

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. Hartley E. Mullen, the pastor at North Head, Grand Manan, has been called to take the Seal Cove pastorate and will begin his work there after Beulah Camp Meeting. He will be missed at North Head as his pastorate there has been successful.

Rev. L. J. Alley says that the Woodstock Church is enjoying seasons of refreshing in all their services, and occasionally some one finds his way to God; and he is taking courage and looking forward to a great meeting at Beulah this year.

Rev. A. C. Mullin, pastor at Beals, Me., in a note says: "We are all well. I am enjoying the blessing of God upon my soul and he helps me in my preaching. Our services are good as also the attendance." He also says that he has more calls for rooms in the Riverview Dormitory, which is in his care, than he can fill, as several who had rooms in this Dormitory last year had engaged rooms ahead for this year, before they left.

Sister M. Ella Slipp, pastor at Jones port, Me., reports that the work there is going very well. There is a good spirit in the services, some are requesting prayer for salvation and one of the young men has been reclaimed. She has visited her uncle and aunt lately at Swampscott, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred A. Slipp, who had lately lost their only daughter by pneumonia, and that while there her uncle took pneumonia also and died, only three weeks and two days after his daughter. It was very sad and she was glad to be of some comfort to the bereaved, believing the Lord sent her there at this time of trouble.

Rev. E. W. Lester is indeed a very busy man as he has quite a large field. We are glad to learn that he is well and the meetings on his field are good.

Rev. W. W. Howe preached at Meductic on the 27th inst. He also says that the Hotel Committee has engaged all the waitresses for Beulah that they need.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer, who went quite early to the camp grounds, later made a visit to their old circuit at Millville. Brother Archer preached at Maple Ridge and Millville April 29th and on Sunday, May 6th, at Maple Ridge, Upper Hainesville and Millville. On returning after the flood in the St. John River, they found that the water had flooded the lower parts of the shore at Beulah, bringing logs and drift material. After the Camp Meeting Brother Archer will be open for engagement to any field or church who desires his services. He is now busy looking after some needed repairs at the Hotel and Riverview Dormitory.

ALLIANCE COMMITTEES.

We hope that the brethren who are to report at Alliance this year will have their reports ready and not delay the business.

Beloved, we only have a few days for business, let us be ready and thus get through our business before the Camp Meeting begins.

PERSONALS.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., editor and business manager of the King's Highway, the organ of the Reformed Baptist denomination, now printed in Moncton, is in town to attend the closing exercises of the University of which he is a graduate of 1874.—Fredericton Mail, May 15th.

Miss Jessie Wilcox, of Grand Manan, N. B., who has been in poor health, and has been with her sister, Miss Claire Wilcox, who is teaching in Calgary, has regained her health. Sister Claire expects to accompany her sister to the Pacific coast before she returns home.—S. A. B.

Miss Claire Wilcox, a teacher in Calgary, Alta., in sending her renewal says, "I enjoy reading the Highway very much as it helps me to keep in touch with the work in the homeland as also in the foreign field."

Mrs. J. E. Coates says she looks forward to getting the Highway as she loves to read its clean pages.

Miss Sarah Tedlie, who for a long time was Western Union telegraph operator at Hartland, has successfully passed her probationary period at the General Public Hospital at St. John, leading a class of seven.

God continues to comfort the aged and infirm of his people. A letter from one of them, Brother A. G. Clark, of Fredericton, reports that he is able to rejoice in the Lord, despite of his poor sight and affliction of rheumatism. The souls of the faithful can rise above their afflictions, with a forward look to a glorious future.—S. A. B.

A few evenings before his departure for Detroit, friends of Claude MacMullin to the number of 35 surprised him by gathering at his home to spend a pleasant evening and to wish him Godspeed on his journey, and the best of success in his work in the American city. A program of readings, duets and singing made the evening pleasant, and as much enjoyable as anything else were the "eats" brought by the visitors. Mr. MacMullin was almost abashed by the thoughtfulness of his friends and was deeply touched by their kindly expression of good will.—Carleton Observer, Hartland, N. B.

Sister James Keaver, of Sackville, visited Moncton a few days ago. We were delighted to have her call at our home. While here she presented Mrs. Baker with a nice all wool blanket which will serve in cold nights at Beulah during the summer.—S. A. B.

The Editor and his wife had a very pleasant call from Mrs. Elmer King and son, Eugene, of St. John, on the 21st inst. Miss Gladys Short, of Brown's Flats, accompanied them. We were very glad to entertain them for a few hours.

Sister Frizzle, of Truro, says of the misisonaries: "I read the Highway with interest, and am sure they (the missionaries) are laying a good foundation for much good in the future. I am a shut in, but not a shut out from the joy of the Lord, so I manage to keep fairly happy, but I do miss the worshippers."—S. A. B.

We are very much pleased to learn that Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Storey and daughter, Lueslie, of Norwalk, Calif., who visited their relatives and camp grounds last summer, are coming this summer also.

We were very sorry to learn of the serious accident to Brother and Sister Hamilton Seeley, of Inglewood, Calif., who were injured in an automobile accident March 6th. For a time it was doubtful if Sister Seeley would recover, as she was unconscious for quite a long while. They have not fully recovered yet. It was a mercy that they were not all killed, as another lady and a minister were with them in the auto. No bones were broken but they were all badly bruised. Let their friends not forget them in prayer. Brother and Sister Seeley have not forgotten the homeland nor the old denominational associations, but have been ever true to us.

We were sorry to notice the death of Rev. J. J. Colter, of Fredericton, N. B. He lived to a good old age, was a true and godly minister of the gospel. He was an old subscriber to the Highway and frequently visited our Camp Meetings at Beulah. He has gone home to an eternal rest. We deeply sympathize with Sister Colter in her loss.

We notice the announcement of a very interesting event, soon to take place in the church at Woodstock in connection with the marriage of the youngest daughter of Brother and Sister B. M. Colpitts, Miss Laura Merilla, to Mr. Chester LeRoy Seeley, of Fort Fairfield, Me.

Miss Grace Williams, teacher at East Brighton, spent the week end with friends in Lower Brighton.

As we go to press we learn that Brother Knight had passed away and was buried on Thursday, the 24th inst.

Brother Dow and family spent the 24th at his father's, Lower Woodstock.

Don't forget to examine the label on your Highway and renew, please.

ALLIANCE FUND.

Will the deacons of the several churches make an earnest effort to collect the "Alliance Fund," which is 25 cents from each member, as we will need it this year very much.

Will the pastors please urge the members to contribute, and if the deacons cannot attend to it or neglect it, will you not get some one to collect it.

Don't forget it, please.

THE SECRETARY.

SPECIAL.

Will the friends of the Highway respond liberally and those who have pledged meet their obligations, as we need over three hundred dollars to meet our indebtedness to the end of the year. Let us make a strong pull and go over the top.

REV. P. J. TRAFTON.

BEDDING FOR BEULAH.

The Rooms Committee need this year 25 pairs of sheets. A good chance for our sisters to give towards the cause, as also they need about 25 pillows. You can bring your sheets and pillows with you and leave them at the camp grounds as gifts to the cause.
