

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

I send you a renewal for this year, as also another year. We enjoy reading the Highway very much. I am glad to say that the Lord is blessing and keeping us. He is our helper in every time of need. We are looking to Him for constant victory in our lives and that we may be a blessing to others.

Yours in Christ,

Dear Brother Wiggins:

I send renewal for Highway, which I value very much. I love its clean pages and the testimonies of the brothers and sisters and all of the good things it contains.

My testimony is: Praise God for a salvation that saves and keeps every day of the week.

Your sister in Christ,
MRS. MARY DOANE.

Dear Bro. Wiggins:

I am enclosing a renewal for Rev. B. Colpitts. Our work is coming nicely. Several are feeling their need of a clean heart and are pressing through. Our prayer meetings are rich with blessing from God. We have accepted an unanimous call to remain another year.

Yours in Him,
L. J. ALLEY.

Dear Highway Friends:

With assurance of faith we say "the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob" is caring for us; and many times we are led to thank Him for letting us labor with Him in this part of His vineyard. Although I did not get to the Quarterly Meeting at Fredericton, which I knew would be "a feast of good things" to those there; yet those who went from the Greenbush and Southampton churches kindly remembered me, bringing me back a handsome coat, and every week we are remembered by these kind friends in gifts and love.

I know I do not deserve all this kindness, but I feel surely God is teaching His people how much He loves the cheerful giver, and the liberal soul is being made fat.

Yours in the Master's service,
MRS. PERLEY BRIGGS.

Dear Highway:

Greetings in Jesus' name from the front line trenches in the battle of "Sin and Righteousness." The battle goes hard, but our host is invincible, for Christ is our Captain, and, like Commodore Perry on Lake Erie, "we have met the enemy and they are ours." It is not by might, nor by power; but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts.

Why not equip ourselves today like Paul with the full armour of righteousness. It is the only hope of an old-fashioned revival. Modernists are depending on modern inventions, new thought and the like, but shall we as holiness people allow modern ideas or new thought to have its sway, and not live up to our name "Holiness." "War is inevitable," and as Christians we must be ready to say, "Let it come, let it come," and then with our prayers, and sword of the spirit, claim victory through our captain, Jesus Christ.

"The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much," Prayer is one of the greatest privileges of the child of God, and shall we allow duties, legitimate duties, even, to interfere with our conversing with our Saviour. The way to the hearts of the people, and an outpouring of the Holy Spirit is the same as ever, even the way of prayer. This means a great revival and a stirring up of God's people, and a definite advancement of God's work.

Our Reformed Baptist brethren have been a great blessing along this line in the vineyard of our Lord, and have worked side by side like brethren of one household, which I believe is the true spirit of Christ. It is through my acquaintance with them that I have so boldly written these few words. While readers of this paper may think me a stranger, I am but a brother or co-worker in a different section of God's vineyard, although at present I am with our Reformed Baptist brethren in preparation.

May the Grace of God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost be with you all.

Yours in His service,
JESSE S. RICHARDSON.

Dear Mr. Wiggins:

Sincerely yours,
CLAIRE WILCOX.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

I enclose my renewal for the King's Highway. It is a welcome visitor to our home. We enjoy its clean pages. I am glad for a full salvation, glad it reaches even me. My testimony is, Jesus is precious to me. He saves to the uttermost, and I am on the victory side. Praise God!

MRS. ESTEN L. BEAL.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

The world looks upon me as being very poor. So I am in this world's goods. My riches cannot be told in figures. I am an heir of God, a joint heir with Christ. His riches are unsearchable; heir to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for me. Jesus is getting me a home ready. "I go to prepare a place for you." "I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am there ye may be also." Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am." All this is for me, through the precious blood of the slain Lamb of Calvary's Cross. "Giving thanks unto the Father, who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light." "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear son." "In whom we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins."

The basis of our confidence is Jesus' precious blood. Faith in that blood will make us pure and acceptable to God.

"Sometimes when all life's lessons have been learned,

And sun and stars forever more have set;
The things which our weak judgments here have spurned;

The things o'er which we grieved with lashes wet,

Will flash before us out of life's dark night,

As stars shine most in deeper tints of blue
And we shall see how all God's plans were right,

And now, what seemed reproof, was love most true."

Your sister in the covenant of grace,

R. P. PRINCE.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

You will find enclosed renewal for Highway. I do so enjoy this little paper; when I read of our dear Lord blessing so many meetings and so many souls getting blessed, my heart abounds with praise to God for full salvation and for the precious blood of our dear Saviour; he is very precious to me. I find the way grows brighter every day. I just want to say a few words as to how He cares for us. On the 17th of March was my birthday. I started the day with this text: Prov. 16-8, "Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right." It was a great day of joy. From morning till night many kind words of cheer were sent to me; papers and tracts, also flowers and friends called to see me. Then two friends of the St. John Church gave me two records with four hymns on them. I do so enjoy these hymns when I am not able to get to the meetings. When I was given this great loss to bear, never to be able to walk in this life again and everything has been done for me. I am so glad to say I can walk with God every day and this is the hymn I often sing:

"He leadeth me, O blessed thought,
O words with heavenly comfort fraught;
Whate'er I do, where'er I be,
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me."

I do thank my kind heavenly Father for all these kind friends and blessings. May He bless every one of His people and keep them true, is my prayer.

Trusting in Jesus,
BESSIE McAVITY.
