

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

The work in the Fredericton Church continues to advance. The Sunday services as well as during the week are well attended. There are seekers at the altar most every Sunday evening. On April 27th Brother P. J. Trafton had baptism and added two to the church membership.

Brothers Trafton and Dow's visit to the Pentecostal Assembly at Cambridge, Mass., was a very pleasant occasion.

The Assembly will send two fraternal delegates to our coming Alliance.

Brother Stillman A. Mullen, who has had charge of the Millville circuit, has received and accepted a call to become pastor of the Jonesport Church, Me., after Beulah Camp Meeting ends.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Beals, Me., is much encouraged in his work and is looking forward to our meeting at Beulah with earnest prayers; as also Rev. H. C. Archer, of North Head, Grand Manan. We trust that many are uniting in prayer at the throne of grace for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the services.

LOUDER! LOUDER!

One day, not long since, a Baptist preacher of our State was out hunting. During the day a rainstorm came on. In order to keep dry he crawled into a hollow log. When the rain began to fall the log began to swell, until he could get neither way. He thought his end had come. He thought of all the wrongs he had done, and when he recalled that he had not sent a subscription to this paper this year he felt so small that he crawled out of the log without difficulty. Does this story fit you?—The Western Baptist (Winnipeg, Manitoba).

THE SECRETARY.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

I am sending post office order for the Highway fund and for foreign missions in memory of my daughter, Mrs. F. L. Houghton, who went to be with Jesus Oct. 17th, 1923, leaving our hearts aching with loneliness, but blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

"Tell Him about the heart ache,
And tell Him the longings too,
Tell Him the baffled purpose
When we scarce know what to do.

Then leaving all our weakness
With the One divinely strong,
Forget that we bear the burden
And carry away the song."

—Margaret Sangster.

It is hard to keep the song in our hearts when every thing has been so disappointing as it has been with me, yet Paul said, "sorrowful yet always rejoicing," and I try to realize that the Eternal God is my refuge and underneath me are the everlasting arms.

The Highway has been a great comfort through the lonely winter. I have been so glad to hear from so many dear ones and to see that so many have decided for Christ and pray that the good work may go on. I know when we get salvation among the Reformed Baptists, they don't need cards or dancing or movies to fill up their time, for when we get Jesus in, I don't think our young people have a taste for such things.

MRS. JAS. W. GREENLAW.

No greater calamity could befall the holiness movement than for it to become popular. Its high doctrines must be exemplified in the pure lives and heroic sacrifices of its adherents, else it will prove a curse to the world. Popularize the movement and there would at once flow into it a vast number of holiness people who are not holy people—having the form, but knowing nothing of the power of godliness. Trials, tribulations and persecutions act as a sieve to separate the sensual, ease-loving, carnal professors from the pure grain.—Sel.
