

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Sister M. Ella Slipp says, Jesus is very precious to me these days. My peace is as a river and my soul rejoices in God my Saviour.

Rev. P. J. Tafton began special services with Pastor S. A. Baker at Moncton on the 12th inst.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins preached at Moncton Sunday evening, the 9th inst. Brother and Sister Wiggins were called home on the 10th on account of the death of Brother B. N. Goodspeed.

Brother George A. Rogers preached at Springhill and at Lower Woodstock, and Meductic on New Year's Day.

Brother Ray Hagerman preached at Millville Christmas, and at Maple Ridge on New Year's evening. He has resumed his studies at Wollaston, Mass.

Sister I. F. Keirstead's diary shows that she visited 90 different homes and held 35 gospel or missionary meetings away from home, in addition to the servoces held at home. Nursed a case of pneumonia, assisted in surgical operations, and answered every sick call but one during 1921, and she is now looking forward to a greater year's service in 1922.

Three persons were received into the membership of the Reformed Baptist Church at Calais, Me., Sunday evening, Dec. 25th.

The fifth anniversary of the re-opening of the Reformed Baptist Church, North St., took place on January 8th, 1922. Rev. W. W. Howe, of St. John, was present and also members of the Woodstock Praying Band.

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen and son, and Miss Helen Phillips spent Dec. 29th with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rogers and family at Springfield, York Co., N. B.

The old landmarks are being removed one by one. In the passing of our aged brother, B. N. Goodspeed, the oldest male member of our denomination in New Brunswick has been removed. These men who became the champions of holiness in the early days were men of sterling worth. It is to the young men they leave their heritage, and I pray that we may not falter or fail to press the issue on the line of heart holiness as a second definite work of grace. Their memory to us is sweet. May we be faithful unto death as they have been.

P. J. TRAFTON.

PERSONALS.

Brother and Sister Cliff have moved to Hot Springs, Arkansas (at least for the winter). Brother Cliff is a half-brother of Brother Robert Barr, of Fredericton.

Sister Henry Weade writes: Enclosed find renewal for the Highway, which I love to read. I can hear from God's dear people. My testimony is that the dear Lord is very precious to me. He keeps and saves me these days. My heart is full of praise. I love Him and His dear people. I expect by His help to praise Him to the end.

Sister Thomas Tilley, of Victoria, who met with an accident some months ago, is recovering slowly. She wishes to acknowledge the kindness of many friends of Victoria and Rosedale, who visited her on her birthday, Dec. 20th, and presented her with a beautiful work basket.

Sister Cora E. Tilley says: Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. It certainly is a welcome paper in our home.

We are glad to know that Brother and Sister Charles Jones, who bought Brother C. S. Hilyard's cottage at Riverside are living there this winter.

Brother W. E. Chipman, of Boston, a man who seems to be very much alive to business and salvation. "Not slothful in business and fervent in Spirit," says: Kindly send us The Little Big Paper (The King's Highway). We look for the Highway as a special friend with glad news of Salvation, and a report of the Master's great work. He also adds a subscription for the Highway.

Mrs. Walter Ireland says: Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. I enjoy reading it and have received much benefit from the Highway.

Sister Frank Pelkie says: My testimony this morning is that Jesus saves me just now. Praise his name. She requests prayer for Sister Addie Waugh, of Gordonsville, N. B., who is ill.

Sister J. W. Moore says: She plans to attend Beulah Camp Meeting the coming summer.

The Camp Meeting workers committee have engaged Evangelist A. L. Whitcomb, of Iowa, as the special worker at Beulah Camp Meeting July 4-10, 1922.

Brother Paul Sanders and some of the natives had a very narrow escape recently, when the lightning struck the church at the mission station in Africa, during a heavy thunder storm.

Sister Alice Sterritt in a letter dated Nov. 30th says: I have just come from Wednesday afternoon class. There were about 40 natives present, and after the service we practiced Christmas hymns in the Zulu hymn book. Faith preached today, and I feel it was a very helpful service to the people. I enjoyed playing the little organ and giving my testimony.

Rev. G. F. Lilley has moved to Island Falls, Maine. Brother Lilley visits Riverside Camp Meeting.

Brother George Conley, of Boston (who sells Bible calendars) says: I do praise God with all my heart, that he gives me love, joy and peace through the gift of the Holy Ghost and a burden for lost men and women. Praying God will help the Highway family to be true and hot without compromise.

TREAT AND PRESENTATION.

The annual Christmas exercises and Sunday School treat for the children took place in the Reformed Baptist Church Monday evening, Dec. 26th, and was as usual well attended. The exercises were well rendered by the young people of the school and much enjoyed by all present. At the close of the program Mrs. George Woodman, on behalf of the church and congregation, presented the pastor and Mrs. Clark with a purse expressive of their appreciation of their work in the church and Sunday School.

S. A. BAKER,
Treasurer.

Dear Brother Baker:

I wish to say, the dear Lord is very precious to my soul. Praise his holy name! As the old year has rolled out and the new year has come, I will by his grace endure to the end, weak in body, but strong in faith. (Psalm 28—"The Lord is my strength and my shield, my heart trusteth in Him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth, and with my song will I praise Him.") I do love to read the Highway, and I enjoy this "highway of holiness."

MRS. D. H. HAYES.

Mercer, N. B.

Dear Brother Baker:

We are sending our renewal for the Highway. We are glad when it comes, for its pages are clean and we enjoy reading the testimonies of the dear brethren and sisters. My testimony is that the dear Lord is wonderfully precious to me these days. He saves me from all desire for sin in any form, praise His dear name.

Our meeting last night was one of power, The saints of the Lord were wonderfully blessed, and one seeking soul found victory.

Your brother in Christ,
IRVIN C. BENSON.

England owes much of her energy and character to the religious keeping of the Sunday. Why cannot France follow her, as the Sabbath was made for all men, and we need its blessing.—La Presse, Paris.
