PRAYER

O Lord, we thank Thee for peaceful and confident access into Thy presence, and we would know and worship Thee in the beauty of holiness. Draw us, and we will run after Thee. Breathe into our spirits desires after Thyself, and make us heavenly-minded. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The time is rapidly passing and it will be only a few weeks before we meet at Beulah Camp Ground, for our annual Alliance and the Camp Meeting that follows. How important that we should come in the right spirit. All of God's people should be uniting in fervent prayer and faith that our coming Camp Meeting may be the best ever held at Beulah Camp Ground. Not that the past meetings have not been good, but the coming one ought to be away ahead of any there has been.

What say you, brothers and sisters? If you have not already had the coming meetings on your heart and have been earnestly pleading to the Lord for a blessed outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the services, you ought to begin now. We greatly need God's help. Many problems will need to be solved, both for home and abroad. We cannot solve them aright without the wisdom that comes from above. We cannot obtain this wisdom without asking. "Ask and ye shall receive." The greatest need of the world and the church at the present time is a revival of "pure and undefiled religion." There is only one way we can obtain it, and that is being "first pure," through the atonement of Christ and then asking with earnest "prayer and supplication in the Spirit." God is calling upon His people to humble themselves before Him for an outpouring of His Spirit upon us, and a manifestation of the Divine power through us. There ought to be public prayer, but this will not fully answer. There must come upon us a burden that will cause us to cry to God in secret for the regeneration and sanctification of souls. If we read the first chapter of the Acts of Apostles and do as the disciples did then God would surely pour out of His Spirit upon our Camp Meeting and souls would be saved. The prayers, singing, preaching and altar services would all be blessed, and eternity alone would reveal the good done. What do you say, beloved? Shall we follow the examples of the Disciples or shall we be satisfied to go along in a formal way? What account can we render to God if we do not advance in Spiritual life? Can we expect Him to say to us, "Well done, good and faithful servants?" What shall the answer be? God help us!

Prayer makes the darkened clouds withdraw,

Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw;
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.

We have just now noticed an article in an exchange that is in harmony with what we have written and it is so appropriate to the subject that we give it to the Highway readers.

PREVAILING PRAYER.

"These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brethren" (Acts 1:14).

If every church and Christian of any locality would open the Bible at first chapter of Acts today and do as the people did then, God would pour out His Spirit anywhere and any time for a revival. It is God's way.

The answer they got to their prayer reveals the character of their prayer, because when the answer came, the multitude ran together and asked what it meant, and Peter got up and said, "This is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; and it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my hand-maidens, I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy."

We are living in the last days, and this promise is for us when we shall have fulfilled the conditions as these people did. God is just waiting for a chance to be gracious.

The church is organizing most everything today except to kneel down together and pray. The church is in the organizing business to help pull the load, but what we need is not new organizations, but some new steam and some new power.

These people all prayed—not a part of them. Today there is only Sister Jones and Brother So and So, and a few people who do the praying—perhaps three or four, or half a dozen do the most of the praying. God never intended any such thing for our generation. God intended that the church should be composed exclusively of intercessors.

As the sons of Aaron, so in our dispensation God intends for every individual to enter into the Holy of Holies and get answers to their prayers. I want to say that it is a dreadful tragedy for any man or woman in the church to be without the spirit of prayer. Any man or woman who does not share in the soul travail of the church, hinders the church.

They all continued with one accord in prayer. They did not get down to pray and then get up and forget all about it; but they continued to pray until they knew God had answered. If God were to write about some churches today, He would have to say that they discontinued.

If it is right to pray for a thing, then it is wrong to stop praying until you get the answer.

The greatest need of the time is that some power shall sweep around the world and bring the Church down to her knees.

Adam's children were born to him through the instrumentality of Eve, and we are the bride of Christ, and He wants us to populate heaven through the travail of our souls.

Travail of soul is intense desire—God transferring His desire to your heart so that you want what God wants more than anything else in the world. God has to answer that kind of prayer, or else He would have to work contrary to His own Spirit. God certainly will answer the prayer that is prompted by His own Spirit.

God can and does deal with every situation when He gets a people filled with the Holy Ghost. That is His business.

Suppose I went to see President Coolidge. Perhaps I would have to wait a long time before I could gain an audience with him. But finally I am introduced to him and touch his hand. Is that the time to jump up and run away? No, that is the time to stay until I get what I want. If God does respond to prayer and bless us, that is not the time to stop—that is the time to start in.

When we pray in the Holy Ghost we never get less than we ask for. We always get more.

When we pray until the atmosphere of heaven comes down, sinners will repent in that atmosphere before they know what is the matter with them.

When these people prayed and supplicated, they created a spiritual vacuum that pulled the wind down from heaven. It pulled the atmosphere of heaven down upon the people until 3,000 sinners were converted. In such an atmosphere as that sinners will repent automatically. It is hard to stop them.

What we call opposition is nothing. When God's lightning strikes, there is no such thing as opposition. No opposition can stand when God works in answer to prayer.
