverend gentleman and his esteemed wife.—Woodstock Press.
