CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Why not send "The King's Highway" to your friends as a Christmas gift. It would remind them twice a month of your friendship beside the great help they would receive from reading its columns. Do it now.

PERSONALS

Sister Briggs wife of Rev. Perley Briggs, underwent a surgical operation on Friday Nov. 21st. in the Fisher Memorial Hospital at Woodstock. Let us pray for a speedy recovery.

We sympathize with Rev. H. H. Cosman in the loss of his beloved wife recently. She was a true woman of God and loved the cause of holiness.

Miss Ethel Estey, Missionary in Korea, has been compelled to return to America on account of ill-health. She underwent a serious operation a short time ago, in a New York hospital and we trust is now well on the way to recovery. Miss Estey is a sister of Bro. O. R. Estey of Woodstock.

William Haywood, Hubert and Perley Harris, of Victoria, N. B. returned home on Monday, Nov. 17th, after a year's sojourn in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. H. S. Dow, who has been visiting relatives and friends in different parts of Mass. for the past four weeks, returned home on Thursday Nov. 20th.

The special meetings in the church at Fort Fairfield have grown in interest being continued through the week Nov. 10-16. At the evening service Nov. 9th. De Verne Mullen the seven year old son of evangelist Rev. H. C. Mullen sang some much appreciated solos, an offering amounting to nine dollars was given to the little fellow.

A note from Rev. S. A. Baker is full of cheer. He has gained several pounds in flesh since going to the island. Sister Baker also has improved in health.

Percy Minue who started in business in St. John, has sold out and returned to Fredericton.

NOTE OF THANKS.

I wish to thank the many dear friends for their messages of tender and loving sympathy; and the comforting assurance that they are daily remembering me in prayer. I would like to send to each one a personal letter, but do not feel quite equal to doing so at present, so I take this opportunity of conveying to you my deep and heartfelt appreciation for the very kind and comforting expressions of love and sympathy that came to me in the hour of need. I am proving the eternal God to be my refuge, and underneath are the everlasting Arms.

Mrs. W. B. Winggins.

MARRIED.

Parker-Parker

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, North Head, Grand Manan, N. B. on November 16th. by Rev H. C. Archer, Miss Jessie N. Parker was united in marriage to Chas. H. Parker. They will reside at North Head where Mr. Parker is a prosperous merchant.

Randall-Willey

A very pretty marriage took place at the parsonage at Crystal Maine, on November 19th, 1924, when Mr. Claude Randall and Miss Clarabel Willey were united in holy matrimony by Rev. S. H. Clark. The young couple were supported by Mr. Ross F. and Miss Clara Peters. A reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Benj. Barker of Belvidere, Me.

Watson-Downing

Mr. Robert Watson of Fort Fairfield and Miss Harriet Downing of Grand Falls, N. B., were quietly married at the Reformed Baptist parsonage this Wednesday evening at 5:30 by Rev. C. S. Hilyard. Many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Watson a long life of happiness together.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our beloved daughter and sister, Hazel P. Vesey, who died in 1919.

Do not ask us if we miss her,

Oh, there's such a vacant place;

Can we e'er forget her footsteps,

Or her dear kind loving face.

Her Parents and Brother.

Please examine the label on your paper. We would appreciate your renewal at this time very much; Thanks.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

We trust at this season of the year, you are keeping in mind the different funds, in connection with the denominational work. They are all worthy of your support. You are doing well. Let us make this the banner year.

"What is the good of all this shouting and blessing and praising and boasting?" A good deal of good, if the shouting and praising and boasting and blessing are "in the Lord" and not in ourselves nor in anybody or anything else. Blowing God's horn may not be blowing our own. One good it accomplishes is to gladden the meek folks. If they meet and hear of one of these triumphant persons who bless the Lord at all times, whose mouths continually praise the Lord and whose souls make their boast in the Lord, it so increases their courage and faith and hope that they are glad. Is it not worth while to gladden meek saints? Surely it is. So don't get out of patience with the noisy people.—Standard.

"I am this day what I choose to be. Is this what I would like to be? If not, pay the price to be what you now long to be."
