

The King's Highway.

An Advocate of Scriptural Holiness.

And an Highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The Way of Holiness—Isa. 35

VOL. XXXIV.

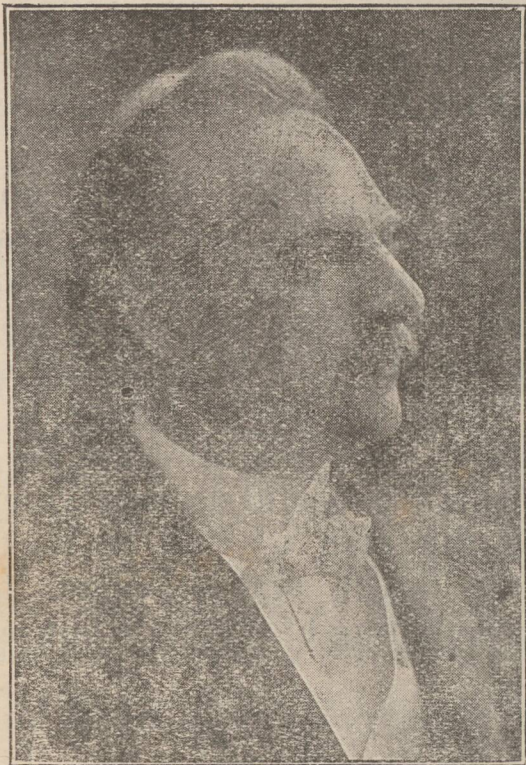

MONCTON, N. B., JUNE 30, 1922.

NO. 24

Mrs. Geo. Teille Dec 24

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING!

August 4 - 14, 1922

REV. JOHN NORBERRY,
Of Lehighton, Pa., Evangelist.

WORKERS

All the Reformed Baptist pastors are expected to be present, with a large number of lay-workers, beside visitors who will help in the services.

MUSIC

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen will be our special singers. Mr. J. F. Bullock organist; Rev. P. J. Trafton and Rev. E. W. Lester will be the leaders in song; and a great company of singers will swell the glad songs of praise.

ROOMS

In the Hotel 75 cents per day. In the Dormitory 50 cents per day.

BOARD

Per week $6.00. Per day $1.00. Dinner 50 cents. Breakfast and supper 35 cents.

RIVERSIDE CAMP GROUND

Is situated on the Bangor and Aroostook Railway at Robinson, Maine. People from N. B. can go via Houlton and Fort Fairfield, Maine, or via St. John Valley R. R. to Centreville, N. B., and cross to camp ground in half an hour by automobile.

Good roads by automobile from all points. Ground for tents free.

These camp meetings are purely evangelistic, with no side issues. We expect this to be a great meeting.

For further information, write REV. S. A. BAKER, Moncton, N. B.

BEULAH-ON-THE-ST. JOHN.

It was a pleasure to come at this early date. Entering the west gate, we came through Bullock Avenue, past the artificial lake, and up Kimball Avenue we exclaimed how lovely surely Beulah seems more beautiful than ever before. Coming around Kinghorn Avenue, we found Mrs. Perkins occupying her cottage. Rev. S. A. and Mrs. Baker cosily settled. Their cottage freshly painted and an additional room built on which adds much to the appearance and convenience.

Rev. Mr. Thomas had just moved in to Breezy Bluff cottage. Mrs. L. T. Styles and Mrs. C. J. Styles and Master Kenneth occupies Mr. McConnell's cottage. We were warmly welcomed at the Jarvis cottage by Miss Laura McLaughlin and Mrs. McLaughlin and family. Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins are nicely settled. Mrs. Robert Barr, accompanied by Mrs. Miller has her cottage ready for occupants.

Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Trafton and Mrs. Foley and family have been here for some time. Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer, Rev. G. B. and Mrs. Trafton occupying their cottages. Rev. S. H. and Mrs. Clark have opened the store and already serving the people, and seem to find it a pleasure. Rev. L. Alley and wife are preparing the hotel rooms. Rev. W. W. Howe and his staff of workers are opening the hotel and getting ready to satisfy the inner man. This usually puts folk good natured. Rev. I. F. Keirstead is opening Cedardale Dormitory. Mr. Noah Hicks and wife being the first to take a room. Riverview Dormitory is also ready for roomers.

Passing over Kedron Bridge up the Avenue we find several cottages still closed. Climbing Jacob's Ladder around by Mount Horeb we find everything in beautiful condition, the recent rains having made everything beautifully green. The walks raked clean of leaves, the fountains sending their crystal spray as by some magic power. There is an atmosphere of such sacred restfulness within the grounds, it seems really beyond expression. Even the stones have been newly painted with texts of praise.

The wharf is completely under water, the boats having to enter by the side. Friends are coming by almost every boat and train.

We are looking and expecting a time of great victory and power. The first social meeting led by President Clark, his subject or text being, "In the beginning God," a beautiful spirit pervaded. We bow in adoration before the God of Heaven who was from the beginning and will be to the end of each life when he has supreme control. This was the desire of each one present.

Our hearts were made glad to hear the testimonies of victory that were given, where Jesus had blessed and kept during all the testings of the past year, where many through affliction and bereavement had been made strong in the Lord and in the power of his might.

We miss dear ones who have been here for so many years, who have passed over the river to the glory land. Yet these things help us to look up and take a firmer grip by faith of the living God for grace and strength and victory in service for the coming days.

I. M. K.

DONATION AT LOWER BRIGHTON.

The pastor and his wife were invited to the home of Brother Fred Brown on Saturday evening, June 24th, where we found a company of brothers and sisters gathered on our behalf. After a pleasant evening spent in conversation and singing the meeting was called to order by Sister Bryant, who after addressing some kindly words of appreciation to the pastor and wife, tendered them with a purse of $34.

Our hearts were made glad by the words of appreciation of these dear people, and we again feel like thanking them for the tangible tokens of their love.

H. C. AND MRS. MULLEN,
Hartland, N. B.

"The work into which we have put the very best of ourselves may be discredited. But criticism that is undeserved never need distress us."

"Many a talent is wrapped in a napkin laziness."