

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard of Island Falls, has accepted the pastorate of the Reformed Baptist Church at Fort Fairfield and will assume his duties late in July. Mrs. Hilyard and family will not come to town probably until August.

Brother Geo. A. Rogers has taken the oversight of the St. John Church for the summer or until college opens, as he intends to continue his studies. A very wise move.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and Rev. H. S. Dow accompanied C. P. Phillips, of Woodstock, on a two weeks auto trip to New York and New Jersey.

Rev. A. H. Trafton supplied at Fredericton for his son, P. J. Trafton, during his absence, and Brother Chester Cochrane supplied for Brother Dow at Marysville.

Rev. S. H. Clark will remain on the Camp Ground until September, after which he will be open for a call from any vacant church or pastorate. Please address him at Browns Flats, Kings Co., N. B.

Brother Ray Hagerman, who has charge of the services on Beulah Camp Ground, is fulfilling his duties satisfactorily. He preaches twice on Sunday, as also superintends the Sunday School on Sunday afternoons, as also leads the prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings. The congregations are good as also the attendance at the Sunday school. Last Sunday there were over fifty present.

The Editor of the Highway spoke for him on Sunday morning, July 20th, to a good company of hearers.

The Editor and Mrs. Wiggins will leave the Camp Ground on July 30th for Fredericton and Robinson, Me., where they will remain for ten days, attending Riverside Camp Meeting.

Perhaps your pastor has said little about a revival. Have you said anything to him about it? Have you told him you were anxious to see one in your church? Have you assured him that he can depend on you when he undertakes one in your church? Members can help a preacher in this matter. If your pastor does not show the zeal and solicitude about this matter perhaps you had better speak to him about it. Help him all you can. Get under the burden for souls and pray until the Lord sends a mighty spiritual awakening among the people.—Pentecostal Herald.
