

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We are glad to note that Rev. F. T. Wright has accepted a call to the pastorate of the St. John Church for some months at least.

The parsonage and church edifice at Hartland have recently been painted outside which adds much to their appearance. The interior of the Church is being renewed.

Brother Frank Watson, of Woodstock, spent Sunday, Nov. 2nd, with the church at Lower Hainesville.

Rev. H. C. Archer has sent out the minutes. Will the pastors see that they are distributed to those who paid the Alliance fund.

Those who attended the thirty-sixth anniversary at Woodstock enjoyed a rich spiritual feast.

We note with satisfaction that the debt on the Meductic Church has been cancelled. It is wonderful what people can do for the Lord when they have a mind to.

Mrs. Neil Clark, of Crystal, Me., brought Brother and Sister Thorne, Rev. S. H. and Mrs. Clark and John to the 36th anniversary in her auto. They also visited Mrs. Neil Clark's home at Upper Knoxford.

NOTICE

The minutes of the Alliance are printed and are being sent out this week. We trust that all who paid in will receive a copy.

Any one who did not pay, and still would like one, may get it by sending 25 cents to

"Doubting is a habit which may be cultivated until it lands the doubter in an abyss of darkness. A man of God once said: 'If we arm ourselves with what we know, we shall go forth girded with sufficient truth to withstand any attack that doubt may make.'"

Emphasize your beliefs rather than your doubts. The world has doubts enough as it is. It wants to hear from a man who believes something, and believes it with all his heart.
