

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The Farmer Evangelist.

Petitcodiac, Dec. 5—Evangelist Foster, who has been conducting a three weeks' evangelistic campaign in this place, left this morning for St. John. During Mr. Foster's sojourn here he made many warm friends, and through his efforts between fifty and sixty decided to live a new life, and this whole place has reaped the benefit of Evangelist Foster's visit.—Petitcodiac Notes.

Brother Foster visited Moncton Dec. 1st and preached Saturday evening and Sunday morning, Dec. 2nd, in the Reformed Baptist Church. The Church was well filled and all enjoyed Brother Foster's sermons and were glad to meet him again.

The services in the Moncton Church are good and a good interest is manifested in the church and Sunday school.—S.A.B.

Rev. I. M. Kierstead paid a visit to Houlton lately, getting her eye glasses changed and taking osteopathic treatment for a short time. She is now home feeling some better.

The church services at Royalton are good, though the congregations are not so large as formerly, because of several leaving to get work in other places.

Brother Kierstead held a service at Lower Knoxford on Sunday, the 2nd inst., and had a real good meeting.

We are glad to learn that the quarterly meeting held at Lower Brighton was a good one with good attendance all through.

NOTE.

Will those who sent checks on Banks in New Brunswick please see that they are stamped as also add 15 cents to the amount as the banks here charge us that amount to cash them.

We need not worry about God's being on our side if we are on God's side.

PERSONALS.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. L. T. Sabine, who went to the hospital for an operation, has returned to her home and is doing fairly well and is looking forward for better health. She much appreciated the kindness of friends who called on her while in the hospital.

Eugene Kierstead is acting as clerk in a store in Fredericton for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bordie Burke, of Upper Royalton, and members of the Church at Royalton, were made to rejoice by the arrival in their home of a fine baby boy several weeks ago. They call him Sheldon.

Brother William Benson, of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, who has been a patient in the hospital at Calais, Me., spent a few days with Rev. S. H. and Mrs. Clark at the parsonage.

Mr. Arthur Cook, of Brazil Lake, N. S., was also a welcome visitor at the parsonage at Calais lately.

Sister S. H. Shaw, of Hartland celebrated her eighty-first birthday by attending the quarterly meeting at Lower Brighton on Sunday, the 9th inst., which she greatly enjoyed and all were delighted to have her with them and find her so well in body and soul. May she live to enjoy a number more.

Dear Highway:

We were much surprised by an invitation to spend the evening of Nov. 23rd with our sister, Mrs. Fawcett, at Norton-dale. On our arrival we were cordially welcomed by a number of friends of the community, and other people of the place had gathered in and continued to do so until about twenty-five were present. The evening was pleasantly spent in chatting and singing after which a very delicious luncheon was served by the ladies present. As these people plan to take good care of their pastor, they presented us after luncheon with a donation of twenty-five dollars and fifty-five cents cash, and household provisions to the extent of about ten dollars, making a total of about thirty-five dollars. Prayer was offered after which we departed to our various homes. We do heartily thank these dear people for this hospitality and generosity.

These people seem to appreciate the gospel and even when people in other parts of the field on a rainy Sunday morning are afraid to assemble at God's house for worship, these people come through the rain and mud. So few people these days will put forth any effort to get to the house of prayer, when it is a little stormy. But it matters not how bad the roads or how stormy the weather if the devil has a spree on, the same people who could not get to the worship of God will attend the devil's play—parties, social functions, and all sorts of other non-sensical gymnastics and programmes. God help us holiness people to get our eyes open.

The thing I see and feel the need of is of is the christianizing of christianity.

We love to labor with the people of this field. May God bless them!

Yours for Holy Fire and Zeal,

S. A. MULLEN.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

Just a few lines tonight from Waltham, Mass. It has been quite a long time since I write to your paper, but God has been abundantly blessing me all the while. We are getting along quite well at present. The fire is still burning on the altar of our hearts. We are burdened for a lost city like Waltham. Although small in number we are pressing the battle against sin. We have called a pastor, Rev. C. P. Lanpher, and we like him fine. He is a straight Holy Ghost preacher of the Wesley type. He does not round the corners to suit the people, but preaches the whole truth. We are expecting to put on a campaign for souls during the coming winter if we can get a place suitable. Please pray that God will touch some of the preachers' hearts in this city that they will let us have their church for a meeting. God is able. He will stand by the cause of Holiness. Praise his name! We are going out to Needham to hold a cottage meeting at Brother Asa Mullins. We may give them two meetings a week if we can get a place to worship. This seems to be the hardest problem that confronts us in starting a work in a city, to get a proper place for worship as the lodges have about every place filled. Brethren we need your prayers for a good old fashioned revival of salvation in this self-righteous city of Waltham where the lodge has the pre-eminence instead of Christ. I pity these poor ignorant people who are being made to believe a lie.

We do not have very large crowds, but the services are marked with conviction. We had with us a few weeks ago our general superintendent from California, Dr. John Goodwin. He told how the church of the Nazarene had spread out and enlarged and how God had blessed it these last fifteen years. It truly was marvellous how God has blessed it. The churches of the Nazarene are truly a lively bunch of people; preaching full salvation and freedom from all sin and are looking for the appearance of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ at any moment. John Gibson says, "Show him a better bunch of people on God's earth and he will join them." Praise the Lord!

Enclosed find my renewal for the Highway. I love it very much. I am always anxious to get it for it seems just like a letter from home.

Let us each send in our offering to this Fund.
