

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We are glad to learn that Rev. I. M. Kirestead's health is somewhat improved, yet slowly. The winter weather is generally hard on any one afflicted with neuritis or rheumatism. Let her many friends unite in prayer for our sister's complete recovery.

Rev. F. T. Wright, the pastor at Fort Fairfield, by the assistance of the Praying Band, is having special services in his Church. We trust much good may result.

Rev. W. W. Howe is assisting Licentiate S. A. Mullen at Millville and God is blessing the work and souls are getting salvation.

The brethren of Grey's Mills are preparing to repair the church building there. Their services continue to be seasons of blessing.

Rev. S. H. Clark, pastor at Calais, Me., has been ill for a time and Brother L. P. McMillan supplied for him on Sunday, the 9th inst. Brother Clark expects to have services, beginning the 23rd inst. Brother Clark has been supplying for the Calais Church as he resigned the pastorate March last year. He will be open for a call or take up work after Easter Sunday, April 20th.

The meetings at Perth have been good, where Rev. H. S. Mullen, the pastor, has been assisted by Evangelist Fraser Dunlop, and some have accepted salvation.

We are glad to learn of the good work being done at Seal Cove and Wood Island as also at Perth, Fort Fairfield, Millville, Fredericton and other places. Two new members were received into the church in Fredericton March 9th. May the blessing of the Lord continue.

The Moncton Church has had the definite testimonies of two brothers within the period of about three years, followed by very sudden calls to the ranks of the family in heaven. Brother D. H. Berry, who gave a blessed testimony Sunday night and was killed by a railway accident on Monday morning. Brother Stephen Tuck gave a like farewell testimony on Sunday evening, the 10th inst., and passed away almost as suddenly as "in the twinkling of an eye" on Tuesday evening. How blessed to be in readiness. "Be ye also ready for ye know not the day nor hour when the Son of Man cometh."—S. A. B.

Grey's Mills, N. B.

Treasurer.

We appreciate the requests of several friends who have written that they would like us to write for the Highway. My love for the Highway family still burns in my heart. I learned to love them as a family of children. Many of them wrote me how eagerly they looked for its coming, and read it with such a relish. I could see them in their far away homes, and enjoyed the little notes I had gathered with them. God bless you all.—S. A. B.

NOTICE.

We wish to sincerely thank those of our subscribers who have sent in their renewals to the Highway. But will others kindly examine the label on their Highway and find out what they owe? The subscriptions are supposed to be paid in advance.

Clark conducting the service. Burial in Calais cemetery.

Stephen Tuck.

"Sudden death will be sudden glory." These words were frequently used by our brother, Stephen Tuck, in his testimony in the church. And the call came that way on Tuesday evening, the 11th inst., to him. He worked as usual all day and as his custom was, he went into the church and lighted the fire to warm the vestry for the prayer meeting, and went to his son's home with whom he lived, and while standing beside the stove he suddenly fell to the floor. A doctor was called, who arrived in a few minutes, but the death messenger had arrived first, and Brother Tuck had finished his labors, "and sudden death had become sudden glory." Thus ended a "most faithful and useful life." He was a praying man his was a life of prayer, his family, the church, the people generally, the church members individually, the Sunday school children, all were a continual subject of prayer, the aged, the sick, the destitute were never forgotten. Every moment of Sunday was spent in some active work. He visited the needy, and carried them reading matter. He gave them money, then prayed with them. His one theme was salvation. He loved the church and spent much of his spare time there. He warmed it and prepared it for the services, then prayed. He was the first and the last there and gave generously to support it. "I am going where the angels dwell," was a closing sentence in most of his testimonies. He was a man who was on fire and frequently as we looked at him we have said in our heart, there is one man who is going to heaven. He was certainly faithful unto death. His sudden death came as a great shock to his family, and to the church, and all who knew him.

He is survived by one son, Mr. Edwin G. Tuck, and one daughter, Mrs. R. D. Fram, of Moncton, N. B., and two brothers and one sister in Newfoundland, and one sister in the United States. Brother Tuck's wife and three daughters and one son predeceased him. Many people who attended Beulah Camp Meeting will regret to hear of his sudden death. The funeral service had to be postponed on account of the great storm, so we could not get the notes intine for this issue.—S. A. B.
