

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The services in the Church at Fredericton are good and well attended. Rev. P. J. Trafton, the pastor, at times speaks for the colored mission on Regent street. At the meeting on Sunday night lately there were five seekers at the altar.

Rev. A. H. Trafton spent Sunday, the 21st inst., with his son, Rev. P. J. Trafton, at Fredericton and preached for him in the evening on his way to Woodstock.

Rev. L. T. Sabine, pastor at Port Maitland, spent Sunday, the 21st inst., with the New Tusket Church and baptized three converts and took two into the church, large congregations attending the services. Rev. H. E. Mullen from Seal Cove, Grand Manan, who was paying a visit to his mother at the time, preached at the morning service to the delight of his old friends.

Brother Sabine has lately been to Springfield, Mass., for the purpose of having an operation performed on his son's eye. He expects it to be a success and that in a month or so the son will be able to see quite well again.

We are pleased to note that Rev. Perley Briggs has taken charge of the Meductic circuit. May much blessing attend his labors.

Rev. M. Ella Slipp of Grey's Mills, is much encouraged in her work as the services are seasons of blessing and the saints a praying and believing God for a real revival.

Have you renewed your subscription to the Highway? The date on the name tab shows how you stand on our list.

This is a good time of year to send in your renewal.

We very heartily thank those who have renewed.

We are always ready to receive new subscriptions also.

STUDENTS' FUND.

We are glad to report such generous contributions to the Students' Fund in the last two weeks. It is very encouraging to note the practical interest our young people are taking in this fund, and even the children. Sister Joseph Sabine writes me that Walter, Edgar, Freddie and Bessie have sent their money out of their own savings. Our young people and children have set a splendid example.

PERSONALS.

Sister S. Hayden Shaw of Hartland, has been visiting her friends at Lower Brighton lately. They greatly enjoyed her visit as our sister though having passed her four score milestone of life is yet real smart, with a clear mind and happy heart, filled with the love of Jesus. She is a blessing wherever she goes. May she continue for years to come.

Master Herbert Trafton of Norwalk, Calif., who has been visiting his relatives and friends in New Brunswick for several months, left on Wednesday, Oct. 17th, on his return home.

Miss Dorothy Trafton, eldest daughter of Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Fredericton, N. B., who has lately graduated as a nurse from Winsted, Conn., U. S. A., is now nursing in that town.

Among the delegates who attended "The Maritime Religious Council" Convention held lately in the City of Moncton were Deacon C. O. Mutch and Mrs. Edna Rogers, of Woodstock, N. B., the one representing the Reformed Baptist Sunday School and the other the Methodist of that town. They were entertained by the Highway Editor and wife, who were glad to welcome them to their home. The delegates seemed to enjoy both the convention and their entertainment. We hope they will come again.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Enclosed you will find one part of my subscription to the Highway Supplementary Fund. I am trusting the Lord to get it all paid as fast as I can.

I am not feeling very well at present, but my soul doth rejoice in the God of my salvation. "He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God." I know I have passed from death unto life, because I love the brethren. Hope these few lines will find you well. I remain your brother in Christ, kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

T. W. MOSES.

We never did believe in fighting the church. The church is the best institution we have on earth. It is better to oppose sin in the church.
