

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The Royalton Church is maintaining its regular services, notwithstanding the storms and cold weather, with good attendance and spiritual results. Brother Keirstead and wife are always busy, though Sister Keirstead's health has not been very good for some time. Brother Keirstead sent us three new subscribers lately. A good example for other pastors.

We are sorry that Brother Briggs is leaving the New Tusket pastorate as he has done most excellent work there and will be greatly missed.

We deeply sympathize with Brother A. H. Trafton and family in their bereavement. We have known Sister Trafton for forty years, and have always found her to be greatly interested in spiritual things and the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

On account of so much sickness, the quarterly meeting of District No. 2, which was to convene at St. John on the 15th inst., has been called off.

Rev. H. C. Archer preached for Brother Baker on Sunday evening, the 11th inst., and gave us an excellent sermon.

NOTICE.

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 3 will convene with the Church at Seal Cove on April 5th (D. V.), continuing over the Sabbath. Let us make these meetings times of refreshing and victory by a large delegation, much intercession, complete obedience to the Spirit, and the propagation of the doctrine of entire, instantaneous sanctification definitely received as a second work of grace, as per Scripture.

THE HIGHWAY.

Please notice that we have moved from Fredericton to Moncton. We are glad to be able to say that our appeal for renewal of subscriptions to the Highway has met with success, as also some new subscriptions. Thank you very much, beloved! Let the good work go on. A number of subscriptions will expire this month and it is a good idea to start the New Year free from debt. Don't forget to send by Post Office Order, or by Postal Note. If you send a check, add 15 cents as the Banks charge us that much to cash checks.

Your humble servant,

W. B. WIGGINS.

PERSONALS.

Miss Mabel Brooks, R. N., of Houlton, Me., has been nursing her sister, Mrs. O. R. Estey, of Woodstock, who has been ill lately. Her sister, Miss Helen E. Brooks, who has been visiting Mrs. Estey, has gone to Manchester, N. H., where she has accepted a responsible position with the Social Welfare Association of that city.

Mrs. Solomon McFarlane, of Woodstock, has gone to Waterbury, Conn., to spend a month with her daughter, Miss Pearl McFarlane, who is a nurse in that city.

Brother and Sister W. R. Carson, of Norton, as also their daughter, Mrs. Albany, and her husband, have our sympathy in the loss of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Gillies.

We note also the death of an aged friend, Sister Golding, of Upper Woodstock, N. B., who has been a subscriber to the Highway since its beginning. She was indeed an earnest christian woman and lived to a good old age.

"I KNOW A THING OR TWO."

"My boy," said a father to his only son, "you are in bad company. The lads with whom you go indulge in bad habits. They drink, smoke, swear, play cards and visit theatres. They are not safe company for you. I beg you to quit their society."

"You needn't be afraid of me, father," replied the boy laughing. "I guess I know a thing or two. I know how far to go and when to stop."

The lad left his father's house, twirling his cane in his fingers and laughing at the "old man's notions." A few years later and that lad, grown to manhood, stood at the bar of a court, before a jury which had just brought in a verdict of guilty against him for crime. Before he was sentenced he addressed the court and said among other things: "My downward course began in disobedience to my parents. I thought I knew as much of the world as my father did, and I spurned his advice; but as soon as I turned my back on my home, temptations come upon me like a drove of hyenas and hurried me to ruin." Mark the confession, ye boys who are beginning to be wiser than your parents.—Selected.

THINGS TO FORGET.

If you would increase happiness, forget your neighbor's faults. Forget all the slander you have heard. Forget the fault-finding and give but little thought to the cause which provoked it. Forget the peculiarities of your friends, and only remember the good points which make you fond of them. Forget all personal quarrels or history you may have heard by accident, and which if repeated, would seem worse than they are. Blot out as far as possible all disagreeables of life. They will come, but will only grow larger when you remember them, and the constant thought of the acts of meanness—or worse still, malice—will tend to make you more familiar with them. Start out with a clean sheet today, and write upon it only those things which are lovely and lovable.—Sel.

HIGHWAY FUND.

Below is a list of those who have paid their subscription to the Highway Fund. The need at the present time is pressing. We trust that many more will help us meet our obligations. The Lord bless you, brethren and sisters. We can all give something to this fund.

Please send your subscriptions to the editor by Post Office Order or Postal Note.
