CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Bro. Baker,—Enclosed you will find $7.50 from my little Primary Class. I got a little mite box just a year ago Sunday and we started to save for the Sterritt Sisters. My class is small and all little tots, but each one seemed so anxious to get the box full. So we opened it Sunday in Sunday School. How anxious they all were as I counted its contents! So please send it to the Sterritt Sisters as a token of love and interest we have in their work for the Master.

Yours in Christ,

MRS. GEO. D. JOHNSON.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins, Fredericton,

Dear Brother Wiggins,—Just a few lines to let you know the Lord is blessing us in this part of His vineyard. The work looks encouraging. Brother Hagerman is with us at present, attending school and preaching at Seal Cove. We are trusting God for victory in His service.

Yours in Him,

H. E. MULLEN.

A note from Bro. Aaron Hartt, while sending his renewal for the Highway says of himself and sister Hartt, "We are going up the shining way, having left the world far, far behind; and glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have attended four Camp Meetings this season."

PERSONALS

We note in another column the departure from this life of three well known friends, Mrs. William Cosman, of Vancouver, Mr. William Cogswell, of Fort Fairfield, and Rev. John Trites, of Caribou, Me.

Sister Cosman's home was always open to every true Christian; and in the early times of the Holiness Movement in New Brunswick, she entertained a number of evangelists and ministers, most of whom have gone to their blessed reward. She was a true Christian. Bro. Cogswell will long be remembered for the true old Christian hymns and songs he loved to sing, and for his kind disposition and bright testimony of God's saving grace.

Bro. Trites seemed to be cut off in the early period of his Christian usefulness, as he was the very picture of health and strength, which belokened a long and successful period of labor in the vineyard of the Lord.

We deeply sympathize with all of those who mourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Storey and little daughter, Luesli, of California, have been spending the summer at Beulah.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Storey with their little daughter Pearl and son Frank, of Boston, spent a few days at Beulah last week.

Miss Mabel Good, of Moncton, has been spending her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. H. C. Archer, at Beulah.

Miss Ethel Archer, of Boston, has been spending the past month with her brother, Rev. H. C. Archer, at Beulah Camp Ground.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bates made a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Goodspeed, 745 George St., Fredericton, on their way from Riverside to their home in Moncton.

Harold Freeze, of Moncton, spent the week-end with friends in Fredericton.

MARRIED.

At the minister's residence, 117 Albert Street, Woodstock, Sept. 6th, by Rev. J. H. Coy, Mr. W. M. White, of Houlton, Me., and Mrs. Mabel Brown, of Fredericton, N. B.

At Woodstock, N. B., Hazel Reed, of Houlton, Me., to Irvine Kimball, of Skowhegan, Me., Sept. 2, 1922, by Rev. L. J. Alley.

At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. W. Carvell, 38 Wellington Row, St. John, N. B., August 22, 1922, Hollis W. Crocker, of Amherst, N. S., and Mary Martin, of Worcester, Mass., were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Hilyard.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Emily Cosman.

There passed away at 809 Homer St., Vancouver, B. C., on Aug. 27, Mrs. Emily Cosman, widow of William Cosman. Mr. Cosman will be remembered by the older citizens of St. John as conducting a tin-smith business for several years at Golden Ball corner. They moved to Vancouver about thirty-five years ago and built up a flourishing business there. Mr. Cosman died sixteen years ago last March. Mrs. Cosman was in her ninety-second year. She is survived by six sons and three daughters and about forty grand and great-grandchildren. The sons are: Whitfield and Stilson, Vancouver; Hatheway, Westminster, B. C.; Corey, Boston; Yerxa, Moncton, and Melbourne, Amherst, N. S.; The daughters are: Mrs. G. H. Colwell, Vancouver; Mrs. William Kirkland, Ladner, B. C., and Mrs. George Bates, Moncton. Her work in the W.C.T.U. and the Children's Home leave a happy impression. On her ninety-first birthday the W.C.T.U. presented her with an illuminated address. Her funeral took place on Monday, Aug. 29.

Daniel Parker.

Many friends will learn with regret of the death of Daniel Parker, which occurred at Castailia on August 25th. He leaves to mourn his loss six sons and three daughters. The funeral service was on Aug. 27th, conducted by H. E. Mullen.

Mrs. John Dalzell.

Mrs. John Dalzell passed away at her home in Castailia on September 3rd after a lingering illness which she bore with Christian fortitude. To the mourning husband, son, and many loved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy in this sad bereavement. The funeral was conducted by H. C. Mullen, assisted by Rev. J. Hutton, on September 6th.

Mr. Coleman Dalzell.

Death has again saddened our community by claiming as its victim Mr. Coleman Dalzell, of Southern Head, N. B., on Monday morning, September 4th. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, one child and an aged mother, also one sister and brother. Funeral took place on September 6th. Interment at North Head cemetery. Service conducted by Rev. J. Hutton, assisted by H. E. Mullen.

Rev. John H. Trites.

Moncton, N. B., Sept. 9—Rev. John H. Trites, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Caribou, Me., died in the Moncton Hospital on Sunday afternoon at the age of 41 years. He had been spending his vacation here with relatives and was taken suddenly ill with brain trouble on Wednesday. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

QUARTERLY MEETING.

The church at Grey's Mills invite District No. 2 to hold a Quarterly Meeting with them, beginning Thursday evening, Sept. 21, at 7.30 p.m., to Sept. 25. Will the brethren and churches appoint delegates and plan to come.

G. B. TRAFTON.
