

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We are pleased to learn of the success of the special services at Fort Fairfield.

The special services at Perth, where Rev. P. J. Trafton has been assisting Rev. H. S. Mullen, the pastor, have been very successful. Thus far over twenty-five have been at the altar for salvation and others are coming.

The Editor of the Highway supplied three Sunday for Pastor P. J. Trafton at Fredericton, while he has been helping Pastor Mullen at Perth.

Rev. J. H. Coy reports that he has fairly good health of late and has taken an agency for Evangelist Foster's Book of Sermons, and also Scripture Calendars, both of which he can supply for $2.25 to anyone wishing them. His address is 117 Albert street, Woodstock, N. B.

Rev. M. Ella Slipp, the pastor at Jonesport, Me., reports that the storms have been very severe there, preventing pastoral calls; but they have excellent prayer services and have now special cottage meetings on Monday and Friday evenings besides the regular Wednesday evening service, which are resulting in a spiritual quickening among the people.

Rev. S. H. Clark, the pastor at Calais, Me., is being assisted in special services by Rev. Thomas Laite, of Lowell, Mass., who is a good preacher and worker, and the church is expecting a spiritual uplift from the Lord. The pastor requests prayer by the Highway readers. The services began Sunday, the 21st inst., and will continue over Sunday, Feb. 4th.

Our Brother Clark has been bereft of his loving brother, Leverett W., lately, whom he will greatly miss, as he was a very helpful and grand good brother and friend to the cause of Holiness. We deeply sympathize with Brother Clark in his loss.

Rev. H. S. Dow, pastor at Marysville, is getting settled in his pastorate and finding the people very kind. In spiritual things there is an increase. The interest in Sunday School work is increasing. There were 90 present on Sunday, the 14th inst. Sister Dow has gathered a class of 16 or 18 girls who did not attend any school regularly in the town.

The Editor spent seventeen days in Fredericton supplying for Pastor P. J. Trafton, and was present at the union services during the "Week of Prayer" and gave an address in the George Street Baptist Church on Monday evening, Jan. 8th, and preached in the Methodist Church Sunday morning, the 14th inst. He returned to Moncton on Monday, the 22nd inst.

Rev. H. C. Archer preached for Pastor Baker Sunday evening, 21st inst.

Spurgeon says: "One bright benison which private prayer brings down upon the ministry is an indescribable and imitable something—an unction from the Holy One. If the anointing which we bear come not from the Lord of hosts, we are deceivers, since only in prayer can we obtain it. Let us continue instant, constant, fervent in supplication till it is wet with the dew of heaven."

PERSONALS.

We notice in the Carleton Observer, which is printed in Hartland, N. B., the following kindly reference to Brother Geo. G. Gray, a deacon of the Hartland Reformed Baptist Church:

"The editor enjoyed the usual New Year's call from the venerable George G. Gray, who has not failed to make a visit on the first day of the year for a long period. He pays his subscription on that day—setting a most worthy example for others—and greets the editor with words of cheer and wisdom and knowledge gained through the nearly 86 years of experience in this world. Mr. Gray came to the office without the aid of a cane, and unencumbered by glasses his kindly eyes met those of the editor; his voice is firm, his hearing acute, his heart is young—his courageous spirit much to be envied by many who are scores of years his junior. The Observer office is always brighter and better for the New Year visit of Mr. Grey."

Miss Lilian Wiggins, of Central Norton, a niece of the editor, is in training for a nurse, in Newport Hospital, Rhode Island.

Miss Clara Boyer, of Hartland, has gone to New York to train for a nurse in a Hospital there.

SUCCESSFUL EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN AT FORT FAIRFIELD, ME.

On Sunday, Dec. 3, 1922, our pastor, Rev. F. T. Wright, assisted by Brother Lee Good, of Monticello, as evangelist opened a series of meetings in our church. We had all been praying that God would send the right man to Fort Fairfield along with a "real old time revival," and according to His promise He has answered prayer.

On Monday evening of this week we held the closing service and it truly was a love feast; scores of the new converts reporting victory.

Brother Good came to us filled with Holy Ghost Power and his heart searching messages on sin and its results along with those on the love of Christ and what the precious blood of Jesus could do for a sin-sick soul brought mighty conviction to many people. Sin-hardened backsliders were reclaimed, many who had never known Christ before, sought and found Him to the satisfaction of their hearts.

About 140 precious souls were born into the kingdom, 61 found the experience of "Entire Sanctification" as a second definite work of grace and so far twenty-nine have followed in the ordinance of Baptism and "the end is not yet, praise the Lord."

At the close of the altar call Monday evening a "Praying Band" was organized with Gene Kimball President, Daniel Hilyard Vice President, Mildred Todd Secretary, and Pearl Nightingale Treasurer. Three of these officers are among the new workers, saved and sanctified by the Blood of Jesus, and with a band of ninety members we are trusting God for victory in the future.

It is truly wonderful how God will use a man when he gets to preaching old-time full salvation sermons on Bible lines.

Brother Good has won his way into the hearts of many in Fort Fairfield by his faithful service among us during the past seven weeks, not for money, but his purpose was to help men and women to find Jesus. May God's richest blessing go with him in the future wherever his work may be.

Brother Havelock Knox, of Caribou, a result of the old Fort Fairfield Praying Band, was with us part of the time during the recent campaign at Fort Fairfield, leading in the song service and assisting in the altar work. He still has the shout of victory.—Mrs. C. H. Pearce.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We have learned that those who write to our missionaries in Africa have not been informed of the increase in postage required to send letters there, and by so doing cause our beloved missionaries to pay double postage. Beloved, remember that the postage to British South Africa is four cents (not three) for the first ounce, and three cents for each additional ounce. An ordinary letter generally weighs about an ounce or less.

Please see that you put on the right amount.

BE WITH ME, LORD.

Through every minute of this day
Be with me, Lord!
Through every day of all this week
Be with me, Lord!
Through every week of all this year
Be with me, Lord!
Through all the years of all this life
Be with me, Lord!
So shall the days and weeks and years
Be threaded on a golden cord,
And all draw on with sweet accord
Unto thy fulness Lord;
That so, when time is past,
By grace I may at last
Be with thee, Lord!
