

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Perhaps the Highway readers will be interested to hear from Fort Fairfield Praying Band. I want to say that the Band is on the job, battling sin at every opportunity.

Since its organization last winter, the Band has travelled far and wide proclaiming the glad tidings of salvation. Nearly every Sunday, during the summer, we have held meetings at some place. During the latter part of the summer invitations became so numerous that most of them had to go unfulfilled. At every meeting God honored the Word with conviction. Conversions have been numerous, backsliders reclaimed and believers sanctified. We ascribe all the glory and honor to God to whom it is due.

Now that farm work has ceased the Band intends to expand its activities and devote more time to the work. We realize there is much work to be done and we feel drawn by God to enter the evangelistic field. The function of the Band is to spread the full Gospel and we stand ready to do so wherever God opens the way.

We stand for, and preach sin-killing, middle-of-the-road holiness, without frills or side issues.

We plan to send out two young men, one to preach and the other to conduct the singing. During Sundays additional members may assist them. We can't preach much, but we have the Holy Spirit with us and He convicts sinners, not the preacher. If there is a little church or community somewhere that would like to have an old-fashioned revival and that perhaps cannot afford a regular evangelist, just call on the Fort Fairfield Praying Band and if God wills we'll respond.

Communicate with myself or with the President, Eugene Kimball.

Yours in His service,

HOLLIS M. KIMBALL.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Word has been received to the effect that our missionary box arrived in Montreal in plenty of time for S. S. Benguela sailing from that port Nov. 10th. This will give more than six weeks for the box to reach our missionaries before Christmas.

We want to thank all who so kindly and readily responded and helped with their beautiful and useful gifts to make this box one of the biggest and best ever sent to South Africa.

We want to especially thank friends at Grey's Mills St. John, Fredericton, Hartland, Royalton, Port Maitland and other places on Brother Sabine's circuit, besides gifts from private parties. Our own church here contributed generously also.

Again thanking all who helped by order of committee.

MRS. O. R. ESTEY,

Corres. Secy.

Dear Highway:

"Answers to Prayer and Promises."

God has promised in His precious word of truth to supply all our needs according to His riches in glory. It is exactly like Him too, to do all He has promised. Praise his dear name for ever.

God all through the ages has always carried out the plans and promises He ever made to and for His children.

God hath promised that "His grace would be sufficient for us" and again that "our grace" and "peace would be multiplied."

God hath made provisions for His trusting and obedient children. Glory to His name!

God once more tells us "His mercy endureth forever and ever; and that our strength is made perfect in weakness; and again "that He loved us freely."

God hath made provision for all our needs, while we are left in this old world of sin and while Jesus Christ His only begotten Son hath gone to prepare mansions for those who love Him.

And truly God hath verified His promises towards us and our labors on this large field. We felt when coming here that we wouldn't accomplish the ends we would wish. It is true we find it impossible to do the calling we would like to do. And again as a boy we felt the need of much study and preparation with plenty of time for prayer. Prayer is the most essential.

If we had a smaller charge we might possibly come nearer our ideal. But God is mightily helping us. We felt this was where God would have us, and feel just now is though we are in the center of His divine will and plan for us. Praise Him!

The interest and attendance of the services are real good all over the field, which was made manifest by the liberal donation which the dear people of Lower Hainesville Church gave us on the evening of the twenty-ninth of October. A donation which amounted to $38.00, $26.00 cash and the remainder in groceries and vegetables, for which Mrs. Mullen and I thank them very much. We also thank the brethren and sisters who also thank the dear Lord because this, I am sure, is a direct answer to prayer.

God will supply all our needs! Praise Him!

Yours for Holiness,

S. A. AND MRS. MULLEN.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Just a few lines for the Highway and to say that I do enjoy the paper more than I can say, and it is a treasury to me. By getting this paper I find out how my friends are getting along. I am so glad there are people here and there hungry for salvation, and to hear that the church in Fredericton is getting along in its Christian work.

I see in the last Highway I received that our young brother, Norman Sharp, is on the mending hand. I was very glad when I read that God had touched his body, and is making him well. He will go on in Jesus' name rejoicing.

Oh, it is such a great need to have full salvation. We want it to live and to die by. Unless we have the precious blood applied to our hearts we are yet in sin. I am so glad to know that the precious blood of Jesus can cleanse us from all sin. I thank my Heavenly Father for His many blessings to me. And for His watchful care over me from day to day. And I am so glad there is power in the blood to cleanse every sinful sin sick soul, and I am sure it needs it, because the world is in an awful state with sin everywhere.

Oh, how glorious it will be when we all get to heaven, when we all see Jesus, we will sing and shout the victory. Bless be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love.

Yours in Jesus' name,

MRS. A. H.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Enclosed please find post office order for my renewal of the Highway. I should have done it before but have neglected it.

I love your little paper and enjoy reading its clean pages. Wishing you every success as editor of this little paper I remain,

Yours,

MURRAY GAMBLIN.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Find enclosed my renewal to the Highway. I enjoy the Highway very much as it helps to keep one living up to the mark of holiness. Saved and kept by the precious blood of Jesus.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. EDWIN J. JENNINGS.

Dear Highway:

Perhaps a word from this part of the field would not be amiss.

Our meetings are good with seasons of rich blessing both in the Sunday services and the week day prayer meetings. Our covenant meetings are especially blessed.

We find our people are very thoughtful for their pastor and family in trying to supply their temporal needs and make them comfortable. This fall they have spent about one hundred dollars on the parsonage fixing it up, and in the spring are planning to paint it on the outside.

Then one evening the people of our church and congregation met at our home and after a very pleasant evening spent together made us a generous donation in cash and produce. Our hearts are full of gratitude both to them and to our God who giveth all good things. We pray that He will bless these dear people and help us to be a blessing to them in return for their thoughtfulness for us.

We are looking forward to a great time of refreshing at Lower Brighton in the quarterly meeting. We give a cordial invitation to all to attend.

Yours for Holiness,

E. W. LESTER.

Dear Highway:

We would like to have space in your pages to acknowledge the kindness of the people of Meductic to us. On Monday evening, Nov. 12th, we met in the church and held a Thanksgiving service the people brought their thank offerings to the church and while we endeavored to thank the Lord for his love and care we were surrounded by butter, eggs, vegetables, preserves and money for which we thank the dear Lord and his people.

P. W. BRIGGS.
