MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. L. T. Sabine spent Sunday, the 14th, and 21st, on the Sandford Circuit, but because of storms only two services were held.

Rev. W. W. Howe has accepted the call of the Church at Moncton, to become their pastor for the balance of the year.

We are glad to note the success of the special meetings at Calais and the grand treatment that is accorded their pastor, Brother Sears.

We trust all the brothers and sisters will remember the different funds in connection with our work. Rev. S. A. Baker is our missionary treasurer; Rev. H. C. Archer, treasurer Aged and Sick Ministers' Fund; Rev. M. Ella Slipp, Students' Fund; Rev. H. S. Dow, assistant Alliance treasurer; Rev. P. J. Trafton, the Highway Funds.

We trust the brethren will keep us posted on items of interest in connection with the work.

STUDENTS' FUND.

We hope that all the brothers and sisters will soon send in their offerings to the Students' Fund.

THANKS TO FRIENDS.

We wish to thank our many friends scattered through many places for their contribution to the largest Christmas mail that we ever received, although we are getting up in years. We are unable to write so many but we thank you all for your kind remembrances, and pray that this year may be rich in blessing from the Great Heavenly Father who giveth according to his riches in glory.

S. A. AND MRS. BAKER.

MARRIED

Middleton-London

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage at Marysville, N. B., on Dec. 22nd, 1924, Mr. David Middleton, of Ripples, N. B., was united in marriage to Miss Ruby London, of the same place, by Rev. H. S. Dow.

Jamieson-Minue

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Minue, of Marysville, N. B., was the scene of a quiet and pretty wedding on Christmas Day, 1924, at 4 o'clock p. m., when their only daughter, Glenna, was united in marriage to William Jamieson, of the same place, by their pastor, Rev. H. S. Dow. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties under an arch of evergreen. Harold, the brother of the groom, acted as best man, while Miss Lois White, of Marysville, was bridesmaid. Mrs. Jamieson received several nice and useful presents. They will make their future home at Marysville.

Lauders-Durkee

At the home of Reuben and Mrs. Durkee, the bride's parents, Sandford, N. S., on Thursday evening, Dec. 18th, a beautiful wedding took place, when their youngest daughter, Ruth, became the wife of Howard Lauders of the same place. Rev. L. T. Sabine performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of guests. Ruth Lauders, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, and George Durkee, brother of the bride, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Lauders will reside at Sandford after a trip to Boston, Mass.

PRAY, WORK AND GIVE.

We wish a very successful New Year to our missionary efforts, Foreign and Home. Pray, work and give, that it may be the greatest year in our history, and in all true Christian efforts to save the souls of the people. The greatest human need is salvation. Christ gave all. We should also give.

S. A. BAKER.
