

AN EVERLASTING TEMPTATION.

The temptation to tone down and compromise in the work of holiness is ever before us. There are other temptations that we leave behind us in the race but this will ever attend us while we have to mingle with a wicked world and a lukewarm backslidden church. All sorts of special arguments will be brought to bear upon us. We shall be considered narrow and bigoted and head strong, but we must persevere and without fear and favor be true to the experience that God has given us or spiritually die. The world is full of compromisers and trimmers, who once had the blessing but toned down and are now dried up and dead. Are you headed for the graveyard of those who have toned down and died?—The Christian Witness.

THOSE SEVEN THOUSAND.

Elijah was discouraged, away by himself in the desert.

"What doest thou here, Elijah?"

"The children of Israel have forsaken thy Covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets—and I only am left."

Up man and away back to your work. You're all astray! Matters are not nearly so bad as you think them. "I have left to Me seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."

Seven thousand! And Elijah thought he was alone!—Presbyterian Record.

THE REVIVAL WAS GOOD.

The special services that have been held during the past few weeks by Fred W. Foster, "the farm evangelist," in the Methodist Church, have been concluded and the preacher has gone to Lower Brighton to pursue his labors. The Hartland congregation declares that all members have been encouraged and strengthened and filled with determination to "fight the good fight; while a number of others who previously claimed no intimate knowledge of God have chosen to walk in His way.—Carleton Observer.

PREACH THE WORD.

We would insist that it is not a knowledge of sin that qualifies for soul saving. But it is the knowledge of God. Not an ability to answer the doubts of critics or the cavils of infidels, but the knowledge of God's word. We conceive that the principle work of the Christian minister is not the tearing down of all the structures of heresy with polefical logic, but it is the proclamation of the Pentecostal Truth whose very presence vindicates itself; which needs only to appear in order to conquer. Biblical theology is worth more than apologetics, and exposition more than successful controversy.—Rev. Robert Stewart.

EXACTLY.

They asked Captain Levy, of Philadelphia, Chestnut Street, how he was able to give us much and still have so much left. "Oh," said he, "as I shovel out, He shovels in; and the Lord has a bigger shovel than I have."—S. S. Times.

"THE LORD IS AT HAND."

If we are His, now and not at some distant time, He is at hand. In this immediate condition or arrangement or circumstance, He is present. Now we may be possessed, controlled, filled, vitalized, kept by the Holy Ghost. By faith He becomes a part of us. Our very personality may be charged with the Presence of the Holy Ghost, so that our contact with others may be purified and unctionized. Do we so carry Him with in us that our presence is helpful and uplifting?—I.D.V.

NO FAVOURITISM IN THE DAY OF JUDGMENT.

No favouritism can prevail in the day of Judgment; nothing will pass there but holiness of heart and life. A righteousness imputed and not possessed and practised, will not avail where God judgeth according to every man's work. It would be well that those sinners and spurious believers, who fancy themselves safe and complete in the highness of Christ, while impure and unholy in themselves, would think of this testimony of the Apostle.—Dr. Adam Clark.

GOD NEVER FAILS.

God never fails, though all things fail—
Tried hearts, cast anchor there;
When storms of doubt and fear assail
Trust Him who answers prayer;
Thy barque will weather every gale,
Faith reckons all winds fair!

God never fails, though all things fail—
Unshaken ground of rest,
Safe anchorage "within the veil"
For mariners distress;
Light of God's love shall never pale,
His will is always best.

—Selected.

"At the inquest upon the body of a little boy who had been run over, the chief witness was a youth who narrowly escaped injury himself. "I saw that I had just time to cross the road in front of the car," he said; "but I had no idea that the lad was following me." Are we sure that no one is following us in the little doubtful pleasure, and that although we escape injury will not be hurt?"

"If heaven is like a hotel a resting place for all classes, and if an angel is manager, I think he will feel awfully embarrassed if he has to put a Paul, a Stephen or a Wesley in the bed some tobacco user has just occupied. It won't smell right!"

"Obeying the law of rest is a very sensible part of divine healing."

Sad thing when any man commits suicide, but doubly so when a minister of the gospel does such a deed, as in the case at Mars Hill, Maine, of Rev. Mr. Carleton, Methodist minister there.

The Christian Witness Co. of Chicago expect to have a new Song Book about July 1st, too late for Beulah, but perhaps in time for Riverside Camp Meeting.

Will we use Songs of the Kingdom? We don't want to get them unless the people want them.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Moncton monthly missionary meeting was held on Tuesday evening, 9th inst., Mrs. S. N. Grass presiding. Mrs. Manford Hicks secretary, and Miss Lucy Blakney, pianist.

A brief but nice programme was given by the children and readings by Mrs. Wm. Mitton, Mrs. S. N. Grass and Miss Lucy Blakney. A good offering was taken.

MISSIONARY MEETING, ST. JOHN, N.B.

Dear Brother Baker:

I am sending you the programme of our last missionary meeting held April 21, 1922

Recitation—Etta Hilyard.

Recitation—Percey Foley.

Solo—Fred Parlee.

Recitation—Frances Saunders.

Reading—Mrs. Clark.

Duet—Helen Cosman and Thelma Parlee.

Dialogue—Marion Saunders and Etta Hilyard.

Reading—Mrs. Cosman (Missionary letter from Sisters Sterritt.)

Recitation—Alfred Foley.

Duet—Helen Cosman and Mrs. Beesley.

Reading—Mrs. Ingersoll.

Solo—Fred Parlee.

Recitation—Ruth Hilyard.

Reading—Grace Saunders.

Special offering was taken for Foreign Missions amounting to $25.00.

MRS. F. CLARK,
Corres. Secy.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

I feel like writing a few lines for your valued pages. I often think if it were not for our pastor corresponding with you you would not hear from this part of the field very often. I praise God and am glad for a free and present salvation this 26th day of April 1922. These are days when my heart is open to receive all God has for me a hunger for righteousness and to see God's work prosper. God blesses us as a people when we gather for his worship. Though few in number yet we rejoice to know, with God on our side, battles can be fought and victories won. As we read from the word, "One can chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight," how it should encourage our hearts, and we gather renewed strength and push the battle a little harder for Jesus. I thank Him again, because he is my refuge, my helper, my sanctifier, my all.

Trusting you will have a feast of good things to your souls at Beulah this year, and that the evangelist shall be made a blessing.

Yours for His service,
BESSIE SOLLOWS.

SORELY AFFLICTED.

Our dear brother, L. S. Kinney, of Fort Fairfield, Maine, is sadly and seriously afflicted. Let there be united prayer for him. He has been a faithful and beloved brother.

No one can master a situation which he is afraid to face.