

CORRESPONDENCE.

KEEP MARCHING ON.

What though the storm-clouds oft may rise Above thy way?
 Keep marching on, before thine eyes
 The skies so gray;
 Will brighten soon to rainbow hues And thou shalt see Through rifted clouds, love's wider views, And vistas free.

Art worn with burdens hard to bear, Hope's light grown dim?
 Keep marching on, God knows thy care, Share it with him;
 Eyes forward move, though hard and slow
 The march may be,
 Thou'rt not alone for He will go Each step with thee.

Keep marching on through cloud and sun, Each day will bring Some hard task to its close, well done And hope will spring
 With each care vanished, stronger, aye, Till all are gone,
 Lost in the light of perfect day—Keep marching on.

MRS. A. H.

To the Dear Readers of the Highway: Let us keep marching on in the King's Highway of Holiness, until Jesus comes to gather up his jewels and then we will all get home. What a glorious day that will be.

MRS. A. H.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Just a word from one who is rejoicing in a full and free salvation, as a result of a full surrender to God of all I have and ever expect to have or be. I am saved and sanctified as a second definite work of grace in the heart by faith and by the help of God I am going to live it and teach it and tell it as long as I live for the glory of God and benefit and salvation of souls who know not of this wonderful Saviour. Glory to God for deliverance from the old in-born sin that did so easily upset me and bring me into bondage. That old carnal nature that is not subject to the law of God neither can be. Glory to God there is power in the precious blood of Christ to cleanse our heart and set us free. Glory to his name! I have been made one with him according to Heb. 2:11, "For both he which sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren."

H. J. BENSON.

Dear Highway:

We are glad to report victory in Woodstock Church. It has been a very hard winter; and we have been affected much by sickness and death, but now that the weather is warmer we can see a decided increase in interest and attendance. Our services are seasons of refreshing and blessing. We expect to make some additions to our church membership in the near future. Some are looking our way.
 We have received some lasting benefit from the special meetings held last fall by the Farmer Evangelist, Brother Foster.

L. J. ALLEY.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Please find enclosed $2.00 in Post Office Order for King's Highway. The paper is very dear to me as it is my letter from my old friends. It reminds me that one by one they are gathering home. We are always anxious to read the missionary letters.

FREEDOM FROM WORRY.

By George Mueller.

Phil 4:6-7.

"Be careful for nothing;" that is, "Be anxious about nothing," no anxiety ought to be found in the believer. Great, many, and varied, may be our trials, our afflictions, our difficulties, and yet there should be no anxiety under any circumstances, because we have a Father in heaven who is almighty, who loves His children as He loves His only begotten Son, and whose very joy and delight it is to succor and help them at all time and under all circumstances.

Therefore anxiety should not be found in the children of God, but we should attend to the exhortation given us in this verse: "Be anxious about nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God."

Here notice particularly the following points:

(1) "In everything," that is, not merely when the house is on fire, not merely when the beloved wife is dying, not merely when our children are on the brink of the grave, but in the smallest matters of life, bring everything before God, the little things, the very little things, what the world calls trifling things—everything—living in holy communion with our Heavenly Father, and with our precious Lord Jesus Christ, all day long. And when we awake at night, by a kind of spiritual instinct again turning to Him, and speaking to Him, and bringing our various little matters before Him in the sleepless night, the difficulties in connection with our family, our servants, our trade, our profession, whatever tries us in any way, speak to the Lord about it. And in like manner, our joys, our easy days, speak to the Lord about them, and ask Him to help.
 Ask Him to help regarding everything.

(2) "By prayer and supplication," taking the place of beggars, with earnestness, with perseverance, going on, and waiting, waiting on God.

(3) "With thanksgiving." We should at all times lay a good foundation with thanksgiving. If everything else were wanting, this is always present, that He has saved us from hell. Then, that He has given us His Holy Word—His only begotten Son, His choicest gift—and the Holy Spirit. And therefore we have always abundant reason for thanksgiving. Oh, let us aim at this!

What is the result of this?

"And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." We shall have the peace of God. And this is so great a blessing, so real a blessing, so precious a blessing, that it must be known experimentally to be entered into, for it passeth understanding. Oh, the peace of God, how exceedingly precious this blessing.

See therefore how we get this peace of God, through attending to this exhortation, that in everything, in the most minute affairs of life, we let our requests, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, be known unto God. And further, that we seek to the utmost to avoid anxiety. Oh, let us lay these things to heart, and the result will be, if we habitually walk in this spirit, we shall far more abundantly glorify God, than as yet we have done.—Sel.

TEN REASONS WHY EVERY CHRIS-TIAN HOME SHOULD HAVE A FAMILY ALTAR.

1. Because it will send you forth to the daily task with a cheerful heart, stronger for the work, truer to duty, and determined in whatever is done therein to glorify God.

2. Because it will give you strength to meet the discouragements, the disappointments, the unexpected adversities, and sometimes the blighted hopes that may fall to your lot.

3. Because it will make you conscious throughout the day of the attending presence of an unseen, divine One, who will bring you through more than conqueror over every unholy thought or thing that rises up against you.

4. Because it will sweeten home life and enrich home relationship, as nothing else can do.

5. Because it will resolve all misunderstandings and relieve all the friction that sometimes intrude into the sacred precincts of family life.

6. Because it will hold as nothing else the boys and girls when they have gone out from under the parental roof and so determine very largely the eternal salvation of your children.

7. Because it will exert a helpful, hallowed influence over those who may at any time be guests within the home.

8. Because it will enforce as nothing else can do the work of your pastor in pulpit and pew, and stimulate the life of your church in its every activity.

9. Because it will furnish an example and a stimulus to other homes for the same kind of life and service and devotion to God.

10. Because the Word of God requires it, and in thus obeying God we honor Him who is the giver of all good and the source of all blessing.—William Edward Biederwolf, in the Evangelical.

We should accustom the mind to keep the best company by introducing it only to the best books.—Sydney Smith.

"By tarrying for the Holy Ghost the early Church did more in one morning than they had done in all their lives before."

If some women tried as hard to be up to date in their Christian life as they do in their clothes they would not have to spend so much money for so few clothes.
