

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Friends:

May the grace of God, the love of Christ and the abiding presence of the Holy Ghost, so enrapture, inspire and illuminate you, that the express image of Christ may be exemplified in your lives.

God's power and glory has been manifested in our midst this winter. Rev. John E. Hewson, of Indianapolis, Ind., came with us on March 12th, staying until April 1st. Brother Hewson is a mighty exponent of Holiness. He is a man of strong personality, forceful, fearless in his preaching, a man without fads, and eminently scriptural in his teaching. Yet, a man might be a great exponent of scripture, a man of prayer and filled with all the fulness of God, and see but little results. A revival never comes in with an evangelist; neither does an evangelist carry revivals with him. A revival is not preached down or worked up, it is brought by prayer and co-operation. A revival is God-given, when God's people are of one accord, which melts the hearts of sinners, and people are brought to God. God blessed our efforts and labors. Upwards of sixty came through the altars for pardon, reclamation and sanctification; eleven were baptized, and seven united with the church; we expect others to join us later.

I feel that God has a strong army here at Seal Cove, who have donned the uniform and put on the whole armor of God. They are marching forward with Jesus Christ as their leader and the Holy Ghost as their instructor. They have but one main aim in life, and that is to force back the powers of darkness and to help build up Christ's kingdom.

There are many zealous pilgrims
Wrecked upon the shores of time,
Just because they failed to follow
In the Saviour's steps sublime.

Some have left the world's allurements,
To follow Jesus all the way;
But, because of disappointment,
They have failed and gone astray.

We must ever look to Jesus,
With our eyes upon the cross;
Losing sight of earth's attractions,
Counting all things else but loss.

Christ is standing to receive us,
Over on the other shore;
Saying, "Come, blest of my Father,
Thou shalt never suffer more."

I am glad for God's great plan of redemption, such that will take man out of sin and take sin out of man, and will equip him to be a conqueror and victor while here below. I am convinced that, if those who have received Christ in this last dispensation, had stood true, there would need but little preaching to win the world for Christ. May God help us to leave footprints on the sands of time, that will lead someone to the fountain of living waters.

Yours, hid in Christ,
C. R. HAGERMAN.

Dear Highway:

I would like to express my thanks through you to the church people and pastors of St. John, Seal Cove, North Head and Beals for their kind offerings of love to me at this time in my affliction. These people have showed their love to us for which we sincerely thank them.

I pray that the blessing of God may rest upon and richly reward them.

REV. T. W. MOSES.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Just a few lines to the Highway. I praise God for the good old Holiness way. I sought and found it over thirty years ago and it is as real to me today as ever it was. I must shout glory for I feel it in my soul. All praise to my dear Saviour for what He has brought me through all these years, and I find His grace is sufficient for me; my strength is made perfect in weakness. I do love to read the Highway and to hear of the good work going on. God bless the brothers and sisters who are in the work of the Lord. My heart is full of love, yes holy love, to you dear Brother and Sister Wiggins. Pray for us here, we need it so much.

Your sister in Christ,
MRS. D. H. HAYES.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

You will be surprised no doubt to get a line from me here in the Sunny South, so called. It is sunny at times it is true, but just now it is everything else, cloudy and cold.

Columbia is a beautiful city with well laid out streets, wide with asphalt pavements and cement sidewalks. The trees are well leaved with blossoms also.

The churches are numerous, including all denominations, except Unitarians. They are more liberal and freer in their church worship than those in the North. The most striking events since I came here was the Billy Sunday campaign—he is a wonderful speaker and drew the crowds. Can't say that I was in favor of the methods; for example, the invitation was to come forward, shake hands and sign a card. It is reported that approximately 1700 struck the trail. His next field of labor is Louisville, Ky. Since the close of the campaign the various churches have been holding revival services, and meeting with considerable success in the same way.

We may not be here very much longer as we expect to visit Virginia ere long. How long we will remain there cannot say at present.

Yours in Him,
G. N. MINER.

Dear Brethren in Christ:

A word from us today. Our folks have been sick, but are some better. I am, at present, assisting Brother Dow at Marysville. The church at St. John held their business meeting and gave me a call to stay as pastor, but I have decided not to do so. I am open now for work wherever the Lord may lead, whether pastoral or evangelistic. We had some gracious meetings at St. John. A number have been saved and some backsliders reclaimed and twelve taken into the church this winter. This finds me in fair health and looking to God for victory.

C. S. HILYARD.

April 7th.

Dear Highway:

I will just add my testimony. I am glad for a salvation that can make old things pass away and make all things new in my life. I praise God for the deep settled joy in my soul. I am having a real good time in the Lord and God is surely blessing me and revealing more light. I mean by the grace of God to stand upon his promises. Glad He saves and sanctifies, and the past is all under the blood.

Your sister in Christ,
MRS. SIDNEY E. MORAN.

Brother Wiggins:

I am enclosing money order for my renewal for the Highway. We enjoy it very much.

My testimony is "Jesus is very precious to me. I enjoy his blessed fellowship. He is the fairest of ten thousand to my soul. Praise his precious name.

MRS. ESTEN L. BEAL.

THE ECHO.

"You always know what an echo will do,
Whatever you say it sends back to you;
If you speak gently with voice low and sweet,

The echo your words and tone will repeat.

"If your words are cross and your voice is shrill

The answering voice sounds crosser still;

Send a pleasant call with might and main,
You will hear a happy shout again.

"When we are happy and cheery and bright,

The world around us is sure to get right.

We must be careful of voice and word,
For they come back—as life's echo is heard."

Selected.

"If you know that your all is on the altar, but there is no seeming response in the soul, beat off the vultures of doubt by asserting an active faith, and God will answer, accepting your sacrifice and cleansing your heart."
