THE HIGHWAY.

Please notice that we have moved from Fredericton to Moncton. We are glad to be able to say that our appeal for renewal of subscriptions to the Highway has met with success, as also some new subscriptions. Thank you very much, beloved! Let the good work go on. A number of subscriptions will expire this month and it is a good idea to start the New Year free from debt. Don't forget to send by Post Office Order, or by Postal Note. If you send a check, add 15 cents as the Banks charge us that much to cash checks.

Your humble servant,

W. B. WIGGINS.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Ones:

I think I inherited from my sainted mother the desire to share with others when any good thing comes my way.

I know many of you are interested in the Royalton Church and its good people, so I want to tell you of another blessed day we have enjoyed. Brother Lee Good spent Sunday, the 4th, with us, and although the weather was very cold and roads bad so that only the most zealous ones from Knoxford attended the services with our people here. Yet the Lord surely blessed those that made any sacrifice in coming.

Brother Good preached with his old time energy and power on full salvation, which was spiritual food.

In the evening he spoke on Eternity. There was much conviction on the people, ten were at the altar whom we trust prayed through to victory. After this there was a regular love feast, many were the testimonies of victory and songs of praise, coming from honest and sincere hearts. For all these things we will bless his name from this time forth and forever.

Dear Highway:

Our special services, under Rev. Thomas Laite, of Lowell, Mass., closed on Wednesday evening, 7th, Brother Laite going to Perth, N. B., with Brother Mullen until the 15th inst.

Brother Laite is a strong advocate of Christian Perfection which comes by consecration, and a definite work of grace subsequent to regeneration. He is also a strong advocate of Christian giving, not only demanding the tenth along Bible lines, but give until you feel that you sacrifice for Jesus' sake. Our brother is very kind and tender in his application of truths, and a mighty man of God for any church or people. But we found many in our midst like Jesus did in St. John 5:40, 'And ye will not come to me that ye might have life.' Some came for salvation and found it; others for the baptism of the Holy Spirit and Jesus did not turn them empty away. His sermon on the modern evils of the day was a master-piece of power, freighted with love, in which the movies were put in their proper place.

Of course his sermons were not on popular themes, but everybody hearing him were strong in their praises of his messages of truth, and we believe that eternity alone will reveal the results of this meeting. To God be all the glory!

Dear Brother in Christ:

I send my subscription for the Highway as I do not want to miss the dear little paper; it has so many good things in it. My testimony is that I am pressing on the upward way; and it surely is a good way in which to be. I am glad we do not have to go alone, as Jesus has promised to go with us, if we put our trust in Him. Glory to His name!

MRS. SARAH DAVIS.

Dear Highway:

Having enjoyed the privilege of hearing F. W. Foster, "the Farmer Evangelist," for the past four weeks, I decided to send a brief report knowing that he has many warm friends among readers of the Highway. We met before during his campaign in the Reformed Baptist Church in Moncton, and it was indeed a pleasure to meet him again and to hear him declare the whole counsel of God and erect the standard of "Holiness unto the Lord." Moses declared, "That not an hoof shall be left behind" and a greater than Moses commanded, 'I am the Almighty God, walk before me and be thou perfect,' and God honored the message according to his promise.

Mr. Foster is preaching a full gospel of Moses and the prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone and Jesus said, "If they hear not Moses and the prophets neither will they hear though one rose from the dead."

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Perhaps a few lines from us would not be amiss at this time. We are still in the battle, and oh, how we praise the Lord for his wonderful love and care. Although we are having quite a severe winter and our band is small God has wonderfully cared for us and is supplying all our needs, proving to us that he is well able to carry us through whatever circumstances we are placed in, if we trust and obey him. Glory to his precious name!

I am sending you two subscribers for the Highway. I wish I could do more for the Highway but apart from wishing God's blessing on the paper and its editor. I feel that is all I can do at this time. May the Lord bless you and Sister Wiggins.

Yours in his glad service,

P. W. BRIGGS.

Dear Highway:

Notwithstanding wind, snow and intense cold, we are yet among the living, and praise the Lord for His care and loving kindness toward us, for His remembrance in old age. We are enjoying ourselves, both temporarily and spiritually, and are encouraged to see the work of the Lord prospering. The brethren and sisters seem to realize the Lord's hand providing for them by sending them labourers into the vineyard and a spirit of co-operation is manifest among us. As far as we can see harmony prevails among the active members. We are pleasantly located near the church and the people generally are kind, and seemingly pleased to have us with them.

Last evening, Jan. 31, a goodly number came in and extended kindly greetings, and we certainly had a beautiful time praising the Lord in song. The sisters prepared a lunch, after which the chairman of the evening with a kind address handed us the sum of $45 in cash, for which we thank God and take courage. While many of our old friends have passed over to the better clime during the winter, we are pressing hard towards a heavenly country, with hope inspired vision enlarged, believing and receiving as we to the fountain go; expect to see Jesus as He is. Such a hope demands purifying even as He is pure.

Yours in love,

MR. AND MRS. A. H. TRAFTON.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Just a line to let you know that I have complete victory in my soul. I have the Comforter in my heart. Paul said, "Christ in you the hope of glory." I praise him that the Holy Ghost not only cleanses, but fills one with power and glory. When the Holy Ghost comes into our hearts we begin to get visions of spiritual things. We get somewhat of a vision of the lost. I mean, by God's help to point souls to Him. I am saved, sanctified, and kept up to date by his power.

Your brother in Christ,

G. A. ROGERS.
