

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. H. C. Archer preached at Moncton on Sunday evening, the 7th inst. Brother Archer is open to assist in special services, or supply.

The special services in the Calais Church will begin on Sunday, the 21st inst. Brother Clark, the pastor, will be assisted by Rev. Thomas Laite, of Lowell, Mass., as evangelist. Brother Laite assisted Brother Clark in special services in Port Maitland and Sandford, N. S., in 1913. He is a strong preacher and very definite on the double cure for sin. Earnest prayer is requested for the success of the work in Calais.

A gracious revival is taking place in Fort Fairfield, where Brother F. T. Wright the pastor is assisted by Evangelist Lee Good. Brother Wright baptized four persons on Sunday, Dec. 24th.

Rev. P. J. Trafton went to Perth on the 6th inst. to assist Rev. H. S. Mullen in special services there. He will probably remain a few weeks. The Highway Editor will supply for Brother Trafton at Fredericton for a time.

The union services of the Week of Prayer held this year in Moncton were held in the Reformed Baptist Church.

The work at St. John is progressing quite favorably. Brother Hilyard is preaching some old-time, full salvation sermons, with great freedom and power. The church is coming up along true spiritual lines, and God's manifest presence is often in our midst. At our Sunday afternoon prayer meetings great seasons of refreshing and anointing are poured out upon those who wait upon Him in believing prayer. Also, our Tuesday evening holiness meetings are always seasons of great spiritual blessing to all. To God be all the glory!

PRESENTATION.

Through the Highway we wish to make mention of the kindness of the people shown to us at Christmas time. On Christmas Eve we were presented with a box of chocolates. To our surprise, when we opened it we found within an envelope containing $34.40, as a gift from the church and friends. We also received $11.00 from friends besides this, making a total of over forty dollars. We feel very grateful for all the gifts from friends, and thank God for the privilege of being with these dear people.

We still enjoy the Highway and find its pages ever interesting and full of good things. We ask God's people to remember us in prayer for the revival services we expect to have beginning Feb. 18th, with Rev. John E. Hewson as evangelist.

Wishing the Editor and all the readers of the Highway a Happy New Year.

MR. AND MRS. HARTLEY MULLEN.

There is no third choice: we must either believe that Jesus can save from all sin, inbred sin as well as actual transgressions, or we must believe that the Devil has more power than Christ. We are all extremists on this question, either we are extremists for Christ or we are extremists for the Devil.

PERSONALS.

At the Port Maitland R. B. parsonage on Wednesday evening, Jan. 3rd, after prayer meeting over thirty friends of Lic. L. J. Sears gathered and spent a few hours very pleasantly together, it being occasioned by the soon return of Brother Sears to school at Wollaston, Mass.

Mrs. Roxina Sabine spent the Christmas holidays with her son, Rev. L. T. Sabine, Port Maitland.

Brother Abram Thurston, Sandford, who is in his 94th year, underwent an operation on his face a few days ago. We are glad to report he is doing nicely and wish for his speedy recovery.

We are sorry to report Brother (Capt.) Joseph Eldridge, of Short Beach, still in poor health. Several months ago he was smitten with paralysis. He declares a good hope in the merits of Jesus his Lord.

Brother George MacCallum and wife spent Christmas at Grey's Mills with Brother S. H. and Sister Bradley and family.

Brother James Bradley, who is attending High School at Moncton, spent Christmas with his parents at Grey's Mills, N.B.

Miss Evelyn Rogers, daughter of Brother James and Mrs. Rogers, of Upper Woodstock, but formerly of Hartland, who is now a student nurse at Montreal, is in Hartland caring for her grandmother, Mrs. J. D. Shaw.

Miss Sarah Tedlie, who for a year or two has been the popular and obliging operator at the Western Union Telegraph Office at Hartland, has gone to St. John, where she enters the General Public Hospital to take a course in nursing.

Miss Agnes Belyea, who is teaching at Royalton, spent the Christmas holidays at her home in Hartland.

We learn that Brother Thomas, of North Head, Grand Manan, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Johnson (nee Joy Thomas) of Caribou, Me., Jan. 1st, on his 85th birthday. His daughter, Mrs. S. C. Page, is at Chattanooga, Tenn., with her daughter, Mrs. Lee.

SIXTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OF REV. B. AND MRS. COLPITTS.

December 31st was the sixtieth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. B. and Mrs. Colpitts. As that date came on Sunday they were "at home" to their friends on Saturday.

Kings being their native county, many cards and letters of congratulation were received from there. Friends also in Boston and St. John remembered them, and Rev. Dr. Patterson, of Winnipeg, sent his good wishes by wire.

Mrs. Colpitts is a daughter of the late John McLeod, of Portage. Mr. Colpitts' father was John Wesley Colpitts, of Bloomfield, Kings Co.

Of the four children born of this union three are living and were present, namely: Bertram, Mrs. H. D. Reid and Mrs. W. B. McLeod. There are sixteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The Editor and Mrs. Wiggins also join in congratulations to Brother and Sister Colpitts. Both had the pleasure of being present at their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

sary. Not many are privileged to walk together along the pathway of wedded life for sixty years. May the rich blessing of the Lord continue to rest upon them during the remainder of their journey of life.

MISSIONARY FUND.

Calais, Maine, Sunday School Offering .....	$20.00
Miss Grace Williams (Sterritt Sisters) .....	5.00
Mrs. W. H. Campbell (native worker) .....	6.25
Royalton Sunday School by Miss Helen Crawford .....	$11.50
George A. Rogers for (Sterritt Sisters) .....	10.00
Waterville Sunday School by Bessie E. Culberson .....	2.67
Mrs. Alice Harris (foreign) .....	2.50
S. A. BAKER,
Moncton, N. B.	Treasurer.

QUARTERLY MEETING.

The R. B. Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1 convened with the church at Woodstock on Dec. 7th. The message of the evening was brought by the Farmer Evangelist, Brother Foster, Friday afternoon. Rev. H. S. Mullen had charge of the service and Friday evening Rev. H. S. Dow spoke from Prov. 14:12.

On Saturday morning the greater part of the service was spent in prayer.

At the business session on Saturday afternoon the Roll Call of ministers showed the following brethren present: Revs. J. H. Coy, H. S. Mullen, E. W. Lester, L. J. Alley, P. J. Trafton, H. S. Dow, I. F. Keirstead and B. Colpitts.

Encouraging reports from several churches were read and several verbal reports were given by delegates.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the following officers being chosen, viz.—

Rev. L. J. Alley—President.
Carey Shaw—Secretary.
Rev. P. J. Trafton—Highway Agent.
H. London—Treasurer.

Revs. Gouthey and Foster were given seats in the Quarterly Meeting and both gave brief addresses which were much appreciated by those present.

The Devotional Committee, Rev. J. H. Coy, Mrs. Chester Culberson and Ziba Orser, reported as follows: Saturday 7.30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Gouthey; Love Feast 9.30 Sunday morning, Mrs. Chester Culberson; preaching at 11 o'clock by Rev. I. F. Keirstead; 3 o'clock Rev. Fred Foster, while Rev. P. J. Trafton brought the message in the evening.

An invitation from the church at Hartland to hold the next quarterly meeting there March 1, 1923, was accepted.

CAREY SHAW, Secretary.

The Devil is mighty, but Christ is almighty; sin is indescribably terrible both in its depths and in its consequences; but "The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin."

It is a reflection on God's power to say that He can not save from all sin and it is a charge against His goodness to say that He will not do so.