

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We are glad to learn of the prosperity of our brothers and sisters, and especially in spiritual things. Revds. E. W. Lester, P. W. Briggs and P. J. Trafton and wife, as also Brother S. A. Mullen and wife have been very kindly remembered by their congregation in temporal things. Just as it should be. Continue it, beloved.

Sister I. M. Keirstead has organized a Home Department and Cradle Roll in connection with the Sunday School at Royalton.

God is blessing the united efforts of pastor and people at Seal Cove. Praise the Lord! The Highway is greatly enjoyed by these dear saints.

The special services at Sandford, N. S., on Rev. L. T. Sabine's circuit in which he is assisted by Rev. W. W. Howe, are already bearing good fruit. We hope there will be an abundant harvest of salvation.

We are glad to report the generous contributions which our young people in particular have made to the Students' Fund in the past two weeks. We trust that our people, when laying aside their tenth, will make a liberal appropriation to this fund.

There is a steamer of the Elder Dempster Line to leave St. John West about Dec. 15th, direct for South African ports. Friends wishing to send gifts to our missionaries will find this steamer convenient for them. Small parcels can be sent by parcel post.—S. A. Baker.

The difference between an infirmity and a sin is, an infirmity causes regret and humiliation, while sin causes guilt and condemnation.

PERSONALS.

We are glad to learn of the recovery of Sister P. J. Trafton from that dread disease, diphtheria, and that the remainder of the family escaped it.

We are sorry to learn of the serious illness of Brother Ziba Orser's youngest daughter, Thelma, necessitating a serious operation on her face. But we are glad that she came through it all right and is now at home. Let us remember them in prayer.

We are glad to note that Rev. I. M. Keirstead's youngest son, Karl, is succeeding so well in his studies in the High School at Centreville, Car. Co., N. B.

We have learned that Sister L. T. Sabine, of Port Maitland, N. S., went through a serious operation on Nov. 14th and is yet in the hospital, but is rapidly recovering, for which all her many friends are glad. She has been ill for some time. We trust that she may fully recover her health. Brother Sabine's son, whose son, whose eye was operated upon, is also progressing favorably.

We are sorry to learn that Sister Amanda Boyer, of Vancouver, B. C., has been confined to her home for several months because of a broken ankle and other troubles.

Miss Helen E. Goodspeed, of the Department of Public Works, Fredericton, spent ten days in Moncton, very pleasantly with her uncle and aunt, Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Wiggins.

We deeply sympathize with Sister Aaron Hartt and family in their bereavement.

Brother Hartt was a faithful, loving and godly husband and father. His memory is precious. We shall have more to say later.

H. S. DOW, President.

"An old writer has quaintly said, 'God looks not at the oratory of our prayers, how eloquent they are; nor at their geometry, how long they are; nor at their arithmetic, how many they are; nor at their logic, how methodical they are; but He looks at their sincerity, how spiritual they are.'"

"Sin binds us to Satan, but the Lord Jesus came to set us free from sin. He overcame Satan when He died on the Cross, and if we fully trust Him, He will overcome Satan in our lives."

To harbor sin of any kind in the heart is to entertain a relentless foe to your spiritual life. All sin must be abandoned and expurgated for the soul to be safe, satisfied and happy.

You cannot expect people to believe in your religion unless you are a faithful exponent in life. Or, in other words, you practice what you preach. One ounce of holy living is worth a whole ton of profession without practice.

"Christ wishes to give to every person what he most needs—a clean, loving and obedient heart."

If you feel inward disturbance or unrest, that pains you because of the success of others when it seemed at your expense, it is certain evidence of indwelling sin—carnality.
