

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Please find enclosed post office order to pay for the Highway.

I am always glad when the postman brings it as it is a welcome visitor to our home.

The order will pay for last year, also for this. I will try to be more prompt in the future.

Sincerely Yours,
MRS. W. B. JOHNSTON.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. My testimony is that Jesus is a wonderful Saviour. Brother Fred Foster preached for me on the morning of May 18th, while I filled one of his appointments. The Praying Band put in an all day meeting at Wicklow, Carleton Co., on the 18th.

Yours in His service,
F. T. WRIGHT.

Dear Highway:

A few notes from this field may not be amiss. All our meetings are good. Many of them are times of refreshing. Prayer-meetings on Tuesday and Friday evenings are well attended and are seasons of spiritual strength.

Sunday services begin with prayer at 10.30 a. m., with preaching by Brother Sears at 11. Sunday School at 2.30 p. m. with a good attendance. Praying Band meets in the church after the Sunday School. These are seasons of great spiritual uplift when God's Spirit is manifestly present.

In the evening at 7 Brother Sears preaches again. Conviction on many, frequent responses to the altar calls, many have received help. The church is in good working condition. Our young brother, Licentiate L. J. Sears, has proved himself a Gospel warrior of the old-time style. He is fearless, faithful to the word, patient and kind to all, but gives no quarters to sin of any kind, and he backs up all his ministry with a consistent holy life. If his health will susutain his efforts, and he keeps to the main line of full salvation. He will give promise of a ministry of great blessing. Our prayers for his success will always follow him.

A. L. BUBAR.

Dear Brother Wiggins:

Please find enclosed post office order for two years subscription for Highway and also I have changed my address from Hartland, N. B., to Woodstock, N. B. I enjoy reading the Highway and am praising the Lord for His care and keeping power.

MRS. ALBERTA THORNTON.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins:

Enclosed please find postal note for renewal of the Highway. I praise Jesus for salvation and for His keeping power and his abiding peace in my soul.

Sincerely,
MRS. W. CRONK.

Wanted, today, men and women, young and old, who will obey their convictions of truth and duty at the cost of fortune and friends and life itself.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Henry Walton.

Mrs. Henry Walton departed this life on May 11th, after a continued illness. She had passed beyond the allotted time. She leaves to mourn their loss one daughter, Mrs. Johnson, of Limestone, Me., and two sons, Sherman and James, of Fort Fairfield, Me. The funeral service took place at her home and interment was made at the Doyle cemetery. F. T. Wright had charge of the service.

Mrs. W. A. Ellis.

Mrs. W. A. Ellis, daughter of Mr. Chas. Goodspeed, died at her home at Ottawa on Tuesday, May 6th, 1924. The remains were brought to Penniac, N. B., where the deceased lived several years, and where interment was made on the Thursday following, Rev. H. S. Dow, the Reformed Baptist pastor, officiating. She is survived by her husband, who with his sister, accompanied the remains to their last resting place, and her father, who lives at Centreville, one sister, Mrs. Tilly Bird, of Keswick, N. B., and several half brothers and half sisters, and also several other relatives and friends. The very many and beautiful floral tributes and the large gathering at the funeral of her friends and former neighbors spoke of the high esteem in which she was held. The deceased was converted several years ago and was baptized by Rev. G. B. Trafton, and united with the R. B. Church at Penniac. A little less than ten years ago she was married at the Penniac Church by the Rev. G. B. Trafton to Mr. W. A. Ellis, of Ottawa, where they moved and have since lived. She was a consistent christian, and died trusting in the Lord.

Willard H. Christie.

At Milltown, Me., on the 21st. the Master called Willard H. Christie, aged 4 months 6 days, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Christie to himself, saying of such is the Kingdom of Heaven. Funeral on the 22nd inst. from the home of Brother and Sister William Barnard, Chapel street, Rev. S. H. Clark had charge of the service. Burial in Calais cemetery beside an infant sister.

HAD TESTED THE REMEDY.

It is related that Bishop Kavanagh was one day walking when he met a prominent physician, who offered him a seat in his carriage. The physician was an infidel, and the conversation turned upon religion.

"I am surprised," said the doctor, "that such an intelligent man as you should believe such an old fable as that."

The Bishop said, "Doctor, suppose years ago some one had recommended to you a prescription, and, taking it according to order, you had been cured of a terrible disease, what would you say of the man who would not try your prescription?"

"I would say he was a fool."

"Twenty-five years ago," said Kavanagh, "I tried the power of God's grace. It made a different man of me. All these years I have preached salvation, and whenever accepted, have never known it to fail."—Sel.

EASTER PROGRAMME

The following programme was beautifully rendered on Easter Sunday by the members of the R. B. Church Sunday School at Beals, Maine:

Opening chorus, "The Wings of the Morning."

Responsive Reading and Prayer.

Question and Answer Song.

Recitation, "The Lily and I"—Rena Peabody.

Recitation, "I Won't Forget"—Charles Beal.

Recitation, "A Little Beginner," Fletcher Alley.

Chorus—"Dawn Divine."

Recitation, "Easter Bunny"—Hilda Peabody.

Recitation, "The Year's Good Morning"—Clayton Alley.

Primary Song, "Easter Comes."

Violin Solo by Avery Beal, accompanied by Mildred Beal, pianist.

Dialogue, "Happy Easter Day."

Recitation, "Happy World"—Eola Look.

Trio, "Bells of the Morning"—Gertrude Woodward, Thelma Simmons and Edmund Beal.

Recitation, "The Garden of Easter"—Lizzie Peabody.

Reading—Mrs. Avery Beal.

Chorus, "Light of Easter."

Recitation, "Easter Morning Breaks"—Gertrude Peabody.

Recitation, "The Fern"—Lucy Woodward.

Recitation, "Easter Flowers"—Myrtle Beal.

Recitation, "In Galilee"—Helen Mullen.

Recitation, "Only a Word"—Lucy Beal. Solo, "Once There was a Cross"—Mildred Beal.

Dialogue, "Easter's Recitation."

Chorus, "Our Risen Lord."

Monologue, "The Magdalene Story"—Annie Simmons.

Dialogue, "Easter's Here."

Chorus, "Come Ye to a Garden."

Closing Prayer.

MRS. ANNIE SIMMONS, Sec.

SATANIC ATTACKS

It is the man with money that robbers attack. It is not the man going to market his produce, but the man coming home with the proceeds who is in danger.

It is the man who has grace that Satan attacks and seeks to rob. If the Devil is attacking you, it is a good sign that you have not lost out. If he is after you, he has not yet got you. He is not treating you as a friend, but as a foe.

If your grace is being tested, it is a sure indication that you have grace to be tested. If your faith is being tried, it is a sure indication that you have faith to be tried. If you have no spiritual tests, it is likely that you have no spirituality to be tested.—H. O. Fanning.

Jesus told His disciples they were the salt of the earth. This world would be a dreadful place without Christians and Christian influence. Children should be Christians in order that they may be blest themselves and help to season the world with the salt of grace.