

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. L. T. Sabine, pastor of the Port Maitland Circuit, expects to begin special services at Sandford on Sunday, the 18th inst., assisted by Rev. W. W. Howe.

Rev. M. Ella Slipp, pastor at Grey's Mills, visited her uncle, Mr. Chas. Slipp, of Lower Cambridge, N. B., Nov. 10th, and preached at Upper Jemseg Sunday morning, the 11th, and at Lower Cambridge in the evening.

The services in St. John Church are well attended and much conviction is upon the congregations. A Praying Band of 27 members has been organized with more to follow. The pastor, Brother L. Sears, is the leader, and is doing much to help on in the work.

Rev. H. C. Archer is now about settled in his new home as pastor of the North Head Church, Grand Manan, and busy as he always was. He finds the work encouraging. We trust that he will have abundant success.

The revival at Woodstock speaks for itself.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead, pastor at Royalton, supplied for Rev. H. S. Mullen at Perth and Four Falls Sunday, Nov. 4th. Brother Mullen was down to Beals assisting Rev. H. C. Mullen in special services.

The Knoxford Praying Band had charge of the services at Royalton during Brother Keirstead's absence, and had an excellent time.

PERSONALS.

The Highway Editor had a very pleasant visit from Nov. 6th to the 8th to his old home in Central Norton, Kings Co., N. B. He found all well, except his youngest brother living, who met with quite a serious accident.

Mrs. H. Smith Dow, of Marysville, N. B., and Mrs. Handford McDonald, of South Devon, N. B., were the guests of the Highway Editor and Mrs. Wiggins from Nov. 7th to the 9th. They made some calls on other friends. Their visit was greatly enjoyed and we were sorry that they could not remain longer with us.

A united Thanksgiving service was held in Moncton on Monday, Nov. 12th, Thanksgiving Day, in the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church of the city. Rev. J. Austin Huntley, D.D., pastor of the First Baptist Church of the city, gave the address. The church was filled with a very appreciative audience. The hymns and prayers were appropriate. A collection was taken in aid of the Bible Society.

We were sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. J. J. Daye, of Woodstock, N. B., but we are glad to learn that she is making good progress towards recovery.

HAVE YOU RENEWED?

Have you renewed your subscription to the Highway? The date on the name tab shows how you stand on our list.

This is a good time of year to send in your renewal.

We very heartily thank those who have renewed.

We are always ready to receive new subscriptions also.

MARRIED.

Hilyard-Emery.

Miss Mae Elvira Emery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Emery, of Fort Fairfield, and Mr. Daniel Thomas Hilyard, of Fort Fairfield, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Hilyard, of Island Falls, were married Thursday afternoon, October 25th, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of about seventy-five relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Hilyard, the bridegroom's father, the single-ring service being used. An artistic arch of evergreen and white flowers had been built on the front veranda, where the wedding took place. The wedding march Narcissus was nicely rendered by Miss Loana Spearin.

The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of white crepe, and wore a bandeau of pearls in her hair. She carried about a bouquet of white carnations and maidenhair fern.

Miss Helen Emery, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a dress of green silk, and carried pink carnations.

The bridegroom and the best man, Kenneth Cogswell, wore navy blue suits.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, when the guests examined the numerous beautiful presents, among which were silverware, linen, pyrex, bedding, money, also a fine bedroom suite from the bride's father. A light lunch was daintily served.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Hilyard, Island Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Harris Ames, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Good, Monticello; Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Emery, Washburn; and Leon McCrea, Perth, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilyard soon after the wedding started for Portage Lake for a few days. They also expected to visit in Island Falls, being gone from Fort Fairfield about a week. Upon their return they will for a time make their home with Mrs. L. S. Kinney.

Mrs. Hilyard is a graduate of the Fort Fairfield High School, class of 1923. She is a pleasant and highly esteemed young woman. Mr. Hilyard is an industrious young farmer. He has been employed for the past two years on the farm of L. S. Kinney, where he has been the efficient manager for more than a year and a half.

A great many well merited friends send their kindest wishes after Mr. and Mrs. Hilyard for a useful and very happy life together.

STUDENTS' FUND.

We wish again to bring before you the interests of our young men who are preparing for the ministry. We trust that our people, when laying aside their tenth, will make a generous appropriation to the Students' Fund.
