

SECOND DISTRICT QUARTERLY MEETING.

The second district quarterly meeting convened with the church at Moncton, Jan. 11th. The pastors present were Revs. A. H. Trafton, Norton; C. S. Hilyard, St. John; W. W. Howe, St. John; S. A. Baker, Moncton, and H. C. Archer. Delegates, Mrs. A. H. Trafton, C. L. Murphy, Norton, Mrs. F. D. Foley, Mrs. G. S. Cosman, B. A. McQuarrie, St. John; Mrs. W. Lewis, Mrs. S. N. Grass, Moncton; P. L. Cosman, Springhill, N. S.; Oliver Trites and Miss Beatrice, Lutz Mountain.

Rev. H. C. Archer preached on Thursday evening, the 11th. Rev. A. H. Trafton preached Friday afternoon, and Rev. C. S. Hilyard preached in the evening. On account of a great storm no meetings were held on Saturday.

On Sunday, the 14th inst., Rev. H. C. Archer led the love feast at 10 a. m. Rev. A. H. Trafton preached at 11 a. m. The regular S. S. Session was held at 2.30 p. m. Rev. W. W. Howe preached at 3.30 p. m. and Rev. C. S. Hilyard at 7 p. m. The services were well attended considering the state of the weather and roads. The preaching by all the ministers was good and was very helpful, and was much enjoyed by all present, and several were at the altar for prayer during the services, and were much helped. The visitors expressed themselves as having enjoyed the services and the fellowship during the services.

On account of the big storm on Saturday the business meeting was held Monday at 10 o'clock.

The officers elected were S. A. Baker, President; Mrs. S. A. Baker, Secretary; A. K. MacCallum, Treasurer; Rev. H. C. Archer, Highway Agent.

Devotional Committee—Noah E. Hicks, Stephen Tuck, Mrs. G. S. Cosman.

During the business meeting Rev. H. C. Archer acted as secretary pro tem. The visitors were invited to take part in the session and the reports from St. John, Moncton and Norton churches were read, and were encouraging. A vote of thanks was moved by C. L. Murphy to the Moncton Church for their entertainment of the quarterly meeting delegates and pastors. The need of home mission work on the district was taken up and a short debate followed.

MRS. S. A. BAKER, Secretary.

The following notes were sayings of those who preached, or suggested by them:

"Not a sinner saved by grace, but a sinner saved from being a sinner."

"Every man knows what his upsetting sin is."

"A partial breaking up of the ground, then left, strengthens the things left it."

"Convictions resisted will weaken us, convictions that are welcomed and yielded to strengthen."

Who knows best—"I had the pain, and went to the physician, and he cured me; one believes, I know."

"Our life is made up of sensations. We see, we hear, we feel."

"God destined man to conformity to the image of God."

"People look at religion as a joke, or a good notion. One man said: I was a drunk, my children were in rags; I had no home, and was in a bad condition, but I took this notion, now I have a home, my wife and family are clothed, I find it a good notion."

"The Church of Christ is instituted for no other purpose than to save men."

"You are your creed."

"Good resolutions don't move you to God, but you must be changed."

"Men may get by here, but they can't get by there."

"Not the gifts, but grace only, will take you to glory."

"One of the greatest evidences that you have the Holy Ghost, is not what you can say, but what you refrain from saying."

"We don't need more gifts. We need more grace."

"Righteousness is the state of being fully right; this means something to be fully right."

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Highway:

Just a few lines at this time to let you know we are still on the victory side. The blessed Holy Ghost is a great comforter to me at this time of life. God blessed us at the quarterly meeting at Beals. Just arrived home before another big snow storm set in. We are banked in with snow on every hand, but I am learning to be content under all conditions, for God hath said, "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee, the Lord preserveth all them that love him, but all the wicked will He destroy."

T. W. MOSES.

Dear Readers of the Highway:

No doubt at least some of you would be interested to know a little about our special meetings held recently. We began as you already know, December 3rd and continued over four Sundays. We surely had some great meetings in that God was manifestly present to bless His own truth. And while many were endeared to the evangelist, Brother Gouthey, I am sure it was because of the clear definite manner in which he presented the Bible doctrines of Holiness, and insisted that the New Birth is the cure for the sin business, and the only way to get rid of the carnal nature was over the hill of Calvary.

And many who were not in sympathy with holiness as an experience in this life were convinced and had to acknowledge they had never seen it that way before. In consequence, our church and the cause of second blessing holiness got a boost that it will never get over. As to results, some were helped definitely both for pardon and purity; but prejudice and associations have and always will hinder people from being spiritually what they ought to be.

Yours, E. W. LESTER.

Dear Highway:

It now becomes my privilege to report the meetings we have just closed here in this town.

We were able to secure the help of Brother Lee Good, of Monticello, Maine, and began special meetings Dec. 3rd, 1922. The services continued over seven weeks and eight Sundays. As the time went on the interest increased until last night an audience of about nine hundred or more listened to the speaker with close attention. On Jan. 21st, the afternoon and evening meetings were held in Hacker's Hall. Yesterday the afternoon and evening meetings were held in Libby's Rink.

Now as to the results of the meetings, we shall never be able to measure the good done, while we are here; eternity alone will reveal that. About one hundred and thirty-five were forward to the altar in these services and thus far thirty have been baptized and nineteen have united with the Reformed Baptist Church. We expect many more to follow soon.

As yet I have not referred to the Evangelist. I am not going to say a lot of nice things about Brother Good, for he is not seeking for that. He is a man, and a human man. He has preached genuine Reformed Baptist doctrine from the start to the finish. If he has anything else we don't know anything about it for we have not heard it while he has been here.

Brother Good stands four square on the doctrines of Sanctification and the baptism of the Holy Spirit. He has demonstrated the spirit of that experience amongst us. Brother Good now has a number of places calling for him, and if any of our brethren want a co-helper for a meeting, Brother Good will do you good, if you can get him. Jesus is with us and the blood sanctifies me now.

F. T. WRIGHT, Pastor.

Dear Highway:

During the last three weeks death has entered the homes of three of our families. Mrs. Leonard Brooks passed away on the night of the 12th, and was buried on the 15th. Funeral was conducted by Rev. P. J. Trafton, her former pastor at Lower Brighton, assisted by the writer. Interment at Lower Brighton. Mrs. Louisa Nevers, wife of F. W. Nevers, passed away on the 13th. The funeral was held at the home on the 16th, conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. E. W. Lester. Interment at the Methodist cemetery, Woodstock, N. B.

Sister Nevers was a member of the Church here, and died in the triumph of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Aged 74 years.

Richard L. Allingham passed away on the evening of the 22nd. He leaves to mourn their loss the widow, Mrs. Lucy Allingham, five sons: Allison, of Buffalo, N. Y.; William, of Montreal; Earl, of Vancouver, B. C.; Harry, of Vanguard, Alta., and Ralph, of Kroonstadt, South Africa, and three daughters, Mrs. Clark, of Winnipeg; Jennie, of Morrisville, Vt., U. S. A., and Mrs. Charlotte King, of Woodstock. The funeral was held at the home on the 25th conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. F. S. Todd (United Baptist). The floral tributes spoke of the high esteem in which the deceased was held by neighbors and friends. The deceased left a testimony of faith in Christ obtained during the recent revival meetings conducted by Evangelist Foster in Woodstock. Interment was made in the Methodist cemetery, Woodstock. To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathies and prayers.

Yours in Him, L. J. ALLEY.
