

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead, pastor of Royalton Church, has opened up work at Upper Wicklow. He preached there the first and second Sunday in May and organized a Sunday School and has some victory already. The Fort Fairfield Praying Band held services there on the 18th and 25th of May. He hopes to continue the work there. He also had services at Gordonsville and Fielding on May 25th. He has received a unanimous call to remain as pastor at Royalton for another year. He has accepted it.

Rev. M. Ella Slipp, pastor of Grey's Mills Church, is paying a visit to her mother, Mrs. Phebe Slipp, of Fort Fairfield, Me., while the church building at Grey's Mills is undergoing some repairs. She expects to be at Beulah for the Alliance.

The Fort Fairfield Praying Band had charge of the services of the Church at the Fort June 1st. Eugene Kimball was the leader. They also held services in the Reformed Baptist Church at Royalton on Sunday, the 8th inst.

The work in the Fredericton Church goes on fairly well and Brother Trafton is looking forward for a successful year.

The "Lend a Hand" Bible class, of which he is teacher, held a social at the parsonage on the 2nd inst., at which a large number were present. A fine programme was presented and the election of officers for the coming year took place.

All the pastors are looking forward to the Camp Meeting at Beulah Camp Ground and are hoping for a good meeting. Let us all come with faith and prayer and ready to do all we can for the salvation of souls and the glory of God.

Let all come to make the coming services the very best under the direction of our Heavenly Father. Let everybody come!

ALLIANCE FUND.

Will the deacons of the several churches make an earnest effort to collect the "Alliance Fund," which is 25 cents from each member, as we will need it this year very much.

Will the pastors please urge the members to contribute, and if the deacons cannot attend to it or neglect it, will you not get some one to collect it.

Don't forget it, please.

THE SECRETARY.
